President's Welcome

Welcome to Whitworth University! For more than 120 years, Whitworth has committed itself to providing an "education of mind and heart" that combines incredible learning opportunities with an enduring commitment to nurturing the soul. Within these pages, you will learn more about the many and diverse academic opportunities for our students. What cannot be captured here is the true spirit of Whitworth University. That enabling spirit equips our students to ask hard questions, allows our professors to seek new knowledge no matter where that search leads them, empowers our campus to form a lasting community characterized by grace and truth, and honors the relationships that we build along the way. When you complete your time at Whitworth, you will be among a privileged few who have been equipped within these hallowed grounds to use your newfound wisdom, gifts, and talents "to honor God, follow Christ, and serve humanity."

Go, Pirates!

Academic Services

Academic Advising

Each student is assigned a faculty advisor. First-year students are assigned to a specifically designated freshman advisor. Following the freshman year, each student selects an advisor whose academic specialty corresponds with the student's area of academic interest.

Whitworth faculty work to help students meet the following goals in academic advising:

- clarification of life and career goals
- creation of suitable educational plans including selection of courses and other educational experiences
- interpretation of institutional requirements
- increasing student awareness of educational resources available, including referral to and use of institutional and community support resources
- development of student decision making skills
- evaluation of student progress toward educational goals
- reinforcement of student self-direction

Students are required to meet with their advisors prior to registering for classes each term. They often meet with their advisors during the term, as well, to discuss the goals listed above. Faculty are always available to meet with students.

Whitworth faculty engage in two broad types of academic advising. In prescriptive advising, the advisor has primary responsibility for giving information to students. This type of advising is problem-oriented, and the relationship is based on faculty members giving advice from their position of authority. In departmental advising, advisor and student share responsibility for collecting information and making wise choices. This type of advising is growth-oriented (working to aid students in acquiring skills), and the relationship is based on trust and mutual respect.

Whitworth affirms holistic advising, which combines the strengths of prescriptive advising and developmental advising and stresses the importance of faculty members building relationships with students and encouraging students' responsibility for their own success.

The advisor is the primary link between the student's academic program and other resources of the university and, as such, plays an important role in each student's personal and academic development. Students are encouraged to discuss educational objectives as well as personal goals and problems with their advisors. While Whitworth makes every effort to assist students through the academic advising system, the student is expected to monitor his or her own academic progress, to know the graduation requirements pertinent to his or her program, to be cognizant of his or her grade point average, to make appropriate course selections, and to add/drop courses as needed to meet his or her educational goals. Advice and information are also available to each student from both the academic affairs office and the registrar's office.

Library

Harriet Cheney Cowles Memorial Library, at the heart of the campus, is home to the Whitworth Division of Information Resources, which encompasses campus information systems and instructional technology and media services, as well as library collections and services. The facility houses three general-purpose computer labs and features multiple computer stations throughout the building, complementing numerous special-purpose labs around campus. It is also home to the Whitworth Writing Center.

Library collections comprise more than 230,000 books, periodical volumes, volume-equivalents on microfilm, recordings, and audiovisual or digital media. Archival holdings — extensive collections of original documents — record Whitworth's history and aspects of the history of Protestantism in the Pacific Northwest. The library also serves as gateway to vast resources beyond its walls via interlibrary loan (through its participation in national and regional library networks) and via high-speed Internet to an immense "virtual collection" of online information sources. The latter includes more than 125 subscription databases accessible to registered students, faculty, and staff from any Internet-linked computer. Visit the library's home page at www.whitworth.edu/library.

Instructional Resources

Instructional resources provides operation and support services for the campus computer labs, the Blackboard course-management system, classroom technology, and instructional technology and media services. Three computer labs plus multiple computer stations located in the library, in addition to satellite computer labs located in several departments around campus, provide more than 300 computers for students. The Blackboard course-management system provides students with web-based access to course materials and resources. Classrooms are equipped with computers and projection equipment, providing faculty and students with access to networked files and the Internet. ITMS provides audiovisual resources for students and faculty, including access to video and audio viewing/listening stations, satellite-programming access, audio and video duplication services, and instructional technology support and production. The university provides the opportunity for all on-campus residents to connect their personal computers to the campus network from their rooms. Wireless access to the network is also available to students, faculty and staff across the campus. Off-campus students may also connect to the university network via VPN access.

Learning Resource Center (Study Skills)

Study-skills assistance is offered through this office, located in career services. The Whitworth Learning Resource Center provides individualized academic counseling and effective study-skills instruction in many areas, including time-management, note-taking and test-taking strategies, and stress management. Tutors are also available in most departments to offer small-group and individualized assistance. Schedules are posted within participating departments. There is no charge for these services for full-time students.

Writing Center

The Whitworth Writing Center offers students assistance with the writing process. Student and faculty consultants who represent several departments are available Sunday through Friday. Students may make appointments or stop by to talk about their ideas for papers, to work on development and organization, or to discuss editing concerns. This valuable resource is centrally located in the room with the curving glass-block wall at the top of the stairway in the library. Visit the center's home page at www.whitworth.edu/writingcenter.

Educational Principles

For more than a century, Whitworth's vision has been the pursuit of intellectual and spiritual development. Through decades of change, this fundamental purpose has remained firmly centered in the person of Jesus Christ. Our understanding of Christ is based on Scripture, the inspired and trustworthy record of God's self-disclosure and our final rule for faith and practice. As a university affiliated with the Presbyterian Church (USA), Whitworth stands within the historic Reformed tradition. Believing that God is the ultimate source of all truth and is to be loved with "all our mind and heart," Whitworth embraces freedom of inquiry and the unhindered pursuit of truth. Therefore, we equip our diverse student body to honor God, follow Christ and serve humanity, working for redemption and healing in a broken world.

Whitworth's educational principles are grouped broadly into three categories: the knowledge that students will gain, the skills they will need to work effectively in the world and the faith and values that our community seeks to reflect. These principles are interdependent; together they reflect an institution-wide commitment to provide a Whitworth education in which faith, learning and living are purposefully integrated.

Knowledge

Whitworth's educational mission is fulfilled through instruction and mentoring by Christian faculty and staff. Informed by their disciplines, which they attempt to view thoughtfully through the eyes of faith, faculty members encourage students to know themselves, the world, and the nature of their responsibility to God and to creation. Specifically, we are committed to providing our students with the following:

- A solid grounding in the liberal arts and sciences

We promote a knowledge of the methods, assumptions and content areas of at least one discipline, and an understanding of interdisciplinary themes and connections. We are also committed to helping our students appreciate intellectual and aesthetic traditions throughout the world and understand challenges to those traditions.

- An understanding of Christian faith and its implications for liberal arts learning

As an educational community open to a wide variety of voices, Whitworth is shaped by a theological heritage that examines the implications of faith for what is known and strives to understand the limits as well as the importance of rational knowledge.

Skills

We are committed to preparing students to pursue fulfilling careers and to make an effective contribution to the common good; this is a challenging task in a rapidly changing world that is technologically, culturally and intellectually complex. We equip students for meaningful vocations by developing the following abilities:

- Intellectual skills

We are committed to developing the capacity for critical thinking, ethical decision-making, problem-solving and creative expression. We also aspire to build skills in computation, quantitative analysis and responsible use of technology.

- Relational skills

We encourage reflection, self-understanding, and the ability to relate well within and across cultures. We are likewise committed to developing in our students the capacity to communicate with empathy and effectiveness, through the skills of listening, speaking and writing.

- Professional skills

We equip students with the technological literacy and other skills appropriate to their chosen areas of study and essential to their professional contributions to society. We encourage thoughtful career choices and lives of meaningful service.

Faith and Values

A Whitworth education is grounded in commitment to Christ and His teachings by faculty and staff members who embrace a variety of Christian traditions. We offer Christian perspectives on learning, and we support development of character that relates faith to life's most central issues. These include the following:

- Response to God

We encourage serious consideration of commitment to Christ, the gospel and the church, and to living as an act of worship and gratitude to God.

- Relationship to others

We encourage the development of character virtues (including compassion, humility, honesty and courage) in intellectual pursuit, as in all of life. We want our students to think and to act ethically, and to embrace responsible citizenship and service.

- Stewardship of creation

We encourage exploration and appreciation of the complex nature of life, responsible care for the natural world, and commitment to human health and well-being.

Student Life and Services

Taking seriously the vision of George Whitworth to provide "an education of mind and heart," the Whitworth Student Life Division participates in the educational mission of the university by viewing all aspects of life on campus as a laboratory for learning. We continue this tradition because we believe that this commitment to building character and cognitive skills reflects scriptural principles and community values; we also believe that this "whole-person" approach to learning is educationally effective.

The student life division offers numerous services designed to support learning in all areas of life. Health center and counseling programs are available, as are career/life advising services and support networks for students from around the world and for multicultural students who represent diverse U.S. ethnic backgrounds. In addition, an active student activities program is offered to enhance learning, to encourage fun and to build connections within the Whitworth community.

The Chapel Program

Whitworth enthusiastically embraces its call to equip students to honor God, follow Christ and serve humanity. Chapel programs and activities are designed to help students deepen their relationship with Jesus Christ and their understanding of the Christian faith. It is the special responsibility of the Whitworth Chaplain's Office to provide students with opportunities for worship, personal growth, the building of Christian community, mission and service. Each semester the student leadership team of small group coordinators are trained and equipped to coordinate small groups within each of their dorm communities. Our team also designs a weekly worship service in which a biblical theme is explored each semester. These are some of the many opportunities extended to the Whitworth community to encourage a growing commitment to Christ; they are open to all students.

Campus Housing

All students are required to live on campus during their freshman and sophomore years (a total of four housing terms) unless they reach 22 years of age before completing the sophomore year or finishing the four housing terms. Exemptions must be processed using the Residency Requirement Waiver Request, available at www.whitworth.edu/housingrequirement or from the housing office in student life.

Educational Support Program

Whitworth is committed to providing equal opportunities to all academically qualified students. Resources are available to assist with learning and physical disabilities. Our policy is to ensure all students reasonable accommodation in the admissions process and in their programs of study and activities.

Academic requirements may be modified as necessary to ensure that Whitworth does not discriminate against students with disabilities, as long as accreditation of classes will not be at risk. These modifications shall not affect the substance of the educational programs nor compromise educational standards; nor shall they intrude upon legitimate academic freedom. Modifications may include changes in length of time permitted for the completion of degree requirements, substitution of specific courses, and other adaptations that may be needed.

Legal documentation of all disabilities is required for services to be rendered. It is the responsibility of the student to request accommodation or auxiliary aids at least 16 weeks before classes, programs or activities begin.

Reasonable accommodations and auxiliary educational services that are not precluded by undue hardship to the institution may be requested through the Whitworth Educational Support Office in career services. The use of tape recorders, Braille, guide dogs or other adaptive devices in the classrooms or campus buildings is permitted. Auxiliary services may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- referral to appropriate on- or off-campus resources, services or agencies
- registration assistance
- note-taking services
- academic and tutorial services
- testing accommodations
- arrangements for special auxiliary aids, including taped texts, large-print materials and/or interpreters
- disability parking

Associated Students of Whitworth University

Associated Students of Whitworth University is the university's student governance and programming component. All full-time undergraduate students are members of ASWU. Elected leaders represent students from each living area and from off campus by providing information to, and obtaining information from, students about all university policies and about curricular and extra-curricular programming. ASWU student leaders provide a vital communication link between students and faculty, staff and administration.

Athletics

Whitworth Athletics, affiliated with the National Collegiate Athletics Association (NCAA) at the Division III level and a member of the Northwest Conference (NWC), offers 20 varsity sports. Men can participate in football, tennis, soccer, baseball, cross-country, indoor/outdoor track & field, basketball, swimming, and golf. Women's sports include volleyball, tennis, soccer, softball, cross-country, indoor/outdoor track & field, basketball, swimming, and golf. Whitworth also offers a strong intramurals program, which is available to the entire student body.

A commitment to excellence is the hallmark of Whitworth Athletics. In the last eight years, 20 Whitworth athletes have been named Academic All-Americans and more than 40 have received All-America recognition. Since 2000, five Pirate teams have achieved the highest average GPA in NCAA Division III for their respective sports, and 28 teams have captured Northwest Conference championships. The Pirates won the Northwest Conference McIlroy-Lewis Trophy for the best combined standings across all sports in 2008 and 2005, and Whitworth has placed among the top three conference programs for four consecutive years.

Whitworth's mission as a Christian liberal arts university is emphasized in its athletics program: Student-athletes are encouraged to participate fully in the academic, spiritual and social life of the campus, and Whitworth coaches are chosen for their effectiveness as teachers and mentors as well as for their knowledge and ability in athletics. We at Whitworth take great pride in the accomplishments of our student-athletes, and we strive to equip them to excel in sports, in academics, and in life.

Career Services/Student Employment

The Whitworth Career Services Office assists students in the identification of their unique talents and gifts, in the exploration of vocational interests, and in their preparation for entry into the world of work. The career services staff offers students access to computerized interest inventories, major-choice workshops, career-related seminars, internships, employment/job fairs and individualized career counseling. Extensive Internet and library resources are available for research in majors, career aptitude, employers, job-search strategies and graduate/professional schools. The student employment office assists Whitworth students in obtaining part-time employment to help them meet their expenses. Student job postings are available in the student employment office or at www.whitworth.edu/careerservices.

Behavior Policies Sexual Harassment

Whitworth University has a clearly defined policy, which applies to all campus constituencies, prohibiting all forms of sexual harassment.

For the purposes of this policy, unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment when (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment or academic advancement; (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions or academic decisions affecting such individuals; or (3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of interfering with an individual's work or academic performance or creates a demoralizing, intimidating, hostile or offensive working or academic environment.

If you believe there has been a violation of this policy, refer to the Whitworth Student Handbook section on Community Values and Behavioral Expectations. More information is available in the office of the associate dean of students, in student life.

Classroom Behavior

Students and faculty are expected to demonstrate civility, understanding and mutual respect for each other in the classroom. The faculty handbook states that faculty should "demonstrate respect for students as individuals and adhere to their proper role as intellectual guides and counselors." By the same token, students should demonstrate respect for faculty and student peers in all academic settings and should contribute positively to the learning environment. Disruptive classroom behavior will not be tolerated. Disruptive behavior may include, but is not limited to, threatening or abusive language or behavior, making unreasonable demands on faculty for time and attention, erratic and/or irrational behavior, continually speaking without being recognized, other verbal or behavioral expressions that interfere with the classroom environment, bringing unregistered persons to class without the permission of the instructor, and persistent disruptions including inappropriate computer use, ringing electronic devices, etc. If a student exhibits disruptive classroom behavior, the faculty member should confront the student, clearly identify the disruptive behavior, and require that the behavior cease. A faculty member may at any time remove a student from the classroom for disruptive behavior. A faculty member, in consultation with the department chair or program director, may develop a classroom behavioral contract outlining expectations and consequences for not meeting expectations, or may refer a disruptive student to the associate dean of instruction. The associate dean of instruction will meet with any student who is referred, or who continues to disrupt the learning environment. Students may be placed on behavioral probation or suspension based on the nature of the disruption. Behavioral suspension may include suspension from one or more classes for the duration of the current term or for a longer period.

Behavioral Probation and Suspension

Students may be placed on behavioral probation on the basis of their cumulative record of behavioral policy violations, violation of civil law, or other behavior that has the potential to place any members of the Whitworth community (including the offender) in jeopardy.

Behavioral probation consists of a contract between a student and the university specifying behavioral criteria for continued enrollment. Any violation of these criteria on the part of the student may result in behavioral suspension. The decision to place a student on behavioral probation is made by the dean of students or her/his designee.

Behavioral suspension includes suspension from classes as well as from all other Whitworth facilities and services, and it may be imposed at any time a student's behavior warrants such action.

The decision to suspend a student on behavioral grounds is made by the dean of students or her/his designee. If a student feels that there are mitigating circumstances, s/he has until 5 p.m. of the business day following the notice of the suspension decision to file a written request for appeal with the Educational Review Board, through the board chair.

Implementation of these policies, including the appeal process, is regulated by the Student Bill of Rights, Section V, as printed in the Student Handbook. Evening degree program students should refer to the Whitworth Continuing Studies Student Handbook.

Rules and Regulations

It is Whitworth's expectation that each student will follow university rules and regulations as stated in the catalog. In instances where no appeal procedure is spelled out and the student believes that a special set of circumstances makes appeal reasonable, he or she may appeal to the vice president for academic affairs or the vice president for student life, depending upon the situation. The appropriate vice president or his/her designee will either render a decision on the appeal or refer the student to the proper office for a decision.

The Whitworth Campus

Academic, Administrative, Service and Support Facilities

Aquatics Center

The Whitworth Aquatics Center, completed in 1984-85 and updated in 1992, houses a six-lane, 25-yard competition pool with a moveable bulkhead, allowing for a warm-up pool in the shallow end. The university offers a variety of classes, including water aerobics, kayaking, SCUBA and swimming, in the aquatics center. Lap and open-swim hours are available throughout the day and evening.

Auld House

The Sara Miller Auld House is home to Whitworth's human resource services and payroll offices. Built around 1914, the house was originally the home of Sara Miller Auld, the daughter of one of the tenant farmers employed by Jay P. Graves, who donated the land for Whitworth. Auld was a 1925 graduate of Whitworth. The university bought Auld House in 1988 and converted it into offices.

Harriet Cheney Cowles Memorial Library

Originally constructed in 1948 in memory of the wife of Spokane newspaper publisher William H. Cowles, Sr., the library was expanded in 1969 and again in 1993, when it not only doubled in size but was positioned to embrace the age of digital information. While physical holdings comprise more than 230,000 books, periodical volumes, audiovisual media, etc., plus extensive archival collections, the library serves also as gateway to immense "virtual collections" accessible online, and to other information resources beyond its walls via interlibrary loan. Three computer labs along with multiple computer stations for student use are located in the building, which is also home to the departments of instructional resources and information systems, the instructional technology and media services center, and the Whitworth Writing Center.

Cowles Memorial Auditorium

Named in honor of Spokane publisher William H. Cowles, Sr., the auditorium, constructed in 1955 and refurbished in 1995, seats 1,250 people. Lectures, theatre, ballet, music performances and other events take place in the auditorium throughout the year. The theatre department offices are also located in this building.

Dixon Hall

Constructed in 1955 and remodeled in 2000, Dixon Hall is named in memory of Grant Dixon, Sr., university trustee from 1940-49. It serves as one of the main classroom buildings on campus. Offices for the Whitworth School of Education, graduate studies in education, and the psychology department are located here.

Facilities Services

Constructed in the mid-1940s with additions in 1950 and 1956, the facilities services building houses a connected boiler room, shop room, HVAC and electrical shop, carpenter shop, paint shop and general trades shop. The boiler stack reaches a height of approximately 65 feet.

The Fieldhouse

A gift from C. Davis Weyerhaeuser, university trustee from 1941 until his death in 1999, the fieldhouse was built in 1962. Facilities include a portable wood floor for basketball and volleyball, batting and pitching cages, a ballet loft, and indoor track-and-field facilities. The Dr. James P. Evans Athletic Training Center, including offices of the athletic training program and athletic training facilities, is also located in the fieldhouse.

Graves Gymnasium

Graves Gymnasium is named in honor of Spokane realtor J. P. Graves, a trustee of Whitworth from 1914 to 1918, who donated the land on which Whitworth now stands. Graves Gym serves as the practice facility for men's and women's varsity basketball and volleyball. Kinesiology & athletics classes and many intramural activities take place in Graves; many of the coaches' offices are also located here.

Hawthorne Hall

Purchased in 1998, this former elementary school features seven classrooms and two computer labs. It also houses the offices of continuing studies, institutional advancement, alumni, parent & church relations, university communications, The Whitworth Foundation and The Whitworth Fund.

Eileen Hendrick Hall

For many years this structure, constructed in 1975, housed the offices of the student life division. It was remodeled in 1997 for classroom use and is currently home to the Whitworth International and Intercultural Student Affairs Office, the International Education Center and Off-Campus Studies.

Hixson Union Building

The Hixson Union Building was dedicated in 1998 in gratitude to Christina Hixson and the Ernst F. Lied Foundation Trust for supporting the construction of this beautiful student center, which stands on the site of the old Hardwick Union Building. Located in this building are the campus bookstore, post office, café, dining hall, Mind & Hearth Coffee House, lounge areas, game room, outdoor-recreation office, Whitworthian (campus newspaper) and Natsihi (yearbook) offices, and the Whitworth FM radio studio. The HUB also includes offices for the Associated Students of Whitworth University (ASWU), various student organizations, the dean of students, student employment, educational support services, career services and residence life, as well as the learning resource center and a number of meeting rooms.

Eric Johnston Science Center

Constructed in 1967, the science center was a gift from the Eric Johnston Foundation. Under a grant from the National Science Foundation, this facility was extensively renovated in 1998-99. All three science departments – biology, chemistry and physics – are located here, as are classrooms, labs, two greenhouses, and a recently renovated auditorium and lecture hall. The science center also houses the science library.

Lied Center for the Visual Arts

The Ernst F. Lied Center for the Visual Arts, Whitworth's 20,000 square-foot visual-arts building, opened in 2008. In addition to large, well-lit teaching studios for ceramics and sculpture, drawing, mixed media, painting and printmaking, the building features a computer graphics laboratory, two galleries, and interior view corridors as well as exterior views to the center of campus and toward the mountains to the north.

Lindaman Center

Constructed in 1946 and remodeled in 1980 and 2004, the Lindaman Center bears the name of Edward B. Lindaman, Whitworth president from 1970-80. The department of mathematics & computer science is housed in this building along with two computer labs dedicated to the computer science curriculum. In addition, the communication studies department offices are located here.

MacKay Hall

The onetime home of Rev. Donald D. MacKay, former Whitworth dean, president (1911-17) and chairman of the board of trustees (1914-17), now houses the office of admissions.

McEachran Hall

Constructed in 1952 and named in honor of Whitworth Board of Trustees Chairman W.L. McEachran, who served from 1923 until 1959, this facility houses the administrative offices of the president, academic affairs, business affairs, the registrar, student accounting services and financial aid.

Music Building

Constructed in 1977, the music building, dedicated to William H. Cowles, Jr., houses a recital hall, orchestra room, classrooms, music library, faculty offices, 17 practice rooms with pianos and a piano lab.

Omahe Field

Omahe Field, located at the southwest corner of the Whitworth campus, opened in fall 2007 and is used for recreational activities and intramural sports. The field, seeded with athletic turf, covers 120,000 square feet and includes a 240-foot by 400-foot playing area for Ultimate Frisbee, soccer, flag football and other intramural sports and recreational events. Omahe Field was named in honor of the generations of students and alumni from the Okanogan Valley who have attended Whitworth; the valley was earlier known as Omahe by the Okanogan Indians.

Pine Bowl

Whitworth's football and soccer teams practice and play home games here. In 1994, an all-weather track and other improvements were completed. Boppell Memorial Track is named in honor of the parents of former chairman of the Whitworth Board of Trustees Charles L. (Chuck) Boppell, '65.

William P. and Bonnie V. Robinson Science Hall

Opening in fall 2011, the Robinson Science Hall, named for one of Whitworth's most popular and long-serving presidents (1993-2010) and his wife, is the largest, most expensive academic facility in Whitworth's history. The three-story, 63,000 square-foot building on the site of the former fine arts building (Whitworth's original science building) implements many sustainable practices in its construction and operation and provides optimum classroom and lab space for Whitworth's biology and chemistry students.

Schumacher Hall

Schumacher Hall houses the Whitworth Health & Counseling Services Center.

Scotford Fitness Center

Constructed in 2000, this 4,200 square-foot facility provides state-of-the-art exercise facilities for students, faculty and staff.

Scottford Tennis Center

Scottford Tennis Center, including the Cutter Tennis Courts, opened in 2005. The center includes three outdoor courts and three courts inside an all-weather bubble.

Seeley G. Mudd Chapel

Constructed in 1979, the chapel was donated by the Seeley G. Mudd Foundation in recognition of Whitworth's commitment to the integration of faith and learning. The chaplain's staff offers midweek worship services, weekly Hosanna services, and other services as requested by the university and community.

Westminster Hall

Constructed in 1946 and remodeled in 2008-09, Westminster is home to the English, modern languages, theology, and kinesiology & athletics department offices, as well as the athletic training education program.

Westside Athletics Complex

This facility includes Diana Marks Softball Field and a complete men's and women's soccer facility. The fields include state-of-the-art scoreboards and a shared press box.

Weyerhaeuser Hall

In addition to housing seven classrooms, two computer labs, the Robinson Teaching Theatre and a conference room, this 33,000 square-foot facility is home to the Whitworth School of Global Commerce & Management and the departments of economics & business, political science, history and sociology. Constructed in 2004, it is also a vital contact point between Whitworth and the larger community through the work of the Weyerhaeuser Center for Christian Faith & Learning and the Regional Resource & Learning Center.

Academic Information

Graduate Students

Graduate students are master's candidates. Admission to these programs is by application only.

Matriculated Students

Are students who have met the requirements for admission have registered for courses in their program of choice.

Non-Matriculated Students

Students who do not wish to seek a degree, but want to attend only specific courses are classified as non-matriculated students. These students are not required to submit the credentials required for admission as a matriculated student.

Veterans

Whitworth is approved for veteran training as an institution of higher education by the Higher Education Coordinating Board. The university's academic programs of study are approved by the Higher Education Coordinating Board's State Approving Agency for enrollment of persons eligible to receive educational benefits under Title 38 and Title 10, U.S. Code. Whitworth is committed to upholding and complying with the intent of Veterans Administration regulations. Benefit recipients must meet satisfactory-progress standards in order to continue receiving benefits for study. VA benefit recipients are held to the same academic standards as other Whitworth students. Records that permit monitoring of progress are kept in the registrar's office. Termination of benefits will be initiated upon receipt of a withdrawal form. It is the responsibility of the benefit recipient to submit a withdrawal form to the registrar and to notify the veterans' coordinator immediately upon ceasing to attend any course.

Class Standing

Class standing is determined as follows:

Freshman	0-29 semester credits
Sophomore	30-59 semester credits
Junior	60-89 semester credits
Senior	90 and above semester credits
126	minimum to graduate

Registration

Whitworth University students register for classes through WhitNet. Students register for their next classes during their assigned registration period each semester and can adjust their class schedules via WhitNet through the first week of classes.

Registration for teaching assistantships, research assistantships, independent studies, and internships are processed in the registrar's office. Registration for study abroad is handled by the International Education Center.

Beginning with the second week of classes, students must complete an add/drop form, including the instructor's signature, and submit it to the registrar's office for processing.

Deadlines for dropping and adding classes are published in the academic calendar each semester. Students receive notification to verify their course registrations during the drop/add period each semester. Credit cannot be granted for courses in which a student did not officially register after the course or semester has ended. It is the student's responsibility to check their registration information and discuss any needed corrections with the registrar's office. It is the university's policy to deny requests for registration in any course after the close of the term in which registration was required.

Normal Full-Time Course Load

The normal load for full-time undergraduate students is 12 to 17 semester credits in the fall and spring semesters, including up to five semester credits in Jan Term. If a student enrolls in more than 17 credits, s/he may incur additional tuition charges. Students should check with the student accounting services office to see if overload tuition charges are waived for a particular course. Jan Term is actually part of the spring semester and is free to students who were enrolled full-time as matriculated day students in the fall semester or are enrolled full time as matriculated day students for the spring semester. The maximum allowable load in the summer is three semester credits in a three-week session and six semester credits in a six-week session. A student must average 31.5 semester credits per year to graduate in four years. Permission to enroll in more than the 19 credits must be approved in writing by the advisor and the registrar. In order to remain under the catalog requirements in effect at the time of his/her initial enrollment, a student must complete a degree within six years from the time of matriculation. Because graduate programs vary in format, students should check with their respective graduate schools to determine normal course load.

Normal Progress and Financial Aid

Registration for less than a fulltime load (12-17 semester credits) will prevent a student from receiving some forms of financial aid. More information on satisfactory progress requirements for recipients of financial aid is available in the Whitworth Financial Aid Office.

Student Holds

Different circumstances can cause a hold to be placed on a student's account. Each hold prevents some type of University privilege such as the right to register, add/drop classes, receive official transcripts, or participate in campus activities. The list below shows the types of holds and the offices to contact regarding them.

Type of Hold

Academic Suspension	Registrar's Office
Advisor Hold	Advisor
Business Office Hold	Student Accounts Office
Loan Office Hold	Student Accounts Office
Financial Aid Hold	Financial Aid Office
Registrar's Hold	Registrar's Office
Student Life Hold	Student Life Office

Waitlisting For Closed Classes

Students may waitlist themselves via WhitNet for classes that are closed. As space becomes available in closed classes, waitlisted students will be sent an email notifying them that they have 24 hours to register for the course on WhitNet. If the student does not register within 24 hours they will be dropped from the waitlist.

Changes in Registration Class Attendance

Class attendance is expected and may be included in the calculation of the grade for the class. Students who register for courses they do not attend are responsible for dropping the courses officially through the registrar's office. The consequence of not officially dropping a course is a "WW" (withdrew without permission) grade, which calculates as an "F" in the GPA. Students should contact the professor if they plan to be absent any day during the first week of the semester/term. No person other than a faculty member attending informally with the approval of the professor may attend a Whitworth course in which that person has not been officially registered. A professor may allow a student to attend his or her class only if the student's name appears on the official class roster from the registrar's office.

Withdrawals

Accelerated classes and graduate level classes are sometimes offered in a non-traditional term. Check with your department to determine the withdrawal policy for your program.

Traditional semester programs have the following withdrawal policy:

- A withdrawal from a course during the first two weeks of the term will not appear on the transcript.
- A withdrawal after the first two weeks through the ninth week of the term will be noted with a "W" (withdrawal) on the transcript.
- A withdrawal after the ninth week and before final exams will be noted with a "WF" (withdraw failing) on the transcript.
- If a student stops attending a course or never attends but does not officially withdraw from the course by completing a drop slip and submitting it to the registrar's office, a grade of "WW" (withdrew without permission) will be noted on the transcript and financial obligations for the course will remain binding.

Hardship Withdrawal

In rare circumstances, the withdrawing student may be granted a hardship withdrawal, given when a debilitating medical or psychological condition makes it necessary for the student to withdraw from all of his or her courses. To be considered, the student should apply to the dean of students or his/her designee within a week of the anticipated withdrawal, providing written documentation of the condition. Under hardship-withdrawal status, the student will receive a "W" in all classes for the term, and financial officers will determine charges based on the number of weeks that university services were utilized.

Hiatus Policy

Students who have completed at least one semester at Whitworth are eligible to take a leave of absence for up to one academic year, and to return without reapplying for admission. This leave, known as a hiatus, allows the student to keep his or her WhitNet and Whitworth e-mail accounts active while s/he is away. Students may also go on hiatus for a partial semester if they completely withdraw from the university for a semester and plan to return for the next semester.

Grades and Quality Points

The following symbols are used:

A	Superior: 4 points
A-	3.7 points
B+	3.3 points
B	Good: 3 points
B-	2.7 points
C+	2.3 points
C	Fair: 2 points
C-	1.7 points
D+	1.3 points
D	Poor: 1 point
D-	.7 point
F	Failure: 0 points
W	Official Withdrawal; does not affect GPA
WA	Administrative Withdrawal; does not affect GPA
WF	Withdrawal While Failing (or past the acceptable time limit for a "W" grade), computed as an "F" in the GPA
WW	Withdrawal Without Permission (stopped attending or never attended the course), computed as an "F" in the GPA
AU	Audit; does not affect GPA
I	Incomplete; to be made up by six weeks into the next fall or spring semester
IE	Incomplete; time to finish work is extended until six weeks into the next fall or spring semester
S	Satisfactory; given upon completion of a Satisfactory/Not Satisfactory course; does not affect GPA; commonly used for grading internships, study abroad programs and specific non-graded courses.
NS	Not Satisfactory; given for unsatisfactory work in a Satisfactory/Not Satisfactory course; does not affect GPA
P/F	P/F Pass for grade of "C" or higher; grades of "C," "D +," "D," "D-" or "F" will result in an "F" grade.
P/NC	For class taken with P/NC grading option, Pass is given for grade of "C" or higher; No Credit is given for a "C-," "D+," "D," "D-" or "F"; grade of P/NC does not affect GPA and is irreversible.

Pass/No Credit Grading Option

This option is designed to encourage students to explore areas of study outside their majors. Students may choose to take one P/NC course each academic year at Whitworth. Core courses, courses in the student's major or area of concentration, and education courses are excluded from this option. Students may elect to take PE activity courses Pass/No Credit. A grade of Pass will be assigned in a P/NC course on the basis of a grade of "C" or higher. A grade of No Credit will be assigned in a P/NC course on the basis of a grade of "C-" or lower. Once a P/NC has been declared, it is irreversible. Check the academic calendar for the deadline to declare P/NC.

Grade Reports Midterm Grades

On the designated date noted as midterm in the academic calendar, student grades of C- or lower are reported (on WhitNet) to the registrar's office. The student and his/her advisor are then notified of the grade.

Final Grades

Final grades are reported to the registrar's office on the designated date specified in the academic calendar. Final grades may be viewed on WhitNet.

Calculation of the Grade Point Average

Current and cumulative grade point averages are calculated on the basis of grades earned at Whitworth only. A student may transfer credits from another regionally accredited institution that count toward the total required for graduation, but the student cannot transfer the grades received in those courses. The grade point average (GPA) is computed by dividing the quality points total by the total number of graded credits attempted during any given grading period. Quality points for a course are determined by multiplying the numerical equivalent of the letter grade by the credit attempted. Pass/No Credit and Satisfactory/Not Satisfactory grades are not used in computing the GPA.

Honors

Graduation honors are as follows:

cum laude (with honors)	3.50 GPA
magna cum laude (with high honors)	3.75 GPA
summa cum laude (with highest honors)	3.90 GPA

Honors are based on at least 32 semester credits taken at Whitworth. Transfer grades are not included in honors computation.

Academic Credit and Evaluation

Academic credit is awarded on the basis of semester credits. One semester credit is equivalent to 14 contact hours and two hours of work outside of class for each contact hour. Evaluation of coursework is made in a variety of ways, depending upon the nature of the course. Midterm grades are given to students receiving grades of "C-" or below so that there is opportunity for them to improve performance. Final letter grades (including plus/minus option) are given in most courses, and students are informed in advance of those few courses that are evaluated on a Pass/No Credit basis.

Acceptance of Transfer Credits

Whitworth will accept applicable undergraduate and graduate work transferred from regionally accredited institutions. For institutions without regional accreditation, transfer of credit will be considered if the credibility of the institution can be supported by the "three-letter rule," which states that it is the responsibility of the student to provide letters from three regionally accredited institutions certifying that they will accept credit from the institution from which the student is seeking credit. A total of two-thirds credit will be awarded to non-regionally accredited Bible schools that hold an ABHE accreditation.

A maximum of 64 semester credits may be transferred from a two-year college or a total of 94 semester credits from any four-year college or combination of two- and four-year colleges. Credits earned more than 15 years prior to matriculation at Whitworth will require department approval if they are to fulfill a requirement in the major. Courses in which the student received a grade lower than "C-," vocational-technical courses, non-college level courses, credit earned by exam and incomplete courses are not transferable. Official transcripts must be received by the registrar's office from the transferring institution in order to have credit evaluated for final acceptance.

Transfer Policies for Students Holding Associate of Arts Degrees

A student transferring to Whitworth with an associate of arts (A.A.) degree from a community college in Washington (approved by the Intercollege Relations Commission for the State of Washington), Colorado, Oregon, California, Montana, the Community College of Southern Idaho, North Idaho College, or with an associate of science (A.S.) degree from a community college in Washington, will receive the following:

- Junior standing (60 semester credits)
- Transfer credit of a maximum of 96 quarter credits or 64 semester credits
- Waiver of all general requirements, with the following exceptions:
 - A choice of one of the following: Core 150, Western Civilization I: Christian Worldview Perspectives; Core 250, Western Civilization II: The Rationalist Worldview; or Core 350: Applied Ethics, Public Policy and Worldviews
 - Biblical Literature: Three semester credits in the Old Testament, New Testament, or one or more books of the Bible
 - Modern Foreign Language: Eight semester credits, 15 quarter credits or a full year of college credit in modern foreign language (including American Sign Language)

In order for a transfer student to meet the general education requirements, s/he must earn an approved associate degree prior to initial enrollment at Whitworth.

Transfer students are encouraged to contact the registrar's office to determine the applicability of their coursework to specific bachelor's degrees. General information can be given over the telephone (toll-free at 800.533.4668). To obtain a complete transcript evaluation, send the request with an official copy of college transcripts to Registrar's Office, Whitworth University, 300 W. Hawthorne Road, Spokane, WA 99251.

Step Up Policy

This option is available only to students who have senior standing, so as to ensure their readiness for the academic work. An undergraduate student may take up to six credit hours of MBA, MIM or THG classes (if they have met the pre-requisites) and have those six graduate-level credits apply to their undergraduate program, if students indicate that they are interested in pursuing either the MBA, MIM or the MA in Theology degree. These six credits cannot be used for both undergraduate and graduate credit. They will apply to and be recorded on a student's undergraduate degree. They will not be counted again for graduate credit once a student is admitted to the MBA, MIM or MA in Theology program, however, their graduate program total credit requirement will be reduced by the number of credits they complete in the Step Up program, up to six credits, and the commensurate course requirement will be waived.

Alternative Course Credit

A maximum of 32 alternative semester credits (48 quarter credits) may be counted toward graduation. Alternative credit includes Advanced Placement, international baccalaureate courses, College Level Examination Program (CLEP) credit, DANTES, credit based on completion of advanced work, portfolios, and credit for military service and schools. Alternative course credit calculates as part of the transfer-credit limit of 94. Contact the registrar's office for further information.

Advanced Placement (AP)

Whitworth is an active participant in the College Entrance Examination Board Advanced Placement program. A score of three or above on an AP test is accepted for credit in some disciplines at Whitworth and in many cases will also satisfy a general graduation requirement and/or requirement for an academic major. Refer to Whitworth's website for details.

International Baccalaureate (IB)

Whitworth recognizes the international baccalaureate diploma and subject examinations; the university awards credit on a course-by-course basis for only high-level courses passed with a score of five or higher. Refer to Whitworth's website for details.

College Level Examination Program (CLEP)

Whitworth grants academic credit for sufficiently high scores on CLEP general and selected CLEP subject examinations. These cutoff scores are listed in the College Entrance Examination Board publication "College Placement and Credit by Examination," which is available at most high schools and colleges. Information regarding CLEP and DANTES exams may be obtained on our website or by contacting the Whitworth Continuing Studies Office at 509.777.3222. Credit for general CLEP exams will be awarded only if the exam is taken within one year of matriculation. Credit for lower level CLEP and DANTES subject exams will be awarded only if the exam is taken before higher level course work in the same discipline is taken. Students must complete an application to take CLEP and DANTES exams and have it approved by the registrar's office prior to taking the exam.

Changes in Academic Program

A student may elect to change his/her major, area of concentration, or second field, but s/he is advised to evaluate possible increases in the length of time required to graduate. Any changes of program or academic advisor must be requested in writing, signed by the advisor and submitted to the registrar's office.

Academic Petitions

Petitions regarding general University policies may be made in the following order:

1. Registrar's Office
2. Petitions and Appeals Committee

Academic Honesty

Just as the faculty, staff and administration at Whitworth strive to be forthright, direct and honest, and to value integrity in all their dealings, the university expects all students to function in like manner. Students are expected to adhere to the highest standards of academic honesty and to refrain from any dishonest or unethical action. In all academic exercises, examinations, papers and reports, students are expected to submit their own work. The use of the words or ideas of others is always to be indicated through an acceptable form of citation. This policy will be specified in the syllabus for each course. Definition of plagiarism: Plagiarism occurs whenever a person attempts to pass off as his or her own work, either verbally or in writing, the words and ideas of others. Plagiarism most often occurs in projects that require independent preparation (outside of class); although it can occur in essay examinations, this is not generally the case. Plagiarism can be either inadvertent (a failure to understand the responsibility for acknowledgment or the means by which acknowledgment should be made) or willful (with a conscious intent to deceive).

Definition of cheating and dry-labbing: Cheating is any academic activity in which the student submits for grade or credit work that is not his or her own and/or work that has not been done within the structure and context established by the assignment. It may occur in a variety of ways: copying another student's homework, copying answers from another student's test, bringing unauthorized notes or materials to an exam, copying another student's lab notes, or making up fictitious lab results (also known as "dry-labbing"). All cheating is regarded as willful deception.

Consequences of violations of the policy on academic honesty:

- The faculty member will confront the student(s) in cases of suspected violations of the policy on academic honesty and will keep a written record of the incident.
- The faculty member will assess the gravity of the violation and determine the consequences, which may range from a failing grade on the specific assignment to a failing grade in the course.
- The student has a right to appeal any faculty member's decision to the Whitworth Academic Affairs Office.
- The faculty member will submit a written report of policy violations, with their consequences, to the Academic Affairs Office.
- The student will receive a warning after the first violation.
- If a student violates the academic honesty policy a second time, depending on the nature of the violations, the student may be suspended for the remainder of the current term or for a longer period.

Academic Grievances

It is assumed that most grievances will be resolved in conversation between a student and his/her professor or within the department involved. However, in cases where resolution is not so easily achieved, the procedures are as follows:

- The student must first seek resolution of the conflict in consultation with the professor. Before becoming involved in the matter, the associate dean of instruction will ensure that this initial exchange has taken place.
- If a satisfactory resolution is not possible in the first phase, the student may appeal in writing to the associate dean of instruction for adjudication.
- Grade challenges must be initiated by the student within 30 days after the grade is posted.

Academic Probation and Suspension

A student is placed on academic probation at the end of any semester or term in which his or her cumulative grade point average falls below 2.0. Since probation removes a person from good academic standing, students on probation will be limited in their opportunities to participate in off-campus study programs and extracurricular activities (varsity sports, student government, student publications and radio broadcasting, for example). A student remains on probation until his or her cumulative GPA reaches the minimum 2.0 standard. A student receives an academic warning when, during any fall or spring semester, his or her semester GPA falls below 2.0 while the cumulative grade-point average is 2.0 or above. The case of any student who receives an academic warning for two or more consecutive semesters will be reviewed by the Whitworth Educational Review Board, and the student may be placed on probation. Extracurricular activities are not limited by an academic warning. Students may be suspended at the end of any semester or term in which their semester GPA falls below 1.0, or if, after being placed on probation, they fail to earn at least a 2.0 GPA for the succeeding semester or term. Students enrolled in Whitworth Continuing Studies courses may be placed on academic probation at the end of any 12-week period of an accelerated-format term during which they are registered for six or more credits (whether or not completed) and their GPA falls below 2.0. A student who is on probation may not register for more than three courses or nine semester credits in the subsequent accelerated-format term. Students remain on probation until their cumulative GPA reaches the minimum 2.0 standard. A student may be suspended at the end of a 17-week period during which he or she is registered for up to nine credits (whether or not nine credits are completed) if the GPA for that period is below 2.0. A pattern of successive withdrawal (over more than one semester) may be grounds for suspension. If there are mitigating reasons for unsatisfactory progress that results in suspension, students may appeal in writing to the Educational Review Board through the Whitworth Academic Affairs Office. Reinstatement after any semester or term on suspension is dependent upon written application to the Educational Review Board through the academic affairs office. Students who are receiving financial aid should refer to satisfactory progress policies and appeal processes.

Course-Numbering System

Courses are numbered sequentially from 100 through 599. The following schedules of general and special course numbers should serve as helpful reference tools for students.

General Course Numbers

Lower-Division Courses

100-199: Primarily for freshmen. May not be taken for graduate credit.

200-299: Primarily for sophomores. May not be taken for graduate credit.

Upper-Division Courses

300-399: Primarily for juniors and seniors. Graduate students may count a limited number of credits.

400-499: Primarily for seniors. Graduate students may count a limited number of credits.

500-599: Graduate level. Undergraduates may enroll only with special permission.

Special Course Numbers

At undergraduate and graduate levels, course numbers ending in 80, 86, 90, 91, 95 or 96 indicate special courses. Subject matter in these courses varies. All departments may offer these types of courses, but because not all may be listed in this catalog, students are urged to ask individual department offices about the availability of courses of the type and level desired. Their designations are:

80 Field Study

86 Readings

90 Internship

91 Independent Study

95 Teaching Assistantship

96 Special Topics

Transcript Requests

Transcript requests may be made in person, or by mailing or faxing the Transcript Request Form located on the registrar's office website (www.whitworth.edu/transcript). Transcript requests cannot be handled by phone. Transcripts may be purchased with a VISA or MasterCard (include card number and expiration date), a check made out to Whitworth University, or cash. Official transcripts are $5 each for the first five in an order and $3 for each additional transcript. Transcript requests can be sent by priority or overnight mail for additional applicable fees. Please allow at least one week of processing time during the term and two weeks at the beginning or end of a term. Rush orders must be paid by cash or credit card to avoid a four-day check-clearance delay. The fax number for the registrar's office is 509.777.3296. The mailing address is Registrar's Office, Whitworth University, 300 W. Hawthorne Road, Spokane, WA 99251.

Diploma Reorder

Replacement diplomas are available through the registrar's office for a $20 fee.

Confidentiality

Each academic year the university informs students of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended. This act is designed to protect the privacy of education records, to establish the right of students to inspect and review their academic records, and to provide guidelines for the correction of inaccurate or misleading data through informal or formal hearings. Students have the right to file complaints with the FERPA office concerning any alleged failure by Whitworth University to comply with this act. The complete institutional policy statement related to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 is available through the registrar's office.

Directory Information

At its discretion, the university may provide directory information in accordance with the provisions of FERPA to include a student's name, address, telephone number, e-mail address, date and place of birth, major field of study, dates of attendance, class standing, full- or part-time status, degrees and awards received, most recent previous educational agency or institution attended, denominational affiliation, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, and weight and height of members of athletics teams. Students may withhold directory information by notifying the registrar's office in writing within two weeks after the first day of class for each semester. This request for non-disclosure will be honored until revoked. A request to withhold directory information will prevent the student's name and degree from being published on the Dean's Honor Roll and in the commencement program.

Students may allow the release of academic information to designated individuals by signing a Permission to Release Educational Records form, available on the registrar's page of the university website and in the registrar's office.

Changes to Directory Information

Name-change policy: A current or former student of Whitworth University may change any component of his or her name with proper documentation and a completed name change request form. Types of changes may include first-, middle-, and last-name replacements; converting an initial to the actual name; replacing a nickname; returning to a birth name, or any other name-change variation that may arise. Acceptable documentation will include a copy of a legal document, such as a marriage certificate, birth certificate, divorce decree or court order. In addition, one supporting piece of identification reflecting the change must be presented. Forms of identification may include a driver's license, Social Security card, or other identifying documentation deemed acceptable by the registrar. After the proper identification and a completed request form are received by the registrar's office (300 W. Hawthorne Road, Spokane, WA 99251), the change will be reflected on the student's hard-copy academic record, transcript and computer record. Address change: Please notify the registrar's office of any address changes by supplying your name, student I.D. number or Social Security number, old address, new address and phone number to the registrar's office at the address above.

Student Right-To-Know Information

In compliance with the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, Whitworth is pleased to provide the following information concerning its graduation rates. The rates reflect the graduation status of students for whom 150 percent of the normal time to completion has elapsed.

Cohort entering fall semester of	Size of original cohort	Number graduated	Percent graduated
1995	394	266	67.5 percent
1996	315	219	69.5 percent
1997	398	284	71.4 percent
1998	373	251	67.3 percent
1999	406	309	76.1 percent
2000	402	297	73.9 percent
2001	427	317	74.2 percent
2002	433	332	76.7 percent
2003	438	320	73.1 percent
2004	469	372	79.3 percent

Equal Opportunity Policy

It is the policy of Whitworth University to provide equal educational opportunity without regard to age, race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status or disability as defined by law, in accordance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Educational Amendments Act of 1972, Sections 799A and 845 of the Public Health Services Act, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1991. In addition, Whitworth provides equal employment opportunity without regard to age, race, color, national origin, sex, marital status or disability as defined by law, in accordance with Title 49.60 of the Washington Law Against Discrimination, Equal Pay Act of 1963, Title VI and VII (as amended by the Equal Employment Opportunity Act of 1972) of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, Title IX of the Educational Amendments Act of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Section 402 of the Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Act of 1974, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1991.

Directed Studies

Independent Study (numbered 191, 291, 391, 491, 591)

Special projects may be undertaken on a tutorial basis by qualified students. Department approval of proposals is based upon the following criteria:

- The student has demonstrated readiness for independent work.
- The project topics/materials are not covered in a regular course.
- A regular full-time faculty member agrees to supervise the study.
- A student should take no more than 12 credits of independent study during his/her total university career; generally, no more than three per semester.

Students are to submit proposals with the signatures of the faculty supervisor and the department chair to the registrar's office by the seventh class day of the fall or spring semester in which the study is to be taken. During Jan Term and summer terms, proposals must be submitted by the fourth class day.

Readings (numbered 386, 486)

If the study is primarily a review of literature, the "readings" designation may be given. This type of study could be preparatory work for a research paper, particularly at the graduate level.

Teaching Assistantship (numbered 395, 495)

This type of course is for the advanced major in a discipline (junior standing required). If a faculty member believes that a student has sufficient maturity in his or her field, the student may be offered the opportunity to assist in the teaching process. Responsibilities vary and may include the following: grading of papers and examinations; preparation of lectures, exams or experiments; tutorial assistance and discussion-group leadership; occasional lecture responsibility for the very mature student. TA enrollment per semester is limited to three credits. Students must complete the FERPA agreement.

Internships and Field Studies

A vital part of any liberal arts education is the integration of classroom studies with working environments off campus. All Whitworth students are encouraged to prepare for later employment through training in the professional community. Through these programs, students may earn academic credit and/or pay by integrating classroom studies with actual work experience, and can build job-search skills that prepare them for future employment. Internship and field-study placements are available in all departments of the university. The Whitworth Career Services Office provides information and guidance. A mandatory orientation and contract must be completed prior to beginning the internship or field experience. Students should take no more than 12 credits of internships during their total university career and, generally, no more than three per semester.

Internships (numbered 290, 390, 490 or 590)

Internships are work-based learning experiences that integrate students' academic coursework with career-related work experiences in the major field. Sophomores, juniors and seniors are eligible for credit. Students must attend an orientation through the Whitworth Career Services Office to learn about site possibilities and how to enroll in the class. Fall and spring semesters, Jan Term and Summer Term.

Field Study (numbered 280, 480)

This program provides the opportunity to explore a particular career area in any field of interest. The program is an observational, exploratory, hands-on experience. Students may participate at any time from the second freshman semester through the senior year.

Graduation Requirements

Requirements for Graduation

General Degree Requirements:

- Complete all general education requirements.
- Complete all requirements and performance standards for the major or area of concentration and one writing-intensive course, as contained in the catalog effective at time of matriculation (major requirements are presented in the catalog under the appropriate discipline). Students may change to a subsequent catalog governing their degree requirements, but must meet all requirements of that catalog.
- Complete a minimum of 36 credits at the junior/senior level (courses numbered 300 or above).
- Degree-seeking students must earn a minimum of 32 credits in residence. Thirty-two of the last 40 credits must be taken at Whitworth.
- Complete a minimum of 126 credit hours with a minimum cumulative grade-point average of 2.0.
- Complete all degree requirements within six years of matriculation.
- Students must declare their intent to graduate by completing an application for graduation by Nov. 1 of their senior year. In order to participate in commencement, degree requirements must be complete by Jan. 31 of the year following commencement.

I. Requirements for Major or Area of Concentration

Complete all requirements and performance standards for the major or area of concentration and one writing-intensive course as contained in the catalog effective at time of matriculation (major requirements are presented in the catalog under the appropriate discipline). Students may change to a subsequent catalog governing their degree requirements, but must meet all requirements of that catalog.

II. Upper Division Requirements

Students must complete a minimum of 36 credits at the junior/senior level (courses numbered 300 or above).

III. Residency

At least 32 semester credits must be completed in residence at Whitworth for each program level (undergraduate or graduate) that the student pursues. Thirty-two of the last 40 credits needed for graduation must be taken at Whitworth.

IV. Grade Point Average

A student must accumulate a 2.0 average in 1) all Whitworth courses, and 2) all courses in the declared major or area of concentration. Education students, see School of Education and Athletic Training department for GPA requirements.

V. Degree Completion Requirements

Students must complete all degree requirements within six years from the time of matriculation. Part-time students may petition this policy. Students who withdraw from Whitworth and return after an absence of more than two years must meet the graduation requirements in effect at the time of their return and must complete all degree requirements within six years of the time of their return (matriculation). Students must complete a minimum of one course if the above-mentioned requirements have been met. Additional information may be obtained from the registrar's office.

VI. Application for Graduation

Students must apply to graduate by Nov. 1 in the fall semester of their senior year. Application for Graduation forms are available on WhitNet and in the registrar's office. Degree audits are available in the registrar's office prior to each registration period and online at any time. If all requirements will not be completed by the end of spring semester, students must petition to participate in the May ceremony. Detailed graduation information will be sent to all students who have applied to graduate.

Double Majors

A student may graduate with more than one major if all requirements are met for each major. There is no limitation on course overlap between two declared majors.

Requirements for a Second Baccalaureate Degree

A Whitworth graduate seeking a second bachelor's degree must meet the major requirements of a second major, satisfy the general education requirements (under the DTA agreement) in place at the time the second degree is initiated and complete 30 credits of work beyond the first degree. A second degree will not be awarded without the graduate re-enrolling at Whitworth and completing a minimum of one course if the above-mentioned requirements have been met. A Whitworth student seeking a second baccalaureate degree must seek the approval of his/her advisor and the registrar.

A student with a bachelor's degree from another institution who pursues a B.A. or B.S. at Whitworth will be expected to meet all the major requirements, the residency requirement (32 credits), and the general education requirements (under the DTA agreement) in place at the time the second degree is initiated; s/he must also receive a degree in a field other than that of the first degree.

Admissions

<http://www.whitworth.edu/admissions>

Our primary goal in the admissions process is to identify students who demonstrate the academic promise and personal traits to succeed at Whitworth University. A college preparatory curriculum is recommended for entrance, though no specific classes are required. The relative strength of each student's academic performance is strongly considered.

Whitworth admits students without regard to age, race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status or disability.

Applying for Admission

Freshman Application Process Application

You may apply online at www.whitworth.edu/apply. Freshmen should complete all sections of the Whitworth University Application for Admission. No application fee is required.

Academic Recommendation Form

Please print this form from our website and give it to a teacher or your high school counselor. Website: www.whitworth.edu/apply

Transcript

We also require an up-to-date official high school transcript that shows courses taken, grades earned and your current cumulative grade point average.

Entrance Exams

Applicants to Whitworth University have the option to EXCLUDE their SAT I or ACT scores from consideration in the application process. If you choose to exclude your SAT I or ACT scores from the admission application process, you will be contacted for an interview, either in person or by phone. Please note: All Whitworth University academic scholarships (with the exception of the Legacy Academic Scholarship) require specific SAT I or ACT scores.

Transfer Application Process

Transfer students should use the Whitworth University Application www.whitworth.edu/apply and submit official college transcripts from each college attended. In addition, a letter of recommendation is required and should be submitted to the Whitworth University Office of Admissions. No application fee is required. College/university students with fewer than 30 semester hours or 45 quarter hours of transferable credits will be required to submit their high school transcripts.

International Student Application Process

Qualified students who are not citizens or permanent residents of the United States are encouraged to apply for admission. International students should complete the International Student Application www.whitworth.edu/apply and submit it to the Whitworth Office of International Admissions. No application fee is required. Students should include with their application an official guarantee of funds (in the form of an official letter of sponsorship and an official bank statement showing funds available), academic transcripts, certified English translations of all transcripts, and the official results from a Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) exam. A TOEFL score of at least 79 iBT is required; 88 iBT is preferred. For further information, write or call the Whitworth Office of International Admissions. Apply before March 15 to be considered for fall admission, and before Oct. 1 to be considered for spring admission.

Adult Degree Programs/Continuing Studies

See Adult Degree Programs.

Evaluation and Acceptance

Each application is carefully reviewed before the admissions committee grants a prospective student admission to the university. Grade point average, test scores (optional), class rank, course pattern, quality of written application, extracurricular participation and leadership are all considered in the admission-decision process.

Freshman Early Action Option

If, after reviewing the possible options, you decide that Whitworth University is one of your top choices, you may apply for early action admission (non-binding). Early action candidates will receive preferential treatment in the processing of class pre-registration and campus housing. Early action candidates must follow the timetable below:

- Application materials due date is Nov. 30.
- Recommended enrollment deposit due date is Jan. 31. This deposit is fully refundable until May 1.

Freshman Regular Admission Option

The Whitworth University Application for Admission must be completed and submitted with the proper credentials as outlined in the section "Application Process." Whitworth has a preferred application date of March 1 for freshmen and June 1 for transfer and international students. To accept Whitworth's offer of admission, the applicant is required to submit a $350 enrollment deposit ($200 tuition deposit, $100 housing deposit and $50 matriculation fee) at www.whitworth.edu/enrollmentdeposit. This deposit will hold the student's place in the new class and is refundable until May 1 for freshmen, and until Aug. 1 for transfer students.

Preferred Application Dates

- March 1 (freshmen)
- June 1 (transfers)

All admitted students are required to submit a final high school transcript to the admissions office upon completion of high school. Official transcripts are also required for coursework completed at any college or university.

Returning Whitworth Students

Students applying to return to Whitworth after an absence may apply online at www.whitworth.edu/apply. Use the transfer application and type "Returning Student" in each essay prompt. Submit official college transcripts from each college attended during your absence from Whitworth to the admissions office. Please contact the Whitworth Academic Affairs Office (509.777.3203) if you have an academic restriction (probation or suspension) or get in touch with Whitworth Student Accounts (509.777.3209) if you have a financial restriction on your account.

Advanced Credit

Whitworth University grants credit for scholarship demonstrated by certain scores/grades in Advanced Placement (AP), College Level Examination Program (CLEP), and International Baccalaureate (IB). Please contact the office of the registrar for more information. A maximum of 32 semester credits (sophomore standing) may be granted in alternative course credit.

Running Start Policy

High school students with Running Start credits at the time of application are considered first-time freshmen as long as they have attempted no university-level coursework after high school graduation. Running Start students must meet freshman application deadlines and Whitworth's freshman admission standards. Running Start credits are accepted as transfer credits based on the receipt of official academic transcripts from the community colleges attended. Courses in which a student has received a grade lower than "C-" vocational/technical courses, non-college-level courses, and incomplete courses are not transferable. A maximum of 64 semester credits (96 quarter credits) may be transferred from the community college.

Deferred Admission

Students may apply for admission during any academic year, and, if admitted, can defer their admission and attendance at Whitworth for two semesters. If a student must delay longer than the two semesters, s/he must submit a new application for admission. Deferment is granted on a case-by-case basis. If you attend another institution and earn college credit, you must submit a transfer student application.

Admission of Part-Time Students

Students enrolled for fewer than 12 semester credits (undergraduate) or six semester credits (graduate) are considered part time. The part-time-student classification can be on a credit or audit basis. Students seeking an undergraduate degree on a part-time basis (usually through courses taken in the evening) should contact the Whitworth Office of Continuing Studies for information on degree options and admission procedures. Students interested in graduate degrees in education (master of education, master of arts in teaching) should contact the appropriate graduate office for admission procedures, catalogs and financial information. Those interested in the master's degree programs in teaching and counseling should contact the School of Education. Students seeking a master's degree from the School of Global Commerce & Management's MIM program or MBA program should contact the director. Students interested in the master's degree in theology should contact the director. Part-time students not seeking a degree from Whitworth are not required to complete the formal admission process; they should contact the registrar's office to be directed to the appropriate admission department.

Campus Visits and Interviews

One of the best ways to discover how a university meets your individual needs is through a campus visit. Visitors will have the opportunity to tour the campus, sit in on classes, and meet with faculty, staff and coaches. If an applicant wishes to experience a night on campus in one of our residence halls, arrangements can be made through the Whitworth Office of Admissions. We request two weeks' advance notice in order to ensure the most enjoyable and rewarding visit. The admissions office is open for appointments Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. You may schedule a visit at www.whitworth.edu/visit.

Financial Aid

<http://www.whitworth.edu/financialaid>

Whitworth is committed to assisting students and their families in obtaining the necessary resources for the student to attend the university. Many students and families qualify for financial assistance through our programs. More than 90 percent of our full-time undergraduate students receive financial assistance. Awards often consist of grants and/or scholarships, as well as student loans and work-study. Funding is provided by Whitworth University, the federal government, the state of Washington and private donors.

To be considered for financial aid at Whitworth, the student must take the following steps:

1. Apply for admission. A financial aid award will be prepared only after a student has been admitted to the university.
2. Submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to the federal processor. The form is available online at www.fafsa.gov. Students should designate on the FAFSA that they want their application information sent to Whitworth (code #003804). Applications should be submitted soon after Jan. 1. We give priority consideration for funding to students who are admitted and who submit the FAFSA to the processor by March 1. Applications after March 1 are still welcome, but less aid may be available.
3. Receive valid processed FAFSA results. Once these results are received and the student has been admitted, the Whitworth Financial Aid Office will review the application and send a Financial Aid Award Notice notifying the student of the types and amounts of aid s/he will be eligible to receive. The award may be estimated if additional information is needed to determine a student's exact eligibility. Therefore, estimated awards are subject to change once complete information is received. A student may accept the award in total or in part.
4. Respond promptly to requests for additional information required to complete the financial aid process. Requests may include copies of previous-year federal tax returns (ie.1040, 1040A, 1040EZ) filed with the IRS.
5. Notify the Whitworth Financial Aid Office of any changes in the family's financial status or receipt of increased resources, including outside scholarships.
6. Maintain satisfactory academic progress.
7. Check Whitworth e-mail account, Whitnet and the financial aid office website regularly for important communications.
8. Review important consumer information related to Whitworth at www.whitworth.edu/consumerinformation.

Maintaining Satisfactory Progress for Financial Aid

The normal load for full-time undergraduate students is 12 to 17 semester credits in the fall and spring semesters and three to five semester credits in Jan Term. Registration for less than a full-time load will prevent a student from receiving certain forms of Whitworth-sponsored financial aid. Some federal and state-sponsored aid can be available to students who are enrolled less than half time.

A student must average 31.5 credits per academic year in order to graduate in four years. The total number of semester credits required for graduation is 126. Students must finish at least three-quarters of the credits they attempt each academic year and they must maintain a cumulative grade point average of 2.0. Students are eligible to receive financial aid until they have completed the requirements for their degree or until they have attempted a maximum of 150 percent of the minimum number of credits required for the degree or certificate, whichever is less.

More information on satisfactory academic progress and financial aid is available from the Whitworth Financial Aid Office or at www.whitworth.edu/financialaid. If you would like a brochure, or if you have any questions about financial aid, please call 800.533.4668.

Financial Information

Costs and Fees

Whitworth University is an independent institution and, like most such institutions, receives minimal support from public funds. Each student is charged tuition and fees that cover approximately three-fourths of what it costs the university to provide its services. The balance of these costs is met by income from the endowment and by gifts from trustees, alumni and other friends of the university. All details for payment of current charges must be finalized before students enroll for classes. Payment in full is due at the beginning of each semester. Students and their parents may also choose to use the monthly payment option that spreads payments over a four-month period each semester (September-December for fall, February-May for spring).

Costs for the 2011-2012 academic year

Tuition	$31,830
Room and Board	$ 8,918
Associated Student Body Fee	$ 200
Hixson Union Building Fee	$ 54
Mandatory Accident Insurance	$ 60
Total	$41,062

A full-time academic load is 12 to 17 semester credits in the fall and spring semesters and three to five semester credits in Jan Term.

Room and board charges do not cover regular university vacation periods. In addition, only students registered for on-campus classes may utilize room and board during Jan Term. The above rate provides for a double room and 21 meals per week. Several other meals-per-term plans are available. Students in private rooms pay approximately 36 percent additional room rent.

All full-time students are required to be covered by Plan I Accident/Medical Insurance. The cost for this insurance is $60 per year. This plan has a maximum benefit of $5,000 per student.

All full-time undergraduate students are required to carry medical insurance. The university offers a medical insurance plan that has a $10,000 benefit limit. The cost for this insurance is $427 per year. If a student has other insurance, s/he may waive the Whitworth insurance by providing a waiver card to the Whitworth Student Accounting Services Office by the first week of classes. The institution's insurance coverage is provided by a secondary carrier and will pick up deductibles for other insurance plans.

All international students are required to participate in the university's international insurance plan. The premium for the international medical insurance is $966 per academic year and includes mandatory accident, basic health and international major medical coverage. All international students, undergraduate and graduate, must have insurance to meet visa requirements. Part-time and graduate students must also pay the Whitworth Health Center access fee of $100 per year.

Additional expenses for books, supplies, personal items and transportation will vary with each student and are a necessary consideration when planning total costs. Financial aid disbursements will arrive after the term has begun; they should not be considered when a student is planning initial expenses.

Since fees are published several months in advance of the academic year, the Whitworth University Board of Trustees reserves the right to change this fee structure as necessary from year to year.

Miscellaneous Costs (2011-12) Part-Time Day School

For students enrolling in less than a full-time academic load, tuition is charged by semester credit

Per semester credit	$1,326
---------------------	---------

Excess Semester Credits

For semester credits in excess of 17 semester credits, fall and spring semesters, five credits Jan Term

Per semester credit	$865
---------------------	-------

Audit Fee

Per semester credit	$666
---------------------	-------

Whitworth in the Evening Programs

Evening traditional semester courses, per semester credit	$465
Audit only, per semester credit (permission required)	$240
Accelerated-format courses, per semester credit (includes books and course materials; not available for audit)	$465

Bachelor of Liberal Studies Degree Program

Per semester credit	$465
---------------------	-------

Graduate program rates are included in the specific program bulletins.

Special Courses/Fees

Several courses (in art, physical education and music, among others) carry special fees to cover extra costs. These classes and their fees are listed in the course schedule for each semester.

Graduation fee	$75

Transcript Fee

Students and alumni who wish to purchase their transcripts will pay five dollars each for the first five in an order, and $3 for each additional transcript. Transcripts and diplomas are released only when all financial accounts are current.

A more detailed list of miscellaneous fees is available from the Whitworth Student Accounting Services Office. All fees are subject to change without notice.

Fees for off-campus and international study programs vary according to the program. For additional information, check with the Whitworth Office of Off-Campus Study Programs.

Tuition and Fees Refund Policy

All refunds must be claimed through proper application to the Whitworth Student Accounting Services Office. Students must secure the forms from the registrar's office for class drops and withdrawals. The refund withdrawal date will be established by the form's receipt date, recorded by the registrar's office.

The published refund schedule is available in the student accounting services office. Withdrawal and refund schedules for graduate and nontraditional undergraduate degree programs are available in the student accounting services office.

A student who officially drops or withdraws from classes during the course of the term is eligible for an adjustment of charges as follows:

Withdrawal/Drop	Refund	Applicable to
First week	100 percent	Tuition and fees, room and board
Second week	90 percent	Tuition and fees, room and board
Third week	80 percent	Tuition, no fees, room and board
Fourth week	60 percent	Tuition, no fees, room and board
Fifth week	40 percent	Tuition, no fees, room and board
Sixth and seventh week	25 percent	Tuition, no fees, room and board
Eighth week and after	0 percent

Withdrawal from Whitworth University

In order to avoid charges to his/her account, a student must notify the registrar's office regarding withdrawal or cancellation of enrollment from Whitworth University before the beginning of the term. All withdrawals and cancellations made after the beginning of the term must follow the withdrawal process in the registrar's office. Refund calculations will be made as outlined above.

Student Housing

www.whitworth.edu/housing :: housing@whitworth.edu

Arend Hall

Constructed in 1957 and remodeled in 1986, Arend Hall (named in honor of Albert Arend, Whitworth trustee from 1925-84) houses 93 women and 70 men on three floors.

Baldwin-Jenkins Hall

Baldwin-Jenkins, named for Estella E. Baldwin, registrar from 1935-70, and Marion R. Jenkins, dean of women from 1931-63, is predominantly a freshman residence hall. Eighty-nine residents live in Jenkins and 71 live in Baldwin; a common lounge separates the two wings. "BJ" was built in 1968.

Ballard Hall

Built in 1914, Ballard Hall burned to the ground in 1927 and was rebuilt and re-opened in 1928. Named for W. R. Ballard, university trustee from 1892-1912, this hall was originally an all male dormitory. It is now a residence hall for 62 women and is the sister hall to McMillan (see below).

Boppell Hall

Constructed in 2001, Boppell Hall houses 84 mostly upper-division students in apartment-style suites that include two bedrooms, private bathrooms, and common living areas with kitchenettes and storage spaces. The residence hall was named in honor of Charles "Chuck" Boppell, '65, longtime chair of the board of trustees.

Duvall Hall

Opened in the fall of 2006, Duvall houses 160 students representing all four classes. Its unique three to five bedroom "pods" house 6-10 students per unit. Each pod includes its own private living room and bathroom. The hall was named in honor of the late R. Fenton Duvall, beloved Whitworth professor emeritus.

East Hall

The East Residence Hall, completed in 2009, is a 170-bed facility that houses all four class levels in single, double and triple rooms. The three-story building features unique common spaces, large- and small-group meeting spaces, and study spaces.

McMillan Hall

Constructed in 1913 and remodeled in 1987, McMillan Hall is Whitworth's original building, which housed all classrooms, offices, dormitory rooms and the dining hall. Once a female dorm, then a co-ed facility after the fire in which Ballard Hall was destroyed, "Mac" is now an all male residence hall and is the brother hall to Ballard. Named for the Rev. Hugh H. McMillan, Whitworth trustee from 1907-31, the hall houses 76 men.

Schumacher Hall

Constructed in 1971, Schumacher Hall served for many years as the Whitworth Health Center. It was remodeled in 2000 to serve as a residence hall, and it is now home to 23 men.

Stewart Hall

Constructed in 1963 and remodeled in 1988, Stewart was named in honor of the Rev. Calvin W. Stewart, Whitworth president from 1890-98. Stewart Hall houses 35 men and 35 women in four-person suite-style rooms.

The Village

The Village, constructed in 1972, consists of four 20-student residence halls that offer all four classes a "home-like" experience. In fact, most of the room are singles.

Warren Hall

Constructed in 1952 and 1963 and remodeled in 1989, Warren was named in honor of Frank Warren, university president from 1940-63. Divided into three wings, East, South and West, Warren Hall is home to more than 200 students.

Theme Houses

Whitworth's extensive theme-house program provides juniors and seniors with varied living environments and leadership opportunities. Each residence is based on a proposal submitted by groups of students who then live in the house and host educational and/or service-oriented programs.

Undergraduate

General Education Requirements

Students must complete all general education requirements, as outlined below. The Schedule of Courses includes the most recent information about courses and the requirements that they satisfy. Courses designated on WhitNet as fulfilling a general education requirement are valid for that semester only. The list of courses fulfilling general education requirements evolves and changes over time; therefore, it is important for students to check the listings on WhitNet when planning their class schedules.

Note: A student may not use the same course to satisfy more than one of the general education requirements.

A. First-Year Program (1 credit)

The First-Year Program (GE 125/GE 325) is designed to assist students in connecting quickly with the Whitworth community. This program will facilitate the formation of faculty-student relationships that are centered primarily in academic context (in class and beyond the classroom) and the advising function (academic and vocational).

B. Worldview Studies (12 credits)

A worldview is a personal set of basic assumptions about humanity, God, the nature of material reality, and the place of humans in that reality. A person's worldview also includes assumptions about how humans gain knowledge as well as prescriptions regarding all forms of human activity: political, social, creative, economic, religious and otherwise. A person's worldview is the way in which s/he makes sense of life experiences. Every individual possesses this set of basic assumptions whether or not s/he is consciously aware of what the assumptions are.

The worldview studies curriculum at Whitworth exists to engage the student in the active examination of presuppositional thinking that forms the basis of all human meaning. Its intent is to explore the origins of human thinking at this foundational level, particularly emphasizing the Western way of answering questions of meaning.

CO 150 Western Civilization I: Christian Worldviews

CO 250 Western Civilization II: The Rationalist Worldview

CO 350 Western Civilization III: Applied Ethics, Public Policy and Worldviews

C. Biblical Literature: Biblical Foundations for Faith and Practice (3 credits)

Courses in this area emphasize understanding the scriptures and their theological teachings from the perspective of the Reformed and Evangelical traditions. Courses also focus on understanding the implications of scripture, as well as the hermeneutics of interpretation. Courses that satisfy this requirement will be found in the theology department.

D. Modern Languages, American Diversity Studies, Global Perspectives: Community, Diversity and Justice (10 credits)

Courses in this area introduce students to domestic and international diversity, including linguistic, political, religious, racial, ethnic, gender and other differences. They emphasize the role of diversity in determining perspective and communication patterns, as well as in applying this understanding to community living in an increasingly diverse U.S. and world. To satisfy this requirement, students must complete 3-4 credits in each of three areas:

• Modern Languages - 4 credits

Students must demonstrate proficiency through the first-year level. They may accomplish this by passing a proficiency exam in a language (tests are available in French, German, Russian, and Spanish and by special arrangement for Chinese and Japanese), completing the 101-102 sequence in a language, or completing a one-semester intensive course (e.g. SN 111 or FR 111).

• American Diversity Studies - 3 credits

Courses that meet this requirement include substantial work that reflects thoughtfully on diverse viewpoints within American society. These courses emphasize the role of diversity in an increasingly diverse U.S. Students completing education certification will meet this requirement by fulfilling the requirements in the education program. Students who take ASL 102 may apply it to the American diversity requirement.

• Global Perspective - 3 credits

Courses that meet this requirement include substantial work that reflects thoughtfully on viewpoints developed beyond American society. Students who take the 102 course in a modern language may apply that course to this requirement, as 102 courses provide extensive content in cultural differences. Off-campus study is highly recommended.

E. The Fine Arts: Creative Expression and Appreciation (3 credits)

Courses in this area provide opportunities for students to understand aesthetic traditions and to develop the capacity for artistic expression. Courses that satisfy this requirement will usually be found in the departments of art, English, music and theatre.

F. Oral and Written Communication Studies: Effective Communication and Social Responsibility (6 credits)

Courses in this area equip students to create, organize, share and receive clear oral and written messages.

Oral Communication - 3 credits

Courses that satisfy this requirement will usually be found in the areas of speech communication and theatre. Students completing education certification will meet this requirement by fulfilling the requirements of the education program.

Written Communication - 3 credits

Courses that satisfy this requirement will usually be found in the areas of English and journalism. Each student is also required to complete one designated writing-intensive course that must be taken within the major program. Courses labeled with a "W" after the number meet the writing-intensive requirement, but not necessarily the written communication requirement.

G. Fitness and Wellness for Life (3 credits)

Courses in this area emphasize responsible stewardship of God's creation through maintenance of personal health; students develop skills and establish habits that prepare them for a lifetime of healthy living and physical well-being. Courses that satisfy this requirement will be found in kinesiology. Three different activity courses (FW or PE) are required, one of which must be from among the following: FW 118 (for students with physical disability) FW 132, FW 134, FW 141, FW 149, FW 166, FW 175 (for continuing studies students only), or FW 219.

Note: A maximum of eight semester credits of physical education activity courses may be counted toward the total credits required (126).

H. The Social Sciences: Human Nature and Civic Responsibility (3 credits)

Courses in this area seek to describe, primarily from the perspective of human sciences, how and why humans behave as they do individually and corporately. Courses that satisfy this requirement will usually be found in the areas of economics, history, political science, psychology and sociology, although courses in other disciplines may also be included.

I. The Humanities: Human Thought and Values (3 credits)

Courses in this area introduce students to the rich tradition of the humanities. Study focuses on the embodiment of human experience, thought and values through the scrutiny of text and symbol. Courses that satisfy this requirement will usually be found in the departments of art, English, history, modern languages, music, philosophy, theology and theatre.

J. Mathematics and Statistics: Mathematical Reasoning and Social Applications (3-4 credits)

Courses in this area provide an overview of topics in quantitative thinking, analysis, and problem-solving. Special attention is devoted to mathematical concepts reflecting broader social concerns, patterns of occurrence and behavior and related issues. Courses satisfying the requirement are MA 107, MA 108, MA 150, MA 171, MA 221, and MA 256. A few courses, such as PO 310, PY 351/352 and SO 338, found in other disciplines, may apply toward fulfilling this requirement.

Initial placement is based on SAT scores. A score of 600 will allow entrance into any course for which the student has the prerequisites. A score of 500-600 will not meet entrance requirements into MA 171. Below 500 will allow entrance into MA 107 only.

K. The Natural Sciences: The Natural World and Human Responsibility (3-4 credits)

Courses in this area provide opportunities for students to understand and apply the scientific method as an analytical, problem-solving tool via coursework that emphasizes both theoretical and experiential components. They expose students to the strengths and weaknesses of scientific methodology and the relationship between scientific inquiry and faith. Courses that satisfy this requirement will usually be found in the areas of astronomy, biology, chemistry, geology and physics.

Adult Degree Programs

<http://www.whitworth.edu/evening>

The Whitworth Continuing Studies Office provides higher education opportunities for adult students in an environment that cultivates student success, critical reflection, and professional development. We uphold Whitworth's mission of an education of mind and heart by treating all students with dignity, providing avenues for spiritual, as well as intellectual rigor, and serving each individual with compassion and integrity.

Whitworth Continuing Studies Admission Requirements

All degree-seeking adults who intend to complete their education through Whitworth in the Evening must meet the following admission requirements. Note: Students planning to enter the organizational management program, liberal studies "upside-down" degree program or evening teacher-certification program will complete additional admission requirements listed with the program descriptions in this section of the catalog.

1. Applicants must be 25 years of age or older due to the collaborative and experience-related nature of the adult degree programs. (See individual programs' admission requirements for possible exceptions to this policy.)
2. Applicants must meet with an advisor from continuing studies prior to admittance into any degree program.
3. If applicable, applicants must submit all official transcripts from previously attended colleges and/or universities directly to the continuing studies office.
4. Applicants must demonstrate writing competency necessary for college-level writing (see application materials).

Applying for Admission

Submit application materials. Forms are available online or from the continuing studies office:

- an Application for Admission, including a $25 application fee;
- two references from persons qualified to assess the student's academic or professional competency.

Admission Evaluation and Acceptance

Each application is reviewed before continuing studies grants a student admission to the university. The following criteria may be considered in the admission decision process: transfer credit grade point average, personal interview, availability of appropriate academic program, prior coursework and pattern of coursework, quality of application essays and references. Applicants will receive notification of their admittance status from the continuing studies office.

Bachelor Degree Requirements

Completion of Whitworth general education requirements

Completion of 36 semester hours of upper-division courses (numbered-300 or above)

Completion of a writing intensive, "W" course

Completion of an approved major (with a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 or higher)

Completion of 126 total semester credits, including those transferred from other institutions

A cumulative grade point average of 2.0 in all Whitworth courses

At least 32 semester hours earned in a degree program at Whitworth

Complete 32 of last 40 credits at Whitworth.

Course Enrollment Limits for Continuing Studies Degree Programs

Students may choose to enroll in one three-credit regular semester evening course (fall, spring, and summer) in addition to their accelerated-format schedule. Tuition for each course will be charged at the current applicable tuition rate. Students may not take more than one additional course at Whitworth each regular semester in addition to full enrollment in any accelerated-format fall or spring term, nor enroll in more than one accelerated-format course at one time. Continuing studies students may not enroll in more than 17 credits each continuing studies accelerated-format term, including regular-semester course registrations that overlap a portion of any accelerated-format term.

Continuing Studies Worldview Studies General Education Requirement

Students admitted to the university through continuing studies are required to take one worldview studies course, CO 300 Reason/Knowing: Nature and Human Nature, or CO 250 Western Civilization II: The Rationalist Worldview (offered evenings in summer), to meet the general education requirement for worldview studies.

The worldview studies general education requirement for liberal studies students admitted through continuing studies and attending 50 percent or more of their classes during the traditional day program are as follows: Students who transfer in 30-59 semester credits must complete two worldview studies courses; students who transfer in 60 or more credits must complete one worldview-studies course.

Change in Program

Students moving from a continuing studies program to a traditional day program must complete the day program's requirements for general education (including modern languages) subject to the Core transfer-credit policy. Bachelor of liberal studies students who have completed 90 credits or more in the liberal studies program may not transfer to a traditional day program major, unless this transfer is approved by Whitworth Continuing Studies, the academic department and academic affairs.

Program for Community College A.A.S. Degree Holders

This degree is often referred to as an "upside-down" degree because it reverses the normal order of beginning with general university course requirements and finishing with studies in a specialized field in order to complete a four-year bachelor's degree. This program allows a student to complete an A.A.S. degree at a Washington state community college in a specific field and subsequently come to Whitworth for completion of the general education requirements as well as the upper-division credits required for a bachelor's degree.

A.A.S. Degree Credits Accepted by Whitworth

Whitworth will accept credit from selected associate of applied science degrees from regionally accredited Washington state community colleges if the student chooses to apply that credit toward a bachelor's degree in liberal studies (the "upside-down" degree). The student will transfer in with 60-64 semester credits (depending upon the total number of credits earned through the A.A.S. degree), and will be granted junior standing. A list of accepted A.A.S. degrees is available in the Whitworth Continuing Studies Office or on the continuing studies website.

Admission Requirements for Bachelor of Liberal Studies "Upside-Down" Degree Programs

In order to be considered for admission to Whitworth under the "upside-down" degree program, a student's A.A.S. degree should have been obtained within the last 10 years; if this is not the case, a regular course-by-course evaluation will be done on the older transcript. Students having completed their A.A.S. degrees within the last four years must have a minimum grade point average of 3.25. Applicants not meeting the minimum GPA requirement may be admitted based on other admission criteria as determined by the Continuing Studies Admission Committee. Bachelor of liberal studies applicants must be 25 years old or older. However, special consideration may be given to applicants under the age of 25 who want to enroll in the "upside-down" degree program if they have demonstrated high academic ability in obtaining their A.A.S. degrees and have a grade point average of at least 3.5.

Bachelor of Arts in Organizational Management

Christie Anderson (director)

The Whitworth Organizational Management Program blends current organizational theory with practice, providing a one-of-a-kind educational experience for the adult needing to complete a bachelor's degree while working.

Part of the Whitworth School of Global Commerce & Management, the organizational management program is characterized by several unique features when compared to traditional degree programs. First, the program can be done more quickly. Students can complete a 36 semester credit major much more quickly than the normal 24 to 30 month timespan for a part-time student. Each course meets one evening per week for six weeks, with two Saturday sessions. Second, the program is offered only to a cohort of students. Simply put, this means that a group of 20 students or fewer will take the courses for the organizational management major together in sequence. Cohorts begin in August and February, subject to enrollment.

The learning outcomes for the organizational management degree are consistent with those articulated by the School of Global Commerce & Management for all business degrees. Learning outcomes of this major prepare the student to:

1. Engage in successful problem solving and decision making activities that require critical reasoning and creativity to develop sound, integrated solutions;

2. Identify internal and external economic and financial conditions facing the organization;
3. Demonstrate clear and persuasive verbal and written communications skills;
4. Engage in sound self-management practices;
5. Articulate a personal code of professional ethics and formulate effective, ethical strategies to address relevant organizational issues.

Organizational Management Admission Requirements

1. A minimum of 60 semester credits (90 quarter hours) of college work with a grade point average of 2.0 or above
2. Completion of the application and admission process for evaluation and acceptance into Whitworth Continuing Studies
3. Applicants should be 25 years of age or older; consideration may be given to students below age 25 who have three years of post-high school, documented full-time professional experience in the workplace.
4. Entrance interview with the director of organizational management
5. Current résumé

Admission Evaluation for Organizational Management Program

Admission into continuing studies does not guarantee admission into the organizational management degree program. Final determination of admission into the organizational management cohort program is made by the director of the program, in consultation with continuing studies advisors and staff. This decision may be based on prior coursework, recommendations from prior instructors, personal interview, business aptitude, ability to work well in a cohort-based program, and grade point average. Applicants will receive notification of their admittance status from the Whitworth Continuing Studies Office.

Portfolio Assessment

Students enrolled in the organizational management program who have obtained college-level knowledge outside of the traditional college classroom through prior experience may earn college credit through portfolio assessment. Designed for the adult who is self-motivated and highly skilled in analytical process, portfolio development involves knowledge assessment, documentation, third-party verification, and an understanding of college-level learning expectations. Examples of appropriate college-level learning might be work-related training seminars or self-directed study. Up to 32 semester credits may be earned through portfolio assessment. See a continuing studies advisor for details.

Organizational Management Curriculum

Each course is a prerequisite for the course that follows. A passing grade must be achieved in order for a student to continue on to the next course. A failing grade (F) will necessitate withdrawal from the program.

Organizational Management Courses

Note: Courses are limited to students enrolled in the organizational management degree-completion program through Whitworth Continuing Studies.

BU 352 Human Behavior in Organizations

This course is designed to provide theoretical perspectives and empirical knowledge regarding human behavior as it relates to the organization. Emphasis on the impact and implications of individual values, perceptions, motivation, diversity, growth and development as it relates to organizational culture and expectations.

BU 353W Organizational Development and Change

Course examines organizational theory, development and change from several different perspectives, or "frames": 1) structural, 2) human resources, 3) political, and 4) symbolic. Leadership and development of organizational strategies and objective setting will be explored.

BU 354 Human Resource Development

Changes in our social and economic environment have resulted in changes in the management of an organization's human resources. This course is designed to provide a contemporary view of human resource management. Emphasis is placed on the basic function of human resource management, i.e. planning, recruitment, selection, training, performance appraisal, compensation, and union/management relations.

BU 355 Accounting and Finance for Managers 3

Course will examine "the language of business" and provide an overview of the data-gathering, reporting and controlling processes in both the for-profit and the nonprofit organizations.

BU 356 Managerial Marketing 3

A study of the working knowledge of marketing management and learning to think strategically and to apply marketing theory in a manner that aligns marketing initiatives with market opportunities. Students will be able to understand the functional strategies and marketing plans to optimize customer and organizational value.

Prerequisite: none.

EC 356 Applied Economic Principles 3

Course will explore national economic factors, the impact of government policy, and the driving force of all economic decision-making to analyze how and why consumers and businesses make the choices they do. Decision-making in light of scarce resources will be examined.

BU 457 Employment Laws and Regulations 3

An exploration of employment legislation as it pertains to human resource policies and practices, including Affirmative Action, the Occupational Safety and Health Act, equal employment opportunity, unemployment, labor and industries, and workers' compensation laws.

BU 458 Application of Management Principles 3

This course provides the student an opportunity to explore and apply core management theories with an application orientation in regards to individual and group behavior, operational and strategic planning, different organizational structures, and performance measurement and control in a changing work environment.

BU 459 Management of Innovation and Technology 3

Examines information and skills needed by management to make effective and informed decisions in regard to technological issues. Components include technology literacy, technological innovations, and strategic technology management. Consideration is given to concepts, tools, perspectives and roles useful to the management of technology, strategy and innovation.

BU 460 Cross-Cultural International Business Communication 3

Explores the importance of constructive cross-cultural communication in the international business arena. Theories and applications of effective business communication will be covered and opportunities provided for students to enhance their professional skill.

BU 461 Ethics in Management 3

This course raises foundational issues in connection with ethical values, and applies those values in the context of organizations. Ethical principles and the process of application of those principles are addressed, integrating Christian principle with standard ethical inquiry.

BU 473 International Human Resource Management 3

Emphasis on comprehensive case analysis, presentation of special related topics and use of computer-assisted cases. Current issues covered in presentations by professionals in the field. Periodic offering.

SP 351 Group Dynamics 3

A focus on group behavior and on how group functioning affects organizational effectiveness. Emphasis on effective group processes for role clarification, decision-making, problem-solving, conflict resolution and group communications. Students develop communication strategies and application of concepts through completion of a small-group project. Periodic offering. Offered through Continuing Studies.

Bachelor of Liberal Studies

Terry Ratcliff (dean and director)

Whitworth's liberal studies degree is a bachelor's degree offered to adults as an alternative to traditional degree programs. The liberal studies degree builds on the strength of a liberal arts core curriculum, providing the adult student with a balanced and coherent study of the arts, humanities, and natural and social sciences.

Whitworth's liberal studies program allows adult students to select courses that meet their individual goals and lifelong learning needs. Whitworth is dedicated to providing an academically excellent liberal arts education that will equip each student with the skills necessary to respond creatively to the personal and professional challenges of life.

Liberal studies students may not double-major, nor may they have other academic program minors posted to their transcripts.

The learning outcomes for all bachelor of liberal studies majors prepare the student to:

- Demonstrate proficiency in written and oral communication specific to their discipline;
- Demonstrate basic proficiency in computer usage, word processing and internet access;

- Demonstrate critical thinking skills required to excel in professional, personal, and other contexts.

Required Courses for Majors in Liberal Studies Program Management (36)

Learning outcomes of this major prepare the student to:

- Understand and apply general management theory and practice.
- Understand and apply governmental and non-profit accounting principles and their application in the non-profit organization.
- Apply general theories and practice of group communication.
- Understand ethical and legal issues specific to program management
- Demonstrate proficiency in grant writing and funding skills and processes.

Humanities (45)

Learning outcomes of this major prepare the student to:

- Understand the human experience, thought, and values as provided by exposure to texts and varying academic disciplines.
- Explore various options for study and/or professional engagement.

Students have the opportunity to design their own academic program in consultation with an advisor. A minimum of 45 semester credits is required for the completion of the humanities major.

At least 30 credits must be from the following areas: art, communication studies, English, history, music, philosophy, theology, theatre

Up to 15 credits may be from either the above areas or from the social sciences: economics, political science, psychology, sociology

One of the above courses must be a writing-intensive course, designated by a "W" after the course number.

Evening Teacher Certification and Bachelor of Arts in Elementary Education

Debbie Tully (director)

The mission of the Whitworth School of Education is to prepare educators of mind and heart who are scholars, community members, effective practitioners, visionary leaders, and guardians. The School of Education provides opportunities to integrate theory and practice in diverse settings through the study of established and emerging content as well as through pedagogical and professional knowledge. Whitworth University prepares educators to have a positive impact on the learning and development of those they are called to serve.

The learning outcomes of this major prepare students to be:

Scholars

Educators of mind and heart possess current knowledge of the content areas in which they work, understand the connections among disciplines, use tools of inquiry, and demonstrate an attitude of ongoing learning as existing fields of knowledge continue to evolve and grow. Educators of mind and heart strengthen their existing knowledge base through continuous intellectual and scholarly growth based on current research, the study of their own practice, the analysis of data collected and the application of data to the solution of problems in their respective fields of study.

Community Members

Educators of mind and heart develop and sustain intentionally collaborative and interdependent relationships among teachers, students and their families, counselors, administrators, and other community members. Educators of mind and heart understand their roles as professional colleagues in the school, community and professional organizations. They actively help to shape the culture of classrooms and schools to reflect the values of our democratic society. They model professional behaviors appropriate for those entrusted with educating today's children and young people.

Effective Practitioners

Educators of mind and heart are prepared to analyze situations, set goals, plan and monitor actions, assess outcomes, and reflect on their professional thinking and decision making. They are committed to culturally responsive and relevant practices that engage students and are purposeful in making a positive impact on their students' learning. They demonstrate proficiency in the selection and differentiation of materials, strategies, and assessment practices that are appropriate for the diversity of students and the educational contexts in which they serve. They use formative and summative data as evidence for decision making. They are competent in using technology and other 21st century skills in the educational setting to improve their own practice and the learning of their students.

Visionary Leaders

Educators of mind and heart have a vision. They articulate a personal philosophy of education that includes a belief in the worth and ability of each human being that provides a framework guiding personal and professional decision making and development. The educators' practices are intentionally aligned with this vision for the benefit of members of their learning communities. Educators of mind and heart model transformational and servant leadership in their learning communities and in their contributions to society.

Guardians

Educators of mind and heart act as advocates for children and youth, demonstrating a sincere and equitable commitment to the success of all, paying attention to the role that diversity, including gender, ability, ethnicity, race, culture, religion or socio-economic status brings to learning and the community. Educators understand and respect the inter-connected, global nature of society and encourage sustainable practices designed to preserve our world for future generations. In the Christian tradition of servant leadership, educators serve humankind and seek opportunities to assist, encourage, and support all those under their care in a manner that leads to transformation in the lives of their students.

The Whitworth Evening Teacher Certification Program, a collaborative effort between the School of Education and Whitworth Continuing Studies, allows adults who work full time to complete a teacher certification program in an accelerated evening and Saturday format. Students can earn a bachelor of arts degree in elementary education with teacher certification while those with a college degree can complete the requirements for certification only. Post-baccalaureate students can enroll in the 500 level of designated courses and apply up to 18 semester credits as electives if they are accepted into a Whitworth Graduate Studies in Education program within four years of ETC program completion.

Admission Requirements

Students must first complete all continuing studies admission requirements to enroll in needed prerequisite or content coursework.

Additional requirements for admission to the School of Education and an evening teacher certification cohort include the following:

- a minimum of 60 semester credits (90 quarter hours) of college work with a 2.5 GPA from accredited colleges or universities or a 3.0 minimum GPA in recent coursework at Whitworth;
- successful completion of EDE-202, Exploring Teaching, and the related field experience, EDE-203;

- passing scores on the three subtests of the Washington Educators Skills Test - Basic (WEST-B);
- a completed School of Education application packet.

Certification Requirements

Academic requirements for a Washington state teaching certificate include the following:

- the cohort coursework, totaling 51 semester credits;
- 20 semester credits in an endorsable discipline;
- all prerequisite and content area requirements (see below);
- grades of "C" or better in all courses applicable to certification.

Students earning a bachelor of arts degree in elementary education must also complete all Whitworth general requirements.

In addition, please see "Important Notes for all Undergraduate Teacher Education Students" on the School of Education homepage.

Evening Teacher Certification Curriculum

The ETC program is offered in a cohort-based format in which a core group of approximately 20 students work collaboratively through each of the courses in sequence. Flexible scheduling of the practicum experiences allows students to complete these requirements near their place of business during K-12 school hours. Within the final semester students will complete a full-time student-teaching practicum. Cohorts begin in August and February.

Directed Teaching

Upon completion of professional education coursework, candidates complete a full-time student teaching internship in the schools under the guidance of an experienced mentor teacher and a university supervisor. Students develop a standard portfolio and a professional growth plan. Passing scores on the Washington State Performance Based Pedagogy Assessment and endorsement content test are required for certification. Prerequisites: completion of coursework for education major/certification, successful completion of Benchmark III requirements, and approval by the director of ETC. Candidates must apply during the semester prior to the actual experience.

Evening Teacher Cohort Courses

EDE 202 Exploring Teaching 2
This course explores the history of education in the US, the profession of teaching, certification in Washington and the dispositions of successful teachers as identified by the Whitworth SOE conceptual framework. Co-requisite: EDE 203.

EDE 203 Exploring Teaching: Field Experience 1
Field experience in which candidates are placed in classrooms as teaching assistants and tutors. Opportunity for candidates to reflect on their potential as educators, Washington state educational reforms and the connection between theories taught in EDE 202 and practical applications within K-12 classrooms. Co-requisite: EDE 202.

EDE 204 Human Development and Learning 3
Students study children and youth, with a focus on psychology in the classroom. Developmental aspects (cognitive, social-emotional, moral, spiritual, and physical) and sociological challenges (abuse and neglect, substance abuse, poverty, familial discord) and their impact on teaching and learning are examined.

EDE 280 Field Experience (level specified) 1-4

EDE 291 Independent Study 1-4

EDE 320 Exceptional Learners and Inclusion 3

An overview of exceptional children, gifted education, disabling conditions, legal issues, intervention strategies, family systems, and teaming approaches related to special education. An emphasis will be placed on accommodations for high-incidence conditions. Development of individualized education programs and completion of a practicum experience. Cross-listed with EDE 520.

EDE 335 Technology in Education 1-3

Prepares teacher candidates with technological knowledge and skills to increase productivity in instructional design, assessment, and communication; enhance student engagement; and promote active, meaningful learning for 21st century digital natives.

EDE 340 Instructional Methods and K-8 Social Studies 3

Introduction to the theories and practices of elementary teaching through micro-teachings, integrated unit and lesson planning incorporating appropriate technology, and analysis of teaching/ learning behaviors through the use of case studies. Focus on social-studies curriculum. Washington state standards, instruction, assessment, values-education and equity issues. Co-requisites: EDE 341 and 342. Meets Whitworth's oral communication requirement. Cross-listed with EDE 350.

Art

<http://www.whitworth.edu/art>

Faculty members in the Whitworth University Art Department are committed to excellent teaching. The department mission is to provide students who are enrolled in art courses with a rigorous intellectual environment in which students may gain knowledge and skills that will enable their creative progress in the visual arts. Art core courses provide a solid foundation in artistic form and content. Upper-division offerings expand each student's personal artistic vision and the conceptual foundation for the content of their work. All courses encourage the development of a lifelong passion for making and appreciating art. The program presents a number of options for the integration of a Christian worldview, and all students are encouraged to investigate the relationship between their worldview and their work.

Learning outcomes of this major prepare the student in the following areas:

Knowledge

- Develop proficiency in comprehending and interpreting works of art.
- Explore the history of art – artists, processes, and artworks in all forms of art media.
- Recognize the standards for quality in their given discipline and apply those standards to their own artwork and the work of others.
- Demonstrate comprehension of art theory and communicate how their work relates to contemporary art practice.
- Understand the requirements necessary to enter into a vocation in their field.

Skills

- Master the processes and techniques of their discipline.
- Develop the capacity for critical analysis in relation to art.
- Be able to clearly communicate the connections between their personal worldview and the work they create.

Faith, Values, and Ethics

- Gain an understanding of diversity by studying artworks and artists from a variety of cultures and backgrounds.
- Develop an awareness of the ethical and spiritual issues that exist in their discipline and be able to respond in a manner consistent with their worldview.

Admission Process for Art Majors

Submit the following to the art department faculty by spring of the sophomore year:

- a portfolio of work
- a statement of rationale for admittance and intent to commit to the art major

Department faculty will consider each applicant for full admittance or conditional admittance to the art major. The junior exhibition will serve as a review of admittance. Admittance prior to the spring semester of the sophomore year is possible, but it does not eliminate the review process.

AR 263 History of Modern Art	3
A survey tracing the roots of contemporary art, beginning with the modern works produced in the mid-19th century. Discussion and analysis focus on a wide range of traditional, non-traditional, and experimental media and techniques employed by modern artists to create unique visual expressions. Also listed as AR 363. Spring semester. Fee.
AR 264 History of Medieval Art	3
A survey course designed to investigate the artistic developments - architecture, sculpture, painting and the minor arts (tapestry, jewelry, goldsmithing, costumes) - significant to the Early Christian through Gothic periods. Considers artistic expression within the context of the culture that created it. AR 260 recommended. Also listed as AR 364. Periodic offering. Fee.
AR 266 History of Art of the United States	3
A survey course tracing the history of artistic expression in the United States from the pre-Revolutionary period to postmodernism. Painting, architecture, and sculpture will be considered. Particular emphasis will be placed on issues of identity-national, ethnic, geographic, and gendered. Periodic offering. Fee.
AR 267 Precolumbian Art and Architecture	3
A survey of the major cultural traditions in Mesoamerica and the Andes before European contact, including the Maya, Inca, and Aztec cultures. Prominent forms of artistic production-architecture, sculpture, pottery, textiles-will be considered with particular emphasis on their cultural and political function within society. Periodic offering. Fee.
AR 268 History of Photography	3
A survey of the history of photography from its invention in the 1830s to current practices. Considers various forms, functions, and movements in photography throughout history, while exploring the changing conceptualization and reception of the medium. Examines the relationship of photography to aspects of culture in both Europe and America. Periodic offering. Fee.
AR 269 Modern Latin American Art	3
A survey of the artistic production in Central and South America during the 20th century. Prominent avant-garde movements will be considered, such as muralism, neofiguration, and conceptualism. Explore how artists challenged politics and society in their own countries and influenced artistic practice around the world. Fee. Spring semester, even years.
AR 280 Field Studies	1-4
AR 290 Internship	1-4
AR 291 Independent Study	1-4
AR 301 Drawing III	3
Advanced course. Student assumes greater responsibility for design of drawing problems, appropriate media and technique. Continued development of personal style, content and use of series or serial work. Prerequisite: AR 201. Fee. Spring semester, odd years.
AR 302 Figure Drawing I	3

- Intermediate course using the human figure as subject. Variety of problems, media and techniques using the live model. Emphasis on observation, composition and content. Prerequisite: AR 201. Spring semester, even years. Fee. 3
- AR 310 Painting II 3
Intermediate course. Mastery of painting technique. Development of personal style, content and imagery. Prerequisite: AR 210. Fee. Fall and spring semesters.
- AR 311 Watercolor II 3
Intermediate course. Development of personal imagery, style and content. Prerequisite: AR 211. Fee. Periodic offering.
- AR 314W Chinese Gardens and Temples 3
As part of the Whitworth in China program, Chinese Gardens and Temples is an art history survey of Chinese scholar gardens and traditional temple design and symbolism for students of all levels regardless of previous exposure to art history or Chinese culture. In addition to Chinese art and architectural history, related topics such as philosophy, religion, and intellectual history, will be studied from early history to the present day as they relate to the history of Chinese art, gardens and architecture within a social and political setting. The course will be taught in the English language on location in China.
- AR 315 Community Arts in Practice 3
An in-depth study of how the arts are practiced within a community setting. Explores the disciplines of art, theater, and music; students will study a variety of models of how each is used in the context of community development. Emphasis on the practical knowledge needed to execute a public art project. No prerequisites; however, some background in art is recommended. Also listed as TA 315. Fall semester.
- AR 316 Community-Based Theatre 3
A practical study of CBT concepts and practices. As a group, students will devise and perform an original piece of theatre in collaboration with a community organization. TA 348 is recommended but not required. Offered Spring semester, even years. Also listed as TA 316.
- AR 321 Intermediate Printmaking 3
Further exploration of technical and aesthetic aspects of matrix-based art making. Individually directed projects emphasizing digital and mixed- process printing. Prerequisite: AR 221 or AR 222. Fee. Periodic offering.
- AR 322 Print Production 3
An introduction to four-color-process printing. An emphasis on digitally created printing matrixes and commercial printing techniques for graphic design and fine art. Intaglio, relief, screenprinting and lithography may be incorporated. Fee. Periodic offering.
- AR 323 Typography I 3
Introduction to typography for designers. Covers the fundamentals of letter forms, spacing, and layout. Emphasis is on typesetting as well as creative and expressive use of lettering. Projects will be completed digitally and by hand. Prerequisite: AR 124. Fee. Spring semesters.
- AR 324 Digital Imaging I 3
An introduction to the techniques and aesthetic approaches to digital art making. Students will be given the chance to develop and execute design and fine art ideas using digital image-making software programs. A beginning class for those considering the graphic and web design fields as well as those interested in using the computer as a fine art tool. Prerequisite: AR 120 and AR 124. Fee. Fall semesters.
- AR 326 Web Design I 3
An introductory course in designing websites. Students will gain experience in creating and editing images for use on the web; organizing information and directory structures; building and maintaining webpages; applying design theory and page layout to create professional websites. Emphasis will be placed on overcoming the technical challenges associated with building webpages. Prerequisite: AR 120 & AR 124. Fee. Periodic offering.
- AR 327 Intermediate Time-Based Art Making 3
An intermediate course emphasizing the technical and conceptual processes needed to work in time-based art media such as video installations, motion pictures, or animation. Also addresses aesthetic and theoretical issues related to film making. Individually directed projects emphasizing editing and directing. A camera capable of creating video is required. Prerequisites: AR 101 and AR 224. Fee. Periodic offering.
- AR 331 Digital Photography II 3
Intermediate problems in digital photography/ computer manipulation of photographs. Digital SLR camera required. Prerequisite: AR 231. Fee.
- AR 340 Ceramics (Wheelwork) II 3
Studies will be directed toward specific individual needs as determined by experiences in previous ceramic courses. Students will exhibit work publicly. Prerequisite: AR 240 or AR 241. Fee. Fall semester.
- AR 341 Ceramics (Handbuilding) II 3
Studies will be directed toward specific individual needs as determined by experiences in previous ceramics courses. Students will exhibit work publicly. Prerequisite: AR 240 or AR 241. Fee. Spring semester.
- AR 343 Glass III 3
Projects in glass will be individually directed. Prerequisite: AR 243. Fee.
- AR 344 Elementary Art: Curriculum and Methods 1

A hands-on workshop course that emphasizes helping the elementary-education student become comfortable with the art experience and knowledgeable about the variety of media and techniques, safety information, stages of a child's artistic development, and methods of aesthetic evaluation. Emphasizes the art process rather than the product. The goal of the course is to help the future teacher gain an appreciation for children's art and an enthusiasm for art in general. Fee. Fall and spring semesters.

AR 355 Sculpture I

Techniques and fundamentals of three-dimensional composition. Figurative and abstract problems using a variety of media: clay, wood, stone and found objects. Fee.

AR 360 History of Ancient Art

A survey of the development of the visual arts-architecture, sculpture, painting, and minor arts-in the Western world, from prehistory through the Roman periods. Works of art will be studied within their historical, social, economic, political, and religious contexts, as well as from the perspective of a formal analysis. Students in this upper-division section will complete additional assignments. Periodic offering. Fee.

AR 361 History of Renaissance/Baroque Art

The development of artistic expression from the early 14th century through the 19th century, including Northern and Italian Renaissance, Mannerism, Rococo, Neoclassicism and Romanticism. Architecture, sculpture, painting and the minor arts will be considered within both their cultural and visual contexts. Students in this upper-division section will complete additional assignments. Fall semester. Fee.

A survey tracing the roots of contemporary art, beginning with the modern works produced in the mid-19th century. Discussion and analysis focus on a wide range of traditional, non-traditional, and experimental media and techniques employed by modern artists to create unique visual expressions. Students in this upper-division section will write additional papers. Spring semester. Fee.

A survey course designed to investigate the artistic developments-architecture, sculpture, painting and the minor arts (tapestry, jewelry, goldsmithing, costumes) significant to the Early Christian through Gothic periods. Artistic expression within the context of the culture that created it is considered. Students in this upper-division section will complete additional assignments. Periodic offering. Fee.

AR 365W Contemporary Art Seminar

A survey of contemporary art and the elements that contribute to the practice of current visual culture. The history of art after 1940. Special attention to understanding the controversy and scandal associated with the beginning of the 21st century. Spring semester.

AR 368 Aesthetics

The nature of art, including purposes and theories, connections to beauty and truth and practical life, and moral implications of artworks. Recommended prerequisite: PH 110 or any of AR 260-264. Also listed as PH 368. Spring semester, odd years.

AR 381 Art in France

Study of the visual arts in France - emphasis on art since 1900. Artists' studios, galleries, museums and cathedrals are a classroom for the study of painting, sculpture and other art forms in the context of French culture. Paris, Chartres, Nice, Vence, Antibes. Offered only in conjunction with the full-semester Whitworth in France Study Program. Spring semester, every third year.

AR 382 British Isles Arts & Crafts

A study of the visual arts - architecture, sculpture, painting, and decorative arts - in England, Scotland, Wales and Ireland. Museums, galleries, cathedrals, castles and other on-site artistic expressions will offer the student an opportunity to study firsthand the works of art in historical, cultural, and artistic contexts. Fee. Offered only in conjunction with the full-semester Whitworth British Isles Study Program. Fee. Fall semester, every third year (2008, 2011).

AR 386 Readings

AR 390 Internship

1-4

AR 391 Independent Study

1-4

AR 395 Teaching Assistantship

1-4

AR 396 Topics in Art

Selected upper-division topics in art. Periodic offering.

AR 399 Junior Exhibition Project

Students experience all the steps necessary to organize and install a group exhibition of artworks as preparation for the senior exhibition. Fee. Spring semester.

AR 401 Drawing IV

Advanced course. Student assumes responsibility for the design of one or more series of drawings employing his/her choice of media, technique, and imagery. Prerequisite: AR 301 or AR 302 Fee. Spring semester, odd years.

Advanced course in life drawing. Student assumes major responsibility for design of problems, including choice of media. Use of series to develop personal style, imagery, content, and refinement in drawings using the human figure as subject. Prerequisite: AR 302. Fee. Spring semester, even years.

AR 410 Painting III

Advanced course. Student works in series. Refinement of technique and style to advance imagery and content. Prerequisite: AR 310. Fee. Fall and spring semesters.
AR 411 Watercolor III	3
Advanced course in watercolor. Refinement of technique, personal visual statements. Prerequisite: AR 311. Fee. Periodic offering.
AR 422 Advanced Printmaking	3
Individually directed projects. Prerequisite: AR 321 or AR 322. Fee. Periodic offering.
AR 423 Typography II	3
Advanced work in typography for designers. Students will continue research into page layout and the aesthetics of letterforms. Projects will be completed digitally. Prerequisite: AR 101 and 323. Fee. Periodic offering.
AR 424 Digital Imaging II	3
Advanced work in design graphics. Students will continue research into the technical and aesthetic issues related to computer-generated artwork. Exploration of object-based, page-layout software and multimedia applications. Prerequisites: AR 101 and AR 324. Fee. Periodic offering.
AR 426 Web Design II	3
Advanced work in designing webpages. Students will continue research into information and aesthetics on the web. Prerequisite: AR 326. Fee.
AR 427 Advanced Time-Based Art Making	3
An advanced course emphasizing the technical and conceptual processes needed to work in time-based art media such as video installation, motion pictures, or animation. Also addresses aesthetic and theoretical issues related to filmmaking. Individually directed projects emphasizing editing and directing. A camera capable of creating video is required. Fee.
AR 431 Digital Photography III	3
Self-directed problems in digital photography/ computer manipulation. Digital SLR required. Prerequisite: AR 331. Fee.
AR 435 Arts Administration	3
An in-depth study of the administration of community art projects. Topics include grant-writing, business plans, safety/liability, marketing and public relations. Emphasizes laying the groundwork for successful community art projects within the disciplines of fine arts, music and theater. No prerequisites; however, some background in art is recommended. Also listed as TA 435. Fee. Fall semester.
AR 440 Ceramics (Wheelwork) III	3
Students will design projects to meet their individual needs in specific areas. Ceramic works created as a series will be the focus. Prerequisite: AR 340 or AR 341. Fee. Fall semester.
AR 441 Ceramics (Handbuilding) III	3
Students will design projects to meet their individual needs in specific areas. Ceramic works created as a series will be the focus. Prerequisite: AR 340 or AR 341. Fee. Spring semester.
AR 443 Glass IV	3
Projects in glass will be individually directed. Fee. Periodic offering.
AR 444 Secondary Art: Curriculum and Methods	2
Available for art-education majors/minors. Observation and analysis of middle (junior high) and high school teachers in a classroom setting. Includes teaching methods, curriculum objectives and evaluation, classroom organization.
AR 455 Sculpture II	3
Prerequisite: AR 355
AR 460 Seminar	3
This capstone course is designed as a transition for the art major between art in the college setting and art beyond college. Discussion and investigation will help the student gain a clearer understanding of the nature of art and the artist. Visits to artists' studios, art-related business, galleries and museums. Through an exchange of information, ideas and methodology with both peers and professionals, the student will have the opportunity to formulate personal ideas, opinions, and goals for a future in art. Prerequisite: Art major with senior standing.
AR 480 Field Studies	1-4
AR 481 Field Experience	0-3
Alternate Level Field Experience
AR 486 Readings	1-4
AR 490 Internship	1-4
AR 491 Independent Study	1-4
AR 495 Teaching Assistantship	1-4
AR 499 Senior Exhibition Project	2
Required of all majors in painting/drawing, printmaking, graphic design, and three dimensional ceramics, sculpture, mixed media) art tracks. Students complete and exhibit original artworks. Review by all faculty. Fee. Spring semester.

Fine Arts Courses

FA 101 Introduction to the Fine Arts	3
Integrates the disciplines of art, music, theatre and dance into an examination of the fine-arts experience. Examines elements, media, expressiveness. Fall and spring semesters.
FA 300 British Culture through the Arts	3
Experience various aspects of English theatre and British culture through three weeks in London. Students are required to visit museums, art galleries, cathedrals, universities and other places of historical and cultural significance, as well as multiple chosen theatre and music events. Priority will be given to junior/senior students. Graded S/NS. Jan Term, even years.
FA 301 Power and Politics of Art: Italy/Germany	3
Exploration of the arts (primarily visual arts and music) in Rome, Florence, and Berlin, with emphasis on the arts in relation to history, culture, and political systems. Offered Jan Term, odd years.
FA 305 Christianity and the Arts in Italy	3
This course will lead students to the following Italian cities: Milan, Venice, Florence, Siena, Assisi and Rome. The goals of this program are to study and analyze historical and religious developments of Christianity in Italy with an additional emphasis on Christian fine arts. Students will face important political, religious and artistic issues that have shaped Italian Christianity and culture in the past and present.
FA 365 Fine Arts Culture in Britain	3
Taught when a faculty member from the Whitworth Theatre, Music or Art Department is part of the study program to the British Isles.

Humanities Courses

HU 191 Independent Study	1-3
HU 196 Selected Topics	1-3
HU 200 Introduction to Culture British Isles Abroad	1
This course will provide a survey of the art, history, and literature of England, Ireland, Scotland, and Wales. Required for and exclusive to students participating in the British Isles Study Program. Jan Term, every third year - or spring semester preceding the program (2011).
HU 201 International Films	1
Professors from different disciplines present seven international films; students view films together and react to them through short papers. Learn about international cinematic traditions and film history. Fall semester.
HU 202 Classic Films	1
Professors from different disciplines present seven classic films; students view films together and react to them through short papers. Learn about cinematic traditions and American film history. Spring semester.
HU 291 Independent Study	1-4
HU 302 French Civilization - Abroad Program Preparation	2
A survey of French history from the Gauls and Romans through the 19th century, with emphasis on contemporary French culture. Required for and exclusive to students participating in the France Study Program. Fall semester, every third year preceding the program.
HU 349 Introduction to Thailand Studies	2
Preparation for Jan Term in Thailand.
HU 350 Thailand Study Program	3
See WS 350.
HU 391 Independent Study	1-3
HU 395 Teaching Assistantship	1-4
HU 396 Selected Topics	1-3
HU 491 Independent Study	1-4
HU 495 Teaching Assistantship	1-4

Biology

<http://www.whitworth.edu/biology>

The mission of the Whitworth Biology Department is to educate biologists to be knowledgeable about the organization and function of biological systems, proficient in the practice of science, and conversant in the ethical and social implications of advances in the field. We seek to instill in students an understanding that organisms exist in dynamic interaction with an environmental context. We believe that the ideas of biology interface significantly with other intellectual perspectives, and that the study of biology provides an appropriate philosophical foundation for an informed comprehensive worldview.

The learning outcomes of this major prepare the student in the following areas:

Content

Graduates should have a broad base of factual information and principles in biology, including basic knowledge of all major organismic groups, biochemistry and metabolism, and the structural and functional components at all levels of biological organization. In addition, they should have reasonable depth in one sub-discipline of biology.

Synthesis: Graduates should be able to integrate and synthesize material from different sub-disciplines of biology. This goes beyond simply having knowledge of different areas, but should integrate sub-disciplines of biology, relating biological processes at various levels of organization.

Communication

Biology graduates should be able to communicate with professional and lay audiences about biology. This skill includes the ability to communicate coherently in both oral and written forms, in plain language, about biological matters, and the ability to use discipline-specific formats as appropriate for professional audiences.

Critical Thinking

Graduates should be able to interpret biological research reports and journal articles and to analyze data. They should have the ability to design a useful, workable experiment to address a particular biological question and be able to use problem-solving skills to modify a planned experimental approach.

Technical Proficiencies

Graduates should demonstrate basic laboratory "bench" skills common to the discipline (e.g., use a microscope, perform dilutions, operate a spectrophotometer); be familiar with field techniques such as sampling, habitat analysis, and collecting and preserving samples; follow and use experimental protocols, including recording and maintaining accurate data records; and understand the factors involved in maintaining and handling organisms – plants, animals and microbes – for study.

Research

The ability to conduct a research experiment incorporates many of the goals the faculty would like students to achieve – knowledge of content, synthesis, technical proficiencies and communication skills.

Au Sable Institute

The Au Sable Institute is a Christian environmental-stewardship institute whose mission is to work to bring healing and wholeness to the biosphere and the whole creation through academic programs, research projects and educational outreach. Whitworth is a participating member of the institute. Coursework taken through the institute can be counted as elective credit toward completion of a biology degree. The following courses (this is a partial list) are offered during the summer at the Au Sable Pacific Rim campus (on Puget Sound, near Seattle). Other courses are offered at the following campuses: Au Sable Great Lakes (in the Great Lakes Forest, Mich.), Au Sable East (on the Chesapeake Bay, in Virginia), Au Sable Africa (near Nairobi, Kenya), and Au Sable India (in Tamil Nadu, South India). A full listing of Au Sable courses is available in the biology department.

BIO 266 Natural History of the Pacific Northwest (3)

Biology and environment of plants and animals, nature of the physical environment, and biogeography of the Pacific Rim, from a stewardship perspective.

BIO 311 Field Botany (4)

Field identification and ecology of vascular plants as components of natural communities. Emphasis is placed upon on-site examination of plants in communities of the region. Ecological features such as community stratification and plant zonation along ecological gradients are examined. Prerequisite: one year of introductory biology or one semester of botany.

BIO 324 Natural Resources Practicum (4)

Environmental analysis and natural resources in relation to people and policy in the Pacific Rim. The focus is on local and regional environmental issues and policy in the context of environmental stewardship. It deals with the topics of old-growth forests, endangered species, fisheries issues, conservation of wild nature, international environmental issues in the Pacific Rim, land tenure and environmental stewardship.

BIO 359 Marine Mammals (4)

Biology, behavior, ecology, identification, and conservation of the marine mammals of the Pacific Rim. Work covers some of the major habitats in Puget Sound, with particular attention to the diving physiology, social behavior, and communications of whales and seals. Prerequisite: one year of general biology or one semester of zoology.

BIO 417 Marine Stewardship (4)

Stewardship of marine habitats and marine organisms in the context of environmental issues and policy. Includes developing an understanding of the structure, function, and conservation issues regarding biotic communities and ecosystems of coastal zone, estuaries, islands and the sea. Prerequisite: one year of general biology.

BIO 477 Plant Ecology (4)

Interrelationships between plants and their physical and biotic environments; plant-animal interactions; plant community composition and development; and modern methods of ordination and quantitative analysis with applications to conservation and stewardship. Prerequisite: one year of biology and one course in ecology.

BIO 499 Biological Research (1-6)

Participation in an ongoing research project of the institute, or a research project conducted concurrently with an advanced course. Prerequisite: permission of professor or concurrent enrollment in an advanced course.

Requirements for a Biology Major, B.A. (45)

BI 140	General Biology I: Genes, Cells and Evolution	4
BI 141	General Biology II: Organismal Biology	4
Take four credits of the following:		4
BI 296	Topics in Diversity (May be repeated for credit)
BI 303	Plant Taxonomy *
BI 347	Microbial Physiology *
BI 350	Comparative Vertebrate Anatomy *
One of the following:		3
BI 230	Introductory Biochemistry
CH 401	Biochemistry I
Approved upper-division biology electives  (For teacher certification, 4-12 endorsement, BI 333, 363 and 345 must be included.)		20
CH 161	General Chemistry I	3
CH 161L	General Chemistry I Lab	1
CH 181	General Chemistry II	3
CH 271	Organic Chemistry I	3

* If used to meet this requirement, cannot be used to meet the upper division elective requirements

 One writing-intensive biology course is required.

For teacher certification (4-12 endorsement), the following additional courses are also required:

MA 256	Elementary Probability and Statistics	3
EDU 455	Science in Secondary School	2

All endorsements subject to change; see School of Education for updated requirements.

Requirements for a Biology Major, B.S. (58)

BI 140	General Biology I: Genes, Cells and Evolution	4
BI 141	General Biology II: Organismal Biology	4
Take four credits of the following:		4
BI 296	Topics in Diversity (May be repeated for credit)
BI 303	Plant Taxonomy *
BI 347	Microbial Physiology *
BI 350	Comparative Vertebrate Anatomy *
BI 345	Ecology	4
BI 363	Genetics	4
One of the following:		4
BI 323	Animal Physiology
BI 331	Plant Physiology
BI 347	Microbial Physiology
One of the following:		3
BI 399	Molecular Biology
BI 412	Advanced Cell Biology

One of the following:		3
BI 230	Introductory Biochemistry
CH 401	Biochemistry I
Approved upper-division biology electives 		8
(For teacher certification, 4-12 endorsement, BI 333, 363 and 345 must be included.)
CH 161	General Chemistry I	3
CH 161L	General Chemistry I Lab	1
CH 181	General Chemistry II	3
CH 181L	General Chemistry II Lab	1
CH 271	Organic Chemistry I	3
CH 271L	Organic Chemistry I Lab	1
PS 151	General Physics I 	3
PS 151L	General Physics I Lab	1
PS 153	General Physics II 	3
PS 153L	General Physics II Lab	1

(No more than four credits of internships or cooperative studies, no more than two credits of teaching assistantships, and no more than four credits of BI 400 – Biological Research will apply to the degree program.)

* If used to meet this requirement, cannot be used to meet the physiology or upper division elective requirements

 One writing-intensive biology course required.

 PS 151 has a prerequisite of MA 171 (Calculus I) and PS 153 has a prerequisite of MA 172 (Calculus II).

For teacher certification (4-12 endorsement) the following courses are also required:

EDU 455	Science in Secondary School	2
---------	-----------------------------	---

All endorsements subject to change; see School of Education for updated requirements.

Requirements for a Biology Minor (20)

All endorsements subject to change; see School Education for updated requirements.

BI 140	General Biology I: Genes, Cells and Evolution	4
BI 141	General Biology II: Organismal Biology	4
Take four credits of the following:		4
BI 296	Topics in Diversity (May be repeated for credit)
BI 303	Plant Taxonomy *
BI 347	Microbial Physiology *
BI 350	Comparative Vertebrate Anatomy *

Approved upper-division biology electives 8

For Washington state endorsement in biology, BI 333, BI 363 and BI 345 must be included and the following additional courses are required:

* If used to meet this requirement, cannot be used to meet upper division elective requirement.

MA 256	Elementary Probability and Statistics	3
EDU 455	Science in Secondary School	2

Requirements for a Science Endorsement for Majors in Biology, Chemistry or Physics (32)

BI 140	General Biology I: Genes, Cells and Evolution	4
BI 141	General Biology II: Organismal Biology	4
CH 161	General Chemistry I	3
CH 161L	General Chemistry I Lab	1
One of the following		4
CH 271	Organic Chemistry I
CH 181	General Chemistry II
PS 151	General Physics I 	3
PS 151L	General Physics I Lab	1
PS 153	General Physics II 	3
PS 153L	General Physics II Lab	1
PS 141	Introduction to Astronomy	4
One of the following		4
GL 131	Understanding Earth
GL 139	Environmental Geology
NS 101	Earth and Sky

 Note: PS 151 has a prerequisite of MA 171 (Calculus I) and PS 153 has a prerequisite of MA 172 (Calculus II).

Courses

BI 102 Introductory Biology	3
Contemporary understanding of the basic organization and function of biological systems and the nature and interdependence of living organisms. Emphasis on cell structure, the diversity of organisms, and physiology. Lab. Meets natural science requirement.
BI 102L Lab: Introductory Biology	0
BI 104 Human Ecology	3
Nature, dynamics and interdependence of ecosystems in relation to the human biological and cultural niche. The ecological principles of energy flow, nutrient cycling, succession, limiting factors, species diversity and symbioses are utilized to diagnose global environmental problems such as global warming, acid precipitation, ozone depletion, desertification, species extinction, deforestation and resource depletion. No lab. For non-science majors. Periodic offering.
BI 105 Plants in Culture	3
Basic structures and life processes in plants. Survey of historical and contemporary uses of plants. Focus on ways in which human life is physically dependent on plants, and on the many ways in which human cultures reflect the specific plants available to them. No lab. For non-science majors. Meets natural science requirement. Periodic offering.
BI 107 Infectious Diseases	3
Introduction to the structure, function and diversity of microorganisms that cause human disease. Microbial infections that complicate exposure to vacation climates, pets, recreational activities and exotic cuisine will be emphasized. For non-science majors. Meets natural science requirement. Periodic offering.
BI 108 Biology of Sex & Gender	3
Investigation of the biological basis of gender variation, sexual identity, reproduction and sexual development. Emphasis given to the developmental biology, neurobiology, endocrinology and physiology underlying human male and female form and function. No lab. For non-science majors. Meets natural science general requirement. Periodic offering.
BI 110 Introduction to Human Genetics	3
Mechanisms of inheritance which account for the vast genetic diversity within the human species, hereditary disease and genetic therapy, human genome project. No lab. For non-science majors. Periodic offering. Meets natural science requirement.
BI 111 Marine Biology	3
Introduction to life in the sea. Emphasis on the diversity of marine organisms and adaptations to marine habitats, marine ecosystems and food webs. No lab. For non-science majors. Periodic offering.

BI 112 Biology of Northwest Agriculture	3
The biological concepts that underlie current topics in agriculture of the Northwest will be discussed. Popular views of the biological factors thought to play a role in agriculturally related issues will be compared to established hypothesis and theories. Periodic offering.
BI 113 Biological Evolution	3
Introduces major principles of evolutionary biology, including concepts of evolutionary genetics, adaption and natural selection, and speciation and macroevolution. Contemporary controversies surrounding the teaching of evolution are also discussed. No lab. For non-science majors. Periodic offering.
BI 140 General Biology I: Genes, Cells and Evolution	4
Introduces cells as the structural and functional units of living systems, emphasizing molecular characteristics of cellular and biochemical processes in the context of cellular and subcellular organization. Topics covered include basic biological chemistry, cell and virus structure, energy utilization and metabolism, viral and cellular reproduction, genetics, evolutionary theory, systematics and phylogeny. In the laboratory portion of the course, students investigate cell structure, function, and genetics. This course is part of the introductory sequence of courses designed to assist students in developing critical reasoning skills and the necessary conceptual framework for advanced study in biology. Fall.
BI 140L General Biology I: Genes, Cells and Evolution Lab	0
Introduces cells as the structural and functional units of living systems, emphasizing molecular characteristics of cellular and biochemical processes in the context of cellular and subcellular organization. Topics covered include basic biological chemistry, cell and virus structure, energy utilization and metabolism, viral and cellular reproduction, genetics, evolutionary theory, systematics and phylogeny. In the laboratory portion of the course, students investigate cell structure, function, and genetics. This course is part of the introductory sequence of courses designed to assist students in developing critical reasoning skills and the necessary conceptual framework for advanced study in biology. Fall.
BI 141 General Biology II: Organismal Biology	4
Evolutionary origin, taxonomic classification and unique anatomical, physiological and behavioral adaptations of protists, fungi, green plants, and animals. Lab. Recommended: BI 140. Spring semester.
BI 141L General Biology II: Organismal Biology Lab	0
Evolutionary origin, taxonomic classification and unique anatomical, physiological and behavioral adaptations of protists, fungi, green plants, and animals. Recommended: BI 140L. Spring semester.
BI 191 Independent Study	1-4
BI 196 Topics in Biology	3
One-time offerings for lower-division students or for non-science majors.
BI 204 Medical Microbiology	4
Microorganisms, especially bacteria and viruses of medical importance. Basic structure and physiology of microorganisms, principles and control of growth, antibiotics, a survey of infectious disease. Lab emphasizes the use of aseptic technique and the culture and identification of bacteria. Prerequisite: CH 102. Spring semester.
BI 204L Lab: Medical Micro	0
BI 230 Introductory Biochemistry	3
Introduction for biology majors to biopolymers and metabolism. Focus on energy flow and chemical processes in living systems. No lab. Prerequisites: BI 140, 141, CH 161, CH 181. Co-requisite: CH 271. Fall semester.
BI 235 Conservation Biology	3
Application of biological concepts from fields such as ecology and genetics to conservation of biodiversity of species and habitats, forest fragmentation, overharvest of wild species, loss of wetlands, maintaining genetic diversity and design of nature reserves. No lab. Prerequisites: Sophomore standing and one science course.
BI 280 Field Studies	1-4
BI 290 Internship	1-4
BI 291 Independent Study	1-4
BI 296 Topics in Diversity	2
Yearly offerings required for the Biology major and minor. Courses will examine the diversity of specific groups of organisms. Topics such as bacteriology, mycology, algology, vascular and non-vascular plants, protozoans and invertebrates will be covered. Courses may include laboratory exercises. Prerequisites: BI 140 and BI 141. Fall and Spring semesters.
BI 303 Plant Taxonomy	4
History, theories and methods of classification, identification, nomenclature and description. Role of taxonomy as a biological discipline. Types of taxonomic evidence. Descriptive terminology. Survey of selected families. Lab focuses on use and construction of diagnostic keys, identification of local flora, preparation of field data records and herbarium specimens. Lab. Prerequisites: BI 140 and BI 141. Spring Semester, even years.
BI 303W Plant Taxonomy	4
History, theories and methods of classification, identification, nomenclature and description. Role of taxonomy as a biological discipline. Types of taxonomic evidence. Descriptive terminology. Survey of selected families. Lab focuses on use and construction of diagnostic keys, identification of local flora, preparation of field data records and herbarium specimens. Prerequisites: BI 140 and BI 141. Spring semester, even years.
BI 303L Lab: Plant Taxonomy	0

BI 308 Biology of HIV/AIDS	3
Explores the biological, socioeconomic, political and religious factors that influence the transmission, life cycle, pathogenesis and treatment of the human immunodeficiency virus (HIV). No lab. Prerequisites: BI 140 and 141.
BI 323 Animal Physiology	4
Anatomical, physiological and behavioral adaptations of animals to their particular habitats. Lectures focus on respiration in air and water, circulation, metabolism, temperature limits and thermoregulation, osmotic adaptations and excretion, and amoeboid, flagellar, ciliary, and muscular movement. Lab. Prerequisites: BI 140, BI 141, CH 271 and BI 230 or CH 401. Fall semester.
BI 323W Animal Physiology	4
Anatomical, physiological and behavioral adaptations of animals to their particular habitats. Lectures focus on respiration in air and water, circulation, metabolism, temperature limits and thermoregulation, osmotic adaptations and excretion, and amoeboid, flagellar, ciliary, and muscular movement. Lab. Prerequisites: BI 140, BI 141, CH 271 and BI 230 or CH 401. Fall semester.
BI 323L Lab: Animal Physiology	0
BI 324 Animal Behavior	4
The study of the mechanisms and evolution of animal behavior. Topics include methods of observation and quantification of behavior, natural selection, sexual selection, evolution of animal choice, and the biological basis of all social interactions. Lab. Prerequisites: BI 140 and BI 141. Fall semester, odd years.
BI 324W Animal Behavior	4
The study of the mechanisms and evolution of animal behavior. Topics include methods of observation and quantification of behavior, natural selection, sexual selection, evolution of animal choice, and the biological basis of all social interactions. Lab. Prerequisites: BI 140 and BI 141. Fall semester, odd years.
BI 324L Lab: Animal Behavior	0
BI 331 Plant Physiology	4
Water relations, mineral absorption and nutrition, translocation mechanisms, respiration, photosynthesis, nitrogen metabolism, growth regulators, photomorphogenesis, senescence and stress physiology. Focus on vascular plants. Lab emphasizes whole organism responses. Prerequisites: BI 140, BI 141, BI 230, and CH 271. Spring semester, odd years.
BI 331W Plant Physiology	4
Water relations, mineral absorption and nutrition, translocation mechanisms, respiration, photosynthesis, nitrogen metabolism, growth regulators, photomorphogenesis, senescence and stress physiology. Focus on vascular plants. Lab emphasizes whole organism responses. Prerequisites: BI 140, BI 141, BI 230, and CH 271. Spring semester, odd years.
BI 331L Plant Physiology Lab	0
BI 333 Evolutionary Biology	3
Study of the evolutionary paradigm that unifies the science of biology. Origin, refinement and the contemporary form of evolutionary theory, with the objective of understanding its use in organizing the data, ideas and research of the biological sciences. The study will critique some of the popular caricatures of the evolutionary paradigm. No lab. Prerequisites: BI 140, BI 141 and BI 363; junior standing recommended. Periodic offering.
BI 333W Evolutionary Biology	3
Study of the evolutionary paradigm that unifies the science of biology. Origin, refinement and the contemporary form of evolutionary theory, with the objective of understanding its use in organizing the data, ideas and research of the biological sciences. The study will critique some of the popular caricatures of the evolutionary paradigm. No lab. Prerequisites: BI 140, BI 141 and BI 363; junior standing recommended. Periodic offering.
BI 337 Field Botany	2-3
Field, laboratory study of flora of selected regional habitats. Field trips and collection. Individual work in addition to group trips. Field journal required. Habitat and organisms of focus will vary. Prerequisites: BI 140 and BI 141.
BI 339 Intro to Field Marine Ecology	1
Theoretical and logistical preparation for the temperate field marine ecology expedition the following Jan Term. Class activities will prepare students for field work and for the original research project which they will conduct at a field marine laboratory. No lab. Permission of instructor; limited enrollment. Prerequisites: BI 140, BI 141 and BI 345. Fall semester, even years.
BI 342 Field Marine Ecology	4
Field-based course designed to explore the interactions of temperate marine organisms with their living and non-living environment. Students explore life histories and ecology of intertidal marine life in rocky shore, sand, mud flat, and planktonic communities. The class will be stationed at the Friday Harbor Marine Laboratory on San Juan Island, Puget Sound, Washington. Permission of instructor; limited enrollment. Prerequisites: BI 140, BI 141 and BI 345. Jan Term, odd years.
BI 343 Symbiotic Biology	3

Major categories of symbiotic associations involving partners in all five kingdoms. Mechanisms by which symbioses are established, maintained and propagated, along with structural, physiological and behavioral modifications characteristic of the symbionts and the ecological and evolutionary significance of such relationships. Focus on experimental approaches used to study symbioses. Junior standing recommended. Prerequisites: BI-140 and 141, plus BI 230.

BI 343W Symbiotic Biology

Major categories of symbiotic associations involving partners in all five kingdoms. Mechanisms by which symbioses are established, maintained and propagated, along with structural, physiological and behavioral modifications characteristic of the symbionts and the ecological and evolutionary significance of such relationships. Focus on experimental approaches used to study symbioses. Substantial literature review required. Junior standing recommended. Prerequisite: BI 140, BI 141, and BI 230.

Fundamental relationships and processes by which organisms interact with each other and their physical environment. Focus on physiological adaptations, population growth and regulation, community and ecosystem structure and function, and biogeography. Lab. Prerequisites: BI 140 and BI 141. Spring semester.

BI 345W Ecology

Fundamental relationships and processes by which organisms interact with each other and their physical environment. Focus on physiological adaptations, population growth and regulation, community and ecosystem structure and function, and biogeography. Lab. Prerequisites: BI 140 and BI 141. Spring semester.

BI 345L Lab: Ecology

BI 346 Field Parasitology

Field-based course exploring the interaction between parasites and hosts. Parasites in Northeastern Washington will be studied in relation to prevalence, location and affect upon the host. Organisms in the animal, plant, fungi, and protista kingdoms will be considered. Lab. Prerequisites: BI 140, BI 141, BI 230, BI 345, and BI 223 or BI 331. By permission of instructor. Periodic offering.

Ultrastructure, metabolic variations, genetics, ecology and evolution of prokaryotic organisms. Emphasis on the importance of bacteria in the study of various biological processes, as well as on the practical and technological importance and ecological significance of bacteria. Laboratory focus on techniques for isolating, culturing, and identifying bacteria, and on characterizing and studying their genetic and metabolic processes. Prerequisites: BI 140, BI 141 and CH 271. Fall semester, odd years.

BI 347W Microbial Physiology

Ultrastructure, metabolic variations, genetics, ecology and evolution of prokaryotic organisms. Emphasis on the importance of bacteria in the study of various biological processes, as well as on the practical and technological importance and ecological significance of bacteria. Laboratory focus on techniques for isolating, culturing, and identifying bacteria, and on characterizing and studying their genetic and metabolic processes. Prerequisites: BI 140, BI 141 and CH 271. Fall semester, odd years.

BI 347L Lab: Microbial Physiology

BI 348 Environmental Microbiology

This course will examine the applied effects of microorganisms on the environment and on human activity, health and welfare. The role of microbes in municipal waste treatment, bioremediation and agriculture will be discussed. The laboratory component of the course will explore the detection and quantitation of microbial activity, including cultural, microscopic, physiological and molecular approaches. Prerequisites: BI 140, BI 141 and CH 271. Fall semester, even years.

BI 348W Environmental Microbiology

This course will examine the applied effects of microorganisms on the environment and on human activity, health and welfare. The role of microbes in municipal waste treatment, bioremediation and agriculture will be discussed. The laboratory component of the course will explore the detection and quantitation of microbial activity, including cultural, microscopic, physiological and molecular approaches. Prerequisites: BI 140, BI 141 and CH 271. Fall semester, even years.

BI 348L Lab: Environmental Microbiology

Variations of the basic vertebrate theme that enable the species within the group to exploit the particular environment. Evolutionary development of major organ systems within vertebrate classes. Anatomical features of carnivore, herbivore and omnivore mammals will be discussed in detail. Lab. Prerequisites: BI 140 and BI 141. Fall semester, even years.

BI 350W Comparative Vertebrate Anatomy

Variations of the basic vertebrate theme that enable the species within the group to exploit the particular environment. Evolutionary development of major organ systems within vertebrate classes. Anatomical features of carnivore, herbivore and omnivore mammals will be discussed in detail. Lab. Prerequisites: BI 140 and BI 141. Fall semester, even years.

BI 350L Lab: Comparative Vertebrate Anatomy

Lab section for BI 350.

BI 354 Developmental Biology

Developmental processes and patterns of form and function in multicellular organisms, particularly animals. Emphasis on molecular, cellular and environmental factors regulating gene activity, cellular differentiation, and pattern formation during various developmental sequences. Descriptive, comparative and experimental lab activities focus on chordate embryology, specifically gametogenesis, fertilization, cleavage, gastrulation and organogenesis. Prerequisites: BI 140, BI 141 and BI 230; junior standing. Spring semester, even years.
BI 354W Developmental Biology	4
Developmental processes and patterns of form and function in multicellular organisms, particularly animals. Emphasis on molecular, cellular and environmental factors regulating gene activity, cellular differentiation, and pattern formation during various developmental sequences. Descriptive, comparative and experimental lab activities focus on chordate embryology, specifically gametogenesis, fertilization, cleavage, gastrulation and organogenesis. Prerequisites: BI 140, BI 141 and BI 230; junior standing. Spring semester, even years.
BI 354L Lab: Developmental Biology	0
BI 363 Genetics	4
Mechanisms that contribute to and maintain intraspecific diversity: meiosis, allelic segregation, chromosomal assortment, dominance-recessive allelic relationships, hybridization, multiple alleles, epistasis, linkage and recombination, polygenic inheritance and mutation. Population genetics, especially the factors that alter relative frequencies of gene pool alleles. Genetic molecules and the processes by which they are replicated, mutated and expressed. Human genetic diseases. Lab. Prerequisites: BI 140, BI 141 and CH 271. Fall semester.
BI 363W Genetics	4
Mechanisms that contribute to and maintain intraspecific diversity: meiosis, allelic segregation, chromosomal assortment, dominance-recessive allelic relationships, hybridization, multiple alleles, epistasis, linkage and recombination, polygenic inheritance and mutation. Population genetics, especially the factors that alter relative frequencies of gene pool alleles. Genetic molecules and the processes by which they are replicated, mutated and expressed. Human genetic diseases. Lab. Prerequisites: BI 140, BI 141 and CH 271. Fall semester.
BI 363L Lab: Genetics	0
Corequisite course: BI 363.
BI 369 Mycology	4
Aspects of growth, metabolism, genetics and environmental modification peculiar to fungi. Distinguishing characteristics of major fungal groups. Lab. Prerequisites: BI 140, BI 141 and BI 230
BI 369W Mycology	4
Aspects of growth, metabolism, genetics and environmental modification peculiar to fungi. Distinguishing characteristics of major fungal groups. Lab. Prerequisites: BI 140, BI 141 and BI 230
BI 369L Lab: Mycology	0
BI 380 Field Studies	1-4
BI 386 Readings	1-4
BI 388 Cell & Molecular Techniques	2-3
BI 390 Internship	1-4
BI 391 Independent Study	1-4
BI 395 Teaching Assistantship	1-4
BI 396 Topics in Biology	1-3
This is a "topics" course number covering occasional and one-time offerings for upper-division students; such topics as plant anatomy, comparative vertebrate anatomy and mycology will be covered.
BI 396L Lab for BI 396	0
BI 399 Molecular Biology	3
Contemporary molecular genetics: the organization, storage, retrieval and transfer of genetic information at the molecular level. Topics include the chemical and physical properties of nucleic acids, DNA replication, transcription, translation, mutagenesis, DNA repair, gene regulation and expression, techniques of experimental molecular biology and applications to biotechnology. Viral, prokaryotic, and eukaryotic systems examined. No lab. Prerequisites: BI 140, BI 141, BI 230 and BI 363; junior standing. Spring semester, odd years.
BI 399W Molecular Biology	3
Contemporary molecular genetics: the organization, storage, retrieval and transfer of genetic information at the molecular level. Topics include the chemical and physical properties of nucleic acids, DNA replication, transcription, translation, mutagenesis, DNA repair, gene regulation and expression, techniques of experimental molecular biology and applications to biotechnology. Viral, prokaryotic, and eukaryotic systems examined. No lab. Prerequisites: BI 140, BI 141, BI 230 and BI 363; junior standing. Spring semester, odd years.
BI 400 Biological Research	1-4
Individual student experimental-laboratory or field-research projects. Projects to be approved by department faculty. Prerequisite: BI 140, BI 141 and BI 230 and upper-division coursework in biology and other sciences pertinent to research project. Fall and spring semesters, Jan Term and summer.
BI 401 Seminar	1
Presentation and discussion of results of literature and laboratory investigations of biological phenomena. Departmental sessions. Prerequisites: 12 credits of 300- or 400- level biology courses. Periodic offering.
BI 404 Neurophysiology	3

Structural and functional aspects of the central nervous system of mammals. Basic neuroanatomy, nerve transmission, synaptic function and neuronal control mechanisms. Current research and contemporary topics related to central nervous system function will be investigated. Prerequisite: BI 140 and BI 141.

BI 404W Neurophysiology 3

Writing intensive BI 404. Structural and functional aspects of the central nervous system of mammals. Basic neuroanatomy, nerve transmission, synaptic function and neuronal control mechanisms. Current research and contemporary topics related to central nervous system function will be investigated. Prerequisite: BI 140 and BI 141.

BI 409 Techniques in Cell & Molecular Biology 2

Techniques for the study of cells and subcellular components. Prerequisites: BI 140, BI 141 and BI 230. Fall semester.

BI 409L Lab: Techniques in Cell and Molecular 0

BI 412 Advanced Cell Biology 3

Cell ultrastructure and molecular aspects of cell function. Emphasis on structural and molecular organization of eukaryotic cells and organelles, the regulation and compartmentalization of metabolic activities, cell cycles and reproduction, cellular differentiation and cell interactions. No lab. Prerequisites: BI 140, BI 141, BI 230, and junior standing. Fall semester, odd years.

BI 412W Advanced Cell Biology 3

Cell ultrastructure and molecular aspects of cell function. Emphasis on structural and molecular organization of eukaryotic cells and organelles, the regulation and compartmentalization of metabolic activities, cell cycles and reproduction, cellular differentiation and cell interactions. No lab. Prerequisites: BI 140, BI 141, BI 230, and junior standing. Fall semester, odd years.

Business & Economics Department

The Whitworth School of Global Commerce & Management comprises the Department of Business & Economics, the organizational management program (a program for the adult learner seeking a baccalaureate degree), and the following graduate programs: the master in business administration (MBA), the MBA in international management (MBA in IM), and the master of international management (MIM).

The mission of the Whitworth Department of Business & Economics is to develop ethical global professionals.

The SGCM vision is to excel in academic excellence, rigor and scholarship, in service to our students and community, in responsible resource stewardship and in the promotion of global understanding and experience.

The learning outcomes of this major prepare students to do the following:

- Understand the sources and uses of data and to know how to evaluate and use data and other information.
- Think and function independently as professionals, and in particular to be able to foresee and solve problems.
- Understand the legal, economic, business and organizational cultures and environment that frame graduates' professional work.
- Communicate well, both within and across cultural and national barriers, and work effectively in teams of diverse individuals.
- Begin to be able to integrate spiritual and ethical values with their chosen professional vocations.

Please note that the School of Global Commerce & Management requires students to complete at least 50-percent of all upper-division core business courses and at least 50-percent of their major requirement courses at Whitworth University.

Organizational Management Degree-Completion Program

For course descriptions, see Adult Degree Programs.

Prerequisites for all Department of Economics & Business Majors and Minors

A grade of "C" or better is required for all prerequisites.

1. Prior to the sophomore year:

CS 125	Business Information Systems	3
One of the following:		4
MA 108	Finite Mathematics for Social Sciences
MA 150	Pre-Calculus
MA 171	Calculus I

2. Prior to, or during, the junior year:

MA 256	Elementary Probability and Statistics	3
--------	---------------------------------------	---

Business Core Requirements (33)

BU 110	Introduction to Business and Management	3
or LS 250	Principles of Service and Leadership

Complete an international study experience		1-3
- by participating in any one of the Whitworth's semester- or year-long study abroad programs;

- by participating in one of Whitworth's Jan Term or other short-term study programs;
- by participating in summer international business internship program;
- by completing an international internship work experience of at least 120 hours;
- by other pre-approved international educational experiences or special arrangements at other institutions.

Foreign Language Requirement

6-8

To complete the degree, a student must either demonstrate or complete second-year proficiency in a second language; students who demonstrate second-year proficiency and who do not need any further language courses may enroll in any other courses listed above or, with prior approval from their advisors, in other international-related courses from the Whitworth catalog to achieve at least 18 hours minimum coursework for the major.

Note: The International Business Institute is a consortium of several Christian liberal arts colleges and universities, including Whitworth, which offers a 10-week summer program for senior-level students in Russia and Europe, providing 12 credits toward specific courses in the international business major. For more information, contact the Dean of the School of Global Commerce & Management.

Requirements for a Marketing Major, B.A. (51)

Business Core Requirements	33
BU 301 Consumer Behavior	3
BU 341 Customer Relationship and Channel Management	3

Business Management Courses

BU 110 Introduction to Business and Management	3
An overview of management issues in a global business environment: organizations, finance, marketing, accounting, entrepreneurship, economics, vocation planning, and socially responsible management. Fall and spring semesters.
BU 191 Independent Study	1-4
BU 196 Topics in Business Management	1-3
Selected lower-division topics in business management. Periodic offering.
BU 218 Marketing	3
Introduction to how organizations find, attract and retain customers via the use of the marketing mix in an increasingly competitive and global environment. Prerequisite: BU 110 and sophomore standing. Fall and spring semesters.
BU 220 Personal Financial Management	3
Practical information in the handling of personal business affairs. Career planning; insurance (life, health, property); home-buying or renting; investing in stocks, bonds and real estate; estate planning. No prerequisite for lower division. Upper-division credit by permission. Periodic offering.
BU 230 Financial Accounting	3
A study of the fundamental processes of accounting applied to services and merchandising proprietorships, partnerships and corporations. Analyzing, classifying and recording business transactions; preparation and analysis of financial statements. Prerequisite: BU 110. Fall and spring semesters.
BU 231 Managerial Accounting	3
Introduction to ways in which management uses accounting information for planning, pricing and controlling and for many special decision-making situations. Prerequisites: MA 108, MA 150 or Ma 171 and BU 230. Fall and spring semesters.
BU 240 Business Law	3
A consideration of the laws affecting business transactions. Introduction to law, court systems, torts, criminal law, sales and real property. Prerequisites: BU 110 and sophomore standing. Fall and spring semesters.
BU 248 Computerized Business Analysis	3
Solutions to business problems using the computerized spreadsheet, elementary database and presentation software. Prerequisites: CS 110 or CS 125 and BU 230. Periodic offering.
BU 280 Field Studies	1-4
BU 290 Internship	1-4
BU 291 Independent Study	1-4
BU 301 Consumer Behavior	3
A study of factors that influence the buying behavior of consumers. The relationship between understanding these variables in selected markets and an effective marketing effort will be emphasized. Prerequisite: BU 218. Fall semester.
BU 311 Principles of International Business	3
Introduction to and survey of the complex business and economic issues in an international commercial environment. Includes exposure to global marketing, management, finance, economics and accounting issues, integration of cross-cultural communications, history, politics, religion, gender and equity issues, and culture around the globe. Prerequisites: BU 110, BU 218 and either EC 210 or EC 211. Fall and spring semesters.
BU 320 Occupational Fraud & Abuse	3
In this course students will learn about the nature of fraud, its perpetrators and the compelling factors that lead to fraud. Students will evaluate various fraud schemes, prevention & detection methods, and the legal implications for companies and criminals. Prerequisite: BU 110. Periodic Jan Term offering.
BU 332 Cost Accounting	3
Emphasis on the mechanics and applications of accounting principles and concepts for planning, control and decision-making. Cost behavior, cost-volume-profit relationships, responsibility accounting, standard costing, budgeting, relevant costing for non-routine decisions, capital budgeting. Prerequisites: BU 230, BU 231 and junior standing. Spring semester.
BU 333 Accounting Systems and Theory	3
Foundations of accounting concepts and theories with emphasis on the role of information in decision making within and about organizations. Introduction to accounting systems controls and designs. Prerequisites: BU 230, BU 231 and CS 125. Spring semester and periodic Jan Term.
BU 334 Intermediate Accounting I	3
Modern accounting theory and practice. Analysis of the determination of income and asset evaluation. Analysis of financial statements; special financial accounting and reporting problems. Explores GAAP guidelines. Prerequisites: BU 230 and BU 231. Fall semester.
BU 335 Intermediate Accounting II	3
Modern accounting theory and practice. Analysis of the determination of income and asset evaluation. Analysis of financial statements; special financial accounting and reporting problems. Explores GAAP guidelines. Prerequisites: BU 230 and BU 231. Spring semester.

BU 336 Introduction to Taxation	4
A study of the concepts involved in determination of federal income tax liability, preparation of tax returns. Individual tax problems, tax planning. Prerequisites: BU 230 and junior standing. Fall semester.
BU 341 Customer Relationship and Channel Management	3
An examination of buyer-seller relations and the methods for distribution of products and services with the objective of developing high customer satisfaction and long-term customer relationships. Areas of focus will include the sales and sales support functions, and development of effective distribution channels. Prerequisite: BU 301. Periodic offering.
BU 345 Global Marketing	3
A study of the issues facing marketers in the global arena and methods to reach selected international markets effectively. Prerequisite: BU 301. Periodic offering.
BU 348 Integrated Marketing Communication	3
An in-depth study and application of the role, theory, tools, planning and management of integrated marketing communications. Students will explore communication with customers using various components of the promotional mix through multiple channels such as television, radio, print, direct marketing, outdoor and digital. Prerequisite: BU 301. Periodic offering.
BU 357 Financial Management	3
Analysis of role of chief financial officer. Study of the tools of financial analysis and decision-making. Emphasis on management of revenues and expenses, assets and liabilities. Information about raising of capital from the sale of stocks and bonds. Prerequisites: BU 230, BU 231, EC 210, EC 211, and junior standing. Fall and spring semesters.
BU 363W Small Business Management	3
Comprehensive coverage of all the operational areas involved in selecting and getting a business started. Business plans, funding, and market analysis are included. Local resources to share opportunities and problems. Prerequisites: BU 230, EC 210 or EC 211, and junior standing. Periodic offering.
BU 373 Human Resources Management	3
Changes in our social and economic environment have resulted in changes in the management of an organization's human resources. This course is designed to provide a contemporary view of human resource management. Emphasis is placed on the basic functions of human resource management, i.e. planning, recruitment, selection, training, performance appraisal, compensation, and union/management relations. Prerequisite: BU 110. Spring semester.
BU 374 Principles of Management	3
A study of the theory and practice of management of organizations, with emphasis on strategy, structure, effective use of human resources, planning, organizing, integrating and controlling functions. Prerequisite: junior standing. Periodic offering.
BU 376 Global Operation/Supply Chain Management	3
Decision-making involving the management of all aspects of operations in both large-and medium-sized business organizations and in product and service companies. Study of the quantitative tools used in making these analyses and decisions. Prerequisites: MA 108, MA 150 or MA 171 and MA 256 and BU 110 and junior standing.
BU 380 Field Studies	1-4
BU 381 International Business Abroad	3
Establishes a basic understanding of the theory and practical application of the "hows" and "whys" of a particulate international culture abroad, particularly as it relates to the historic, present and future challenges of that economy and to doing business with various people groups at home and abroad. Business models unique to non-American cultures will be explored in depth.
BU 390 Internship	1-4
BU 391 Independent Study	1-4
BU 395 Teaching Assistantship	1-4
BU 396 Topics in Business	1-3
Selected upper-division topics in business management. Periodic offering.
BU 402 International Management	3
Principles of management in the international environment. Strategic planning and decision-making in such areas as international marketing. Concepts of organizational design, leadership and control. Prerequisite: BU 311. Periodic offering.
BU 403 Political Environments in Business	3
Introduction to important conceptual and practical approaches to political risk assessment. Studies in government policies affecting business investment and development. Examination of political institutions; patterns of government interaction with business, leadership and risk management. Prerequisite: junior standing. Periodic offering.
BU 405 Business Plan Preparation	3

The course will provide an in-depth study of the business plan, its production and importance in today's business environment. The student will work in a team with faculty and outside mentor support to develop a plan that could be entered into the regional competition. An important goal of the course is to provide the student with the understanding of the relationship between theory and actual business operations as they develop and present their plan. Fall semester.

BU 406 Business Plan Competition

The course will provide an in-depth study of the business plan, its production and importance in today's business environment. The student will work in a team with faculty and outside mentor support to develop a plan that could be entered into the regional competition. An important goal of the course is to provide the student with the understanding of the relationship between theory and actual business operations as they develop and present their plan. Spring semester.

BU 410 Business Policy

Capstone course for business majors, integrating the functions of marketing, operations and finance from the strategic vantage point of the general manager. Case studies. Prerequisites: BU 218, BU 311, BU 357, and senior standing. Fall and spring semesters.

Practical information in the handling of personal business affairs. Career planning; insurance (life, health, property); home-buying or renting; investing in stocks, bonds and real estate; estate planning. No prerequisites for lower division. Upper-division credit by permission. Periodic offering.

BU 425 Organizational Behavior

A general descriptive and analytical study of organizations from the behavioral science perspective. Problems of motivation, leadership, morale, social structure, groups, communications, hierarchy and control in complex organizations. Interaction among technology, environment and human behavior. Alternate theoretical models. Fall semester.

BU 431 Managerial/Cost Case Analysis

In-depth study of cost data for planning and control through the use of case studies. Includes value of information theory systems design and decision models relating to control of costs. Prerequisite: BU 332. Periodic offering.

BU 434 Advanced Accounting I

Emphasis on intercorporate investments and preparation of consolidated financial statements. Introduction to advanced topics and current problems in financial accounting, partnership accounting, reporting theory and practice, including foreign currency transactions. Prerequisites: BU 334 and BU 335. Periodic fall semester.

BU 435 Governmental and Not-For-Profit Accounting

A study of accounting and financial reporting standards for governmental and not-for-profit organizations. Prerequisites: BU 335. Periodic fall semester.

BU 436 Advanced Taxation

A continuing study of the concepts involved in determination of federal income tax liability and preparation of tax returns. Partnership and corporate tax problems, tax planning, introduction to tax research included. Prerequisite: BU 336. Periodic spring semesters.

BU 440 Advanced Business Law

A continuing study of the laws affecting business transactions. Introduction to commercial transactions including the Uniform Commercial Code, various advanced topics such as environmental, computer, employee and international laws. Useful for accounting majors. Prerequisite: BU 240. Periodic offering.

BU 443 Product and Pricing Management

A study of the decisions related to products and services, including branding, new product development, product improvements and product assortment, and issues/methods related to developing effective prices, policies and tactics. Prerequisite: BU 301. Periodic offering.

BU 444 eCommerce

An examination of the buying/selling/distribution of products, services and information via digital technologies. Students will gain understanding of retail/organizational web site design issues, online consumer behavior, online customer service, and online order and fulfillment. Prerequisite: BU 301. Periodic offering.

BU 448 Market Research

A study of contemporary methods of gathering, analyzing and interpreting marketing information and how such information can be used in organizational decision-making. Prerequisites: BU 301 and MA 256. Periodic offering.

BU 450W Social and Ethical Issues in Business And Economics

Contemporary social, political, environmental and ethical forces affecting today's business and economic world. Seminar format. Dialogue with top local business, government and union leaders. Also listed as EC 450W. Fall and spring semesters.

BU 453W Organizational Theory

Course examines organizational theory, development and change from several perspectives. Explores leadership and development of organizational strategies and objective setting. Prerequisite: BU 425. Spring semester.

BU 455 Chaos Theory, Leadership and Management

A capstone course in leadership theory. Application of theory and practice to personal philosophy of leadership and how that applies to future vocational objectives. Translation of theory into practice through a major course proposal. Project. Periodic offering.

BU 466W Principles of Auditing 3

Standards, objectives and ethics for auditors in public accounting. Reporting standards, internal control, evidence and statistical sampling. Prerequisite: BU 334. Spring semester.

BU 473 International Human Resource Management 3

Emphasis on comprehensive case analysis, presentation of special related topics and use of computer-assisted cases. Current issues covered in presentations by professionals in the field. Periodic offering.

BU 480 Field Studies 1-4

BU 489 Marketing Planning and Implementation 3

An integrative experience that allows students to understand the relationships between various aspects of marketing and other functional areas of business. Students will study the development of comprehensive marketing plans. Prerequisites: senior standing and completion of at least three of the following: BU 310, BU 341, BU 345, BU 348, BU 443, BU 444, BU 448, BU 496, or JMC 244. Spring semester.

BU 490 Internship 1-12

See information on Directed Studies page.

BU 491 Independent Study 1-4

BU 493 Entrepreneurial Development 3

A practical hands-on consulting experience whereby students work with local entrepreneurs in developing business plans and competing for sustainable financing of a small business. Requires completion of business core except BU 410. Periodic offering.

BU 495 Teaching Assistantship 1-4

BU 496 Topics in Marketing 1-4

An examination of relevant and timely marketing subjects not covered in other marketing classes. May be repeated if the topics are different. Prerequisite: BU 301. Selected upper-division topics in marketing. Periodic offering.

Economics Courses

EC 191 Independent Study 1-4

EC 196 Topics in Economics 1-3

Selected lower-division topics in economics. Periodic offering.

EC 210 Principles of Microeconomics 3

Economics of the consumer and the firm; principles of market supply and demand and the determination of prices; analysis of competitive, monopolistic and oligopolistic markets; labor and other resource-input markets. Prerequisites: MA 108, MA 150 or MA 171. Fall and spring semesters.

EC 211 Principles of Macroeconomics 3

Examination of problems of unemployment, inflation, productivity, and economic growth; measurement of national income; Keynesian and classical theories of national income determination; fiscal and monetary policies and their implications; international economics. Prerequisite: MA 108, MA 150 or MA 171. Fall and spring semesters.

EC 245 Economics of Social Issues 3

Economic thinking about social problems such as population growth, price controls, poverty, higher education, energy, crime, pollution, consumerism, health care, social and economic inequality, unemployment, inflation, taxation and the public debt. Periodic Jan Term offering.

EC 280 Field Studies 1-4

EC 290 Internship 1-4

EC 291 Independent Study 1-4

EC 301 Money and Banking 3

Nature, function and regulation of money and credit. Review of the financial institutions that control domestic and international monetary policy. Prerequisites: BU 230, EC 210, and EC 211. Periodic offering.

EC 320 Intermediate Microeconomic Analysis 3

Theory of consumer and producer behavior; determination of price under various market structures; resource allocation and income distribution; general equilibrium analysis; application of economic principles to social problems. Prerequisites: EC 210 and EC 211. Fall semester.

EC 321W Intermediate Macroeconomic Analysis 3

Analysis of Keynesian, classical and other models of national income determination; fiscal and monetary policy; evaluation of the impact of international trade and capital flows on national income; theories of economic growth; macroeconomic history of the U.S. Prerequisites: EC 210 and EC 211. Spring semester.

EC 365W History of Economic Thought 3

Origins and development of economic thought from the early Greeks through the scholastics and mercantilists; emphasis on classical economics and criticisms of it; neoclassical theory. Also includes an overview of economic history of Europe, U.S.A., and Japan. Prerequisites: EC 210 and EC 211, or by permission. Periodic offering.

EC 380 Field Studies	1-4
EC 381 International Business Abroad	3
Establishes a basic understanding of the theory and practical application of the "hows" and "whys" of a particulate international culture abroad, particularly as it relates to the historic, present and future challenges of that economy and to doing business with various people groups at home and abroad. Business models unique to non-American cultures will be explored in depth.
EC 390 Internship	1-4
EC 391 Independent Study	1-4
EC 395 Teaching Assistantship	1-4
EC 396 Topics in Economics	1-3
Selected upper-division topics in economics. Periodic offering.
EC 402 Econometrics	3
Application of statistical modeling to empirical work in economics. A mixture of theory and applied computer work. Primary focus is regression analysis. Prerequisites: EC 210, EC 211 and MA 256. Periodic offering.
EC 416 International Trade and Finance	3
Classical and modern theories of international trade; analysis of tariffs and other trade restrictions; balance of payments; foreign exchange-rate determination; relationship between national income and balance of payments; applications to current issues in international economics. Prerequisites: EC 210 and EC 211. Fall semester.
EC 425 Economic Development	3
Theories of economic growth and development focusing on the Third World; measurement of economic development; roles of economic systems, culture, resources, human capital, technology, foreign trade, foreign aid, foreign investment; economic appraisal methodology. Prerequisites: EC 210 and EC 211. Periodic offering.
EC 450W Social and Ethical Issues in Business And Economics	3
Contemporary social, political, environmental and ethical forces affecting today's business and economic world. Seminar format. Dialogue with top local business, government and union leaders. Also listed as BU 450W. Fall and spring semesters.
EC 470 Senior Thesis	3
Taught as a tutorial. Preparation of research in an area of the student's interest.
EC 480 Field Studies	1-4
EC 490 Internship	1-4
EC 491 Independent Study	1-4
EC 495 Teaching Assistantship	1-4

Chemistry

<http://www.whitworth.edu/chemistry>

The Whitworth Chemistry Department strives to develop confident, well-prepared students who are able to contribute to the world community on issues relating to modern chemistry. Our students are expected to develop strong oral and written communication skills, to engage in critical thinking, to develop excellent laboratory skills, to work on independent research, and to prepare for vocations in industrial, academic and professional areas.

The learning outcomes of this major prepare the student to:

- understand the development of chemical theory and apply current chemical content to solving problems;
- communicate scientific issues in writing;
- communicate scientific issues orally;
- use and critically analyze the chemical literature;
- know and use standard lab techniques;
- apply independent research skills learned through research experiences and/or independent projects within courses.

Requirements for a Chemistry Major, B.A. (47)

One of the following:		3
CH 161	General Chemistry I
CH 162	Honors General Chemistry I
CH 161L	General Chemistry I Lab	1
CH 181	General Chemistry II	3
CH 181L	General Chemistry II Lab	1

Requirements for a Chemistry Major B.S. with a Track in either Biochemistry or Physical Chemistry

Each track requires the following foundational courses		37
One of the following		3
CH 161	General Chemistry I
CH 162	Honors General Chemistry I
CH 161L	General Chemistry I Lab	1
CH 181	General Chemistry II	3
CH 181L	General Chemistry II Lab	1
CH 271	Organic Chemistry I	3
CH 271L	Organic Chemistry I Lab	1
CH 278	Organic Chemistry II	3
CH 278L	Organic Chemistry II Lab	1
CH 315	Survey of Chemical Literature	1
CH 496L	Research in Chemistry	1
CH 497	Dissemination of Chemistry Research	1
One of the following		1
CH 381	Chemistry Seminar
CH 383	Chemistry Seminar
One of the following		1
CH 481	Chemistry Seminar
CH 483	Chemistry Seminar
MA 171	Calculus I	4
MA 172	Calculus II	4
PS 151	General Physics I	3
PS 151L	General Physics I Lab	1
PS 153	General Physics II	3
PS 153L	General Physics II Lab	1

Biochemistry Track (67-68)

Foundational courses		37
CH 401	Biochemistry I	3
CH 401L	Biochemistry I Lab	1
CH 403W	Biochemistry II	3
CH 421W	Thermochemistry	3
CH 421L	Thermochemistry Lab	1
Two of the following		8
CH 335W	Analytical Chemistry (plus lab)
CH 336	Spectroscopic Analysis (plus lab)
CH 351	Inorganic Chemistry (plus lab)

CH 423	Quantum Chemistry (plus lab)
BI 140	General Biology I: Genes, Cells and Evolution	4
BI 141	General Biology II: Organismal Biology	4
One of the following		3-4
BI 347	Microbial Physiology
BI 354	Developmental Biology
BI 363	Genetics
BI 404	Neurophysiology
BI 412	Advanced Cell Biology

Physical Chemistry Track (67-69)

Foundational courses		37
CH 421W	Thermochemistry	3
CH 421L	Thermochemistry Lab	1
CH 423	Quantum Chemistry	3
CH 423L	Quantum Chemistry Lab	1
Two of the following		8
CH 335W	Analytical Chemistry (plus lab)
CH 336	Spectroscopic Analysis (plus lab)
CH 351	Inorganic Chemistry (plus lab)
MA 273	Calculus III	4
PS 251W	General Physics III	4
Approved upper-division math or physics courses		6-8

Requirements for a Chemistry Minor (20)

CH 161	General Chemistry I	3
or CH 162	Honors General Chemistry I
CH 161L	General Chemistry I Lab	1
CH 181	General Chemistry II	3
CH 181L	General Chemistry II Lab	1
CH 271	Organic Chemistry I	3
CH 271L	Organic Chemistry I Lab	1
Approved upper-division chemistry electives		8

Requirements for a Chemistry Minor for Endorsement* (37)

CH 161	General Chemistry I	3
or CH 162	Honors General Chemistry I
CH 161L	General Chemistry I Lab	1
CH 181	General Chemistry II	3
CH 181L	General Chemistry II Lab	1
CH 271	Organic Chemistry I	3

PS 153	General Physics II 	3
PS 153L	General Physics II Lab	1
PS 141	Introduction to Astronomy	4
One of the following		4
GL 131	Understanding Earth
GL 139	Environmental Geology
NS 101	Earth and Sky

* All endorsements subject to change; see School of Education for updated requirements.

 Note: PS 151 has a prerequisite of MA 171 (Calculus I) and PS 153 has a prerequisite of MA 172 (Calculus II).

Courses

CH 101 Introduction to Chemistry	3
An exploration of fundamental concepts in chemistry for nursing majors and other selected allied health fields. Recommended for science majors whose chemistry background is not adequate for initial placement in CH 161. Fall semester.
CH 101L Introduction to Chemistry Lab	1
Basic laboratory practices, titration, radioisotope measurement, simple synthesis. Corequisite: concurrent enrollment in CH 101. Fall semester.
CH 102 Bioorganic Chemistry	3
Fundamentals of organic chemistry and biochemistry for nursing students. Organic structure, isomerism, nomenclature. Properties and reactions of lipids, carbohydrates, proteins. Prerequisite: CH 101 or CH 161. Spring semester.
CH 102L Bioorganic Chemistry Lab	1
Simple quantitative analysis, separation techniques, enzyme studies. Corequisite: concurrent enrollment in CH 102. Spring semester.
CH 111 Green Chemistry	3
The focus will be on environmentally friendly chemistry (green chemistry) applied to the design, development, and implementation of chemical processes and products that are not harmful to humans or the environment. Basic math and algebra skills will be used. For non-majors. Periodic Jan Term offering.
CH 112 Chemistry and Health	3
Applications of chemical principles to concepts of health and disease. Overview of chemistry discoveries and their contributions to understanding current health issues. For non-majors. Periodic Jan Term offering.
CH 122 Chemistry in Modern Living	3

Overview of current chemical issues, for the non-science student. Topics may include air pollution, global warming, ozone layer, acid rain, nuclear energy, solar energy, plastics, nutrition and/or pharmaceutical drugs. Basic math and algebra skills will be used. For non-majors. Periodic Jan Term offering.
CH 161 General Chemistry I	3
Foundational course in chemistry. Treatment of measurement concepts, atomic and molecular theories, radioactivity, chemical reactions, basic calculations. Prerequisite: one year of high school chemistry and demonstrated mathematics proficiency. Students without this prerequisite must take CH 101 before electing CH 161. Fall semester.
CH 161L General Chemistry I Lab	1
Basic laboratory techniques, simple synthesis, titration, qualitative analysis. Prerequisite: CH 161, CH 162, or concurrent enrollment. Fall semester.
CH 162 Honors General Chemistry I	3
An advanced treatment of topics covered in CH 161, with emphasis on environmental applications. Fall semester.
CH 181 General Chemistry II	3
Properties of solutions, introduction to kinetics, acid-base concepts, equilibrium, nuclear radioactivity, electrochemistry, and thermochemistry. Prerequisite: CH 161 or CH 162. Spring semester.
CH 181L General Chemistry II Lab	1
Titration, equilibrium constant determination, reaction kinetics, electrochemical studies. Prerequisites: CH 161L and concurrent enrollment in CH 181. Spring semester.
CH 191 Independent Study	1-4
See information on Directed Studies page.
CH 196 Topics in Chemistry	1-3
Selected lower-division topics in chemistry. Periodic offering.
CH 225 Community Chemistry Outreach	1
Promotion of science education through service-learning opportunities in the community, such as the presentation of fun chemistry experiments/demos as part of departmental outreach efforts to local K-12 students. Prerequisite: CH 101 or CH 161. Periodic Jan Term offering.
CH 271 Organic Chemistry I	3
Detailed treatment of basic organic chemistry concepts. Nomenclature, conformational and structural analysis, basic reaction mechanisms. Prerequisite: CH 181. Fall semester.
CH 271L Organic Chemistry I Lab	1
Preparation, purification and identification of organic compounds. An introduction to organic synthesis. Prerequisites: CH 181L and concurrent enrollment in CH 271. Fall semester.
CH 278 Organic Chemistry II	3
Reactions of organic molecules, mechanisms of reactions, and how such reactions may be employed in the synthesis of new compounds. Prerequisite: CH 271. Spring semester.
CH 278L Organic Chemistry II Lab	1
Synthetic techniques for organic compounds, design of multi-step synthesis. Prerequisites: CH 271L and concurrent enrollment in CH 278. Spring semester.
CH 280 Field Studies	1-4
See information on Directed Studies page.
CH 290 Internship	1-4
See information on Directed Studies page.
CH 291 Independent Study	1-4
See information on Directed Studies page.
CH 315 Survey of Chemical Literature	1
An examination of current scientific literature. Students will gain skills in searching, reading and analyzing chemical literature. The course should be taken in the fall semester of junior year. Prerequisite: CH 278. Fall semester.
CH 335W Analytical Chemistry	3
Sampling, basic statistics, quality control, UV- visible absorption techniques, fluorescence measurements, ion-selective electrodes, atomic absorption. Prerequisites CH 181 and CH 271 (CH 278 suggested). Fall semester, odd years.
CH 335L Analytical Chemistry Lab	1
Statistical analysis of data, separation techniques, use of instrumentation in solving analytical problems. Prerequisite: concurrent enrollment in CH 335W. Fall semester, odd years.
CH 336 Spectroscopic Analysis	3
Advanced treatment of the most common spectroscopic techniques including UV-Vis, IR, NMR, and GC-MS. Prerequisites: CH 181 and CH 278. Spring semester, even years.
CH 336L Spectroscopic Analysis Lab	1
Use of instrumentation in solving analytical problems. Prerequisite: concurrent enrollment in CH 336. Spring semester, even years.
CH 351 Inorganic Chemistry	3

Bonding, crystal-field theory, coordination compounds, organometallics, symmetry, group theory and descriptive inorganic chemistry. Prerequisites: CH 181 and MA 171. Spring semester, even years.	1
CH 351L Inorganic Chemistry Lab	1
Approaches to synthesis of inorganic compounds. Prerequisite: concurrent enrollment in CH 351. Spring semester, even years.
CH 380 Field Studies	1-4
See information on Directed Studies page.
CH 381 Chemistry Seminar	1
Discussion of current chemical topics. Listen to and discuss student presentations, guest lectures; attend local scientific meetings. Fall and spring semesters.
CH 383 Chemistry Seminar	1
Discussion of current chemical topics. Listen to and discuss student presentations, guest lectures; attend local scientific meetings. Fall and spring semesters.
CH 386 Readings	1-4
See information on Directed Studies page.
CH 390 Internship	1-4
See information on Directed Studies page.
CH 391 Independent Study	1-4
See information on Directed Studies page.
CH 395 Teaching Assistantship	1-4
See information on Directed Studies page.
CH 396 Topics in Chemistry	1-3
Selected upper-division topics in chemistry. Periodic offering.
CH 401 Biochemistry I	3
Structure and function of major classes of biomolecules. Overview of enzyme catalysis and kinetics. Prerequisites: CH 271 and CH 278. Fall semester.
CH 401L Biochemistry I Lab	1
Separations, assays and kinetic studies in biochemical systems. Primary focus is on amino acids, peptides, and protein enzymes. Prerequisites: CH 271L and CH 401. Spring semester.
CH 403 Biochemistry II	3
Metabolic pathways and biochemical energy conversions. Overview of gene transcription, translation, and cellular controls. Prerequisite: CH 401. Spring semester, odd years.
CH 403W Biochemistry II	3
Metabolic pathways and biochemical energy conversions. Overview of gene transcription, translation, and cellular controls. Prerequisite: CH 401. Spring semester, odd years.
CH 421W Thermochemistry	3
Kinetics, thermodynamics, liquids and solids, changes of state, phase diagrams. Prerequisites: CH 181, PS 153 and MA 172.
CH 421L Thermochemistry Lab	1
Energetic, kinetic and thermodynamic studies. Primary focus is on phase transitions, mixtures, and gases. Prerequisite: concurrent enrollment in CH 421W. Fall semester, even years.
CH 423 Quantum Chemistry	3
Quantum mechanics and its significance in rotational, vibrational and electronic spectroscopy. Prerequisites: CH 181, PS 153 and MA 172. Spring semester, odd years.
CH 423W Quantum Chemistry	3
A study of quantum mechanics and its significance in rotational, vibrational and electronic spectroscopy. Prerequisites: CH 181, PS 153 and MA 172. Spring semester, odd years.
CH 423L Quantum Chemistry Lab	1
Infrared and electronic spectroscopy, laser spectroscopy and computer modeling of quantum chemistry problems. Prerequisite: concurrent enrollment in CH 423W. Spring semester, odd years.
CH 480 Field Studies	1-4
See information on Directed Studies page.
CH 481 Chemistry Seminar	1
Discussion of current chemical topics. Student presentations, guest lectures; attend local scientific meetings. Oral scientific presentation required. Fall and spring semesters.
CH 483 Chemistry Seminar	1
Discussion of current chemical topics. Student presentations, guest lectures; attend local scientific meetings. Oral scientific presentation required. Fall and spring semesters.
CH 486 Readings	1-4
See information on Directed Studies page.
CH 490 Internship	1-4
CH 491 Independent Study	1-4
See information on Directed Studies page.
CH 493 Literature Preparation for Research	1

This course should be taken during the term preceding the one in which the student plans to carry out a research project. After selecting a research project with a faculty member, the student will perform a literature search and initiate ordering of any necessary chemical supplies and/or equipment needed to perform the research. By permission.

CH 494 Research in Chemistry

Student pursuit of a laboratory problem of fundamental interest, under direct guidance of a faculty member. At the conclusion of the research, students will be required to submit their notebook for evaluation, write a paper and undertake one of the following: make a poster display, present a seminar on the research findings, or to create a computer web site of their research. By permission.

CH 495 Teaching Assistantship

1-4

CH 496 Off-campus Research in Chemistry

3-4

Students may perform a research project at an off-campus facility such as another university, an industry site or a national laboratory. Forty hours of research experience are expected to be completed for each semester-credit granted. Thus, 120 hours of research work must be performed in order to earn three credits. During the semester in which the student returns to campus, he or she will be evaluated based on faculty conversations with the student's field supervisor. The student will also be expected to write a paper, and to undertake one of the following: present a seminar on the research findings, create a poster display, or create a website on the research. This course can be taken only with prior faculty approval.

Student pursuit of a laboratory problem of fundamental interest to chemistry. Students may complete the laboratory research on campus, under direct guidance of a faculty member or off campus at another university, an industry site or a national laboratory. By permission. Prerequisite: CH 315. Jan Term.

Research performed on campus or off-campus will be shared with others. Students are expected to complete a research paper and give a presentation to a conference audience. The course should be taken in the Spring semester after completion of chemistry research. By permission. Prerequisite: CH 496L. Spring semester.

Communication Studies

<http://www.whitworth.edu/communicationstudies>

The Whitworth Communication Studies Department provides students with the theories and skills necessary for effective communication in diverse contexts. Working within the tradition of the liberal arts, the department introduces students to theoretical, historical and philosophical assumptions fundamental to communication scholarship and practice.

The learning outcomes of this major prepare the student to:

- be aware of the relationships between the theory and practice of journalism or speech communication and the student's faith or worldview;
- demonstrate writing skills required to excel in an entry-level communications-related job and/or in graduate school;
- demonstrate public-speaking and presentation skills required to excel in an entry-level communications-related job and/or in graduate school;
- demonstrate interpersonal skills required to excel in job, family and other contexts;
- demonstrate critical-thinking skills required to excel in the intellectual, professional and personal dimensions of life;
- demonstrate skills necessary to make and defend sound ethical decisions;
- demonstrate ability to work cooperatively;
- demonstrate appropriate knowledge of, and proficiency with, communication technology;
- understand the history and theory of the disciplines of journalism and mass communication or speech communication;
- understand legal and philosophical principles underlying freedom of expression;
- apply communication skills in cross-cultural settings;
- experience a communications internship that clarifies the student's career goals and provides practical preparation for the student's career.

The Whitworth Communication Studies Department offers a major and a minor in each of three areas: communication, journalism and mass communication, and speech communication.

Education

<http://www.whitworth.edu/soe>

The School of Education at Whitworth University includes the Department of Teacher Education, the Center for Gifted Education and Professional Development, the Department of Graduate Studies in Education, the Master in Teaching Program, the Office of Educational Certification and Career Services, and the Evening Teacher Certification Program. All certification programs in the School of Education are approved by the Washington State Professional Educator Standards Board and are accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education.

The mission of the Whitworth School of Education is to prepare educators of mind and heart who are scholars, community members, effective practitioners, visionary leaders, and guardians. The School of Education provides opportunities to integrate theory and practice in diverse settings through the study of established and emerging content, as well as through pedagogical and professional knowledge. Whitworth University prepares educators to have a positive impact on the learning and development of those they are called to serve.

The learning outcomes of this major prepare students to be:

Scholars: Educators of mind and heart possess current knowledge of the content areas in which they work, understand the connections among disciplines, use tools of inquiry, and demonstrate an attitude of ongoing learning as existing fields of knowledge continue to evolve and grow. Educators of mind and heart strengthen their existing knowledge base through continuous intellectual and scholarly growth based on current research, the study of their own practice, the analysis of data collected and the application of data to the solution of problems in their respective fields of study.

Community Members: Educators of mind and heart develop and sustain intentionally collaborative and interdependent relationships among teachers, students and their families, counselors, administrators, and other community members. Educators of mind and heart understand their roles as professional colleagues in the school, community and professional organizations. They actively help to shape the culture of classrooms and schools to reflect the values of our democratic society. They model professional behaviors appropriate for those entrusted with educating today's children and young people.

Effective Practitioners: Educators of mind and heart are prepared to analyze situations, set goals, plan and monitor actions, assess outcomes, and reflect on their professional thinking and decision-making. They are committed to culturally responsive and relevant practices that engage students and they are purposeful in making a positive impact on their students' learning. They demonstrate proficiency in the selection and differentiation of materials, strategies, and assessment practices that are appropriate for the diversity of students and for the educational contexts in which they serve. They use formative and summative data as evidence for decision-making. They are competent in using technology and other 21st-century skills in the educational setting to improve their own practice and the learning of their students.

Visionary Leaders: Educators of mind and heart have a vision. They articulate a personal philosophy of education that includes a belief in the worth and ability of each human being and provides a framework guiding personal and professional decision-making and development. The educators' practices are intentionally aligned with this vision for the benefit of members of their learning communities. Educators of mind and heart model transformational and servant leadership in their learning communities and in their contributions to society.

Guardians: Educators of mind and heart act as advocates for children and youth, demonstrating a sincere and equitable commitment to the success of all, paying attention to the role that diversity, including gender, ability, ethnicity, race, culture, religion and socio-economic status, brings to learning and the community. Educators understand and respect the interconnected, global nature of society and encourage sustainable practices designed to preserve our world for future generations. In the Christian tradition of servant leadership, educators serve humankind and seek opportunities to assist, encourage, and support all those under their care in a manner that leads to transformation in the lives of their students.

Whitworth University is in compliance with the U.S. Department of Education Title II reporting requirements. The most recent Whitworth University Title II report is available on our website: www.whitworth.edu/soe/titleII.htm. For more information or to request a copy, contact the office of the dean of the School of Education.

Department of Teacher Education Undergraduate Program

The Whitworth Department of Teacher Education views the role of the teacher as a calling – a commitment to understanding and responding compassionately to the needs of children and youth. The undergraduate teacher education program conceptualizes our graduates as educators of mind and heart who serve as scholars, community members, guardians, effective practitioners and visionary leaders. Courses in the program are structured around this conceptual framework, and students are encouraged to view their future roles as teachers through this model.

Important Notes for All Undergraduate Teacher Education Students

1. Requirements for Washington state teacher certification, endorsements, and highly qualified teacher status (NCLB) are subject to change. Therefore, all teaching areas and programs must be approved by the Whitworth Department of Teacher Education.
2. Admission to the teacher education program and student-teaching program must be approved by the department of teacher education.
3. Full admission to the teacher education program requires a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 at Whitworth. See department for admission guidelines.
4. Application for student teaching must be submitted one semester in advance. Admission to student teaching is required before a student enrolls in student teaching courses.
5. WSP/FBI fingerprint clearance is required of each student prior to student teaching.
6. Admission to the department of teacher education and student teaching do not guarantee state certification.
7. Students cannot enroll in upper-division courses without first being admitted to the teacher-education program.
8. All grades in courses used for teacher certification and endorsements must be "C" or better. Courses that apply toward certification may not be taken P/NC.
9. Students seeking secondary certification must complete a major in an academic area approved by the department of teacher education.
10. Students seeking elementary certification must complete a minimum of 20 semester credits in an approved endorsement area.
11. An application for a Washington State Teaching Certificate is required for program completion.
12. Students are responsible for information in the certification handbook, which is available on the department website.
13. Passage of the WEST-B is required for Benchmark II of the program. Passage of the WEST-E in each area of endorsement is required for Washington state certification.
14. Students must have taken and passed the WEST-E in their major before they may begin student teaching.
15. Successful candidates receive a Washington State Teaching Certificate. Students planning to seek certification in another state must research certification and testing requirements for that state and are encouraged to do so early in their program.
16. An ELL endorsement may be required in certain states, such as California, Florida and Nevada. Students are responsible for knowing state requirements for ELL.

Post-Baccalaureate Certification Programs

Two teacher certification programs are available at Whitworth for people who already possess undergraduate degrees: (1) the Evening Teacher Certification Program and (2) the Master in Teaching Degree Program.

The Whitworth Evening Teacher Certification Program, a collaborative effort between the School of Education and Whitworth Continuing Studies, allows adults who work full time to complete a teacher-certification program in a cohort-based accelerated evening and Saturday format. The program is designed to prepare elementary-certified teachers; however, candidates wishing to obtain secondary certification can complete a program consisting of a combination of traditional day and accelerated evening classes. Within the ETC program, post-baccalaureate students may choose between the master of education and certification-only tracks. Students can enroll in the 500 level of designated courses and apply up to 18 ETC semester credits as electives if accepted to Whitworth's M.Ed. program. For transferability, application must be made within four years of ETC program completion. Cohorts begin in August and February. For more information, please see the ETC program description in the Adult Degree Programs/Continuing Studies section of this catalog or contact an ETC advisor at 509.777.3222.

The Whitworth Master in Teaching Degree Program allows students to pursue a master's degree and teacher certification concurrently. Whitworth was the first university in Washington state to receive approval for an MIT program after state legislation permitted this option. This is an intensive, selective, full-time day-school graduate program that begins in June and continues for 14 months, culminating in August of the following year. Both elementary and secondary certification options are available in the MIT program. Application to the program must be made four to six months prior to the starting date. (See graduate section of this catalog.) For more information about the MIT program, contact the assistant director at 509.777.3769.

Evening Teacher Certification: Degree Completion in Elementary Education

Courses are limited to students enrolled in the Whitworth Evening Teacher Certification Program, a collaborative effort between the School of Education and Whitworth Continuing Studies. Students can earn a bachelor of arts degree in elementary education along with Washington state residency teacher certification. Those currently holding a college degree can complete certification requirements only, or certification in conjunction with a master of education degree if accepted to the Whitworth Graduate Studies in Education Program. For complete program and course descriptions, see the Adult Degree Programs/Continuing Studies section of this catalog.

The Center for Gifted Education and Professional Development

Kathryn Picanco (director)

The Whitworth Center for Gifted Education and Professional Development provides credit classes, workshops and consulting services to teachers and parents of the gifted. In-service training and program planning are also made available to school districts. During the summer, the center offers graduate-level short courses in a variety of grade levels and subject areas appropriate for teachers of the gifted or of general school curriculum. For additional information, please contact the center.

A master of arts in teaching degree with a gifted and talented emphasis, designed to educate teachers of all grade levels in meeting the needs of the exceptionally able learner in the regular classroom and/or other settings, is also available. See listing under Whitworth Department of Graduate Studies in Education for information regarding the gifted emphasis in the graduate-degree plan.

Majors : Track I (Literature) | Track II (Writing) | Track III (English/Language Arts)

Minors : English Minor | English/Language Arts Minor | Medieval and Early Modern Studies Minor

The English program includes three emphases: literature, writing, and preparation for secondary teaching. All majors in English complete a core of courses to establish a strong foundation in literature and literary concepts, terms and critical theories. Careful reading, judicious research and clear and imaginative writing comprise the program's goals for a Whitworth English major. Additionally, the English program seeks to instill in our graduates a love of reading and writing. Through our courses, research and shared community events, we hope to encourage our students in lives of spiritual commitment and resolution to act as stewards of God's creation while promoting civil and personal justice at home and in the community.

The learning outcomes of this major prepare the student as follows:

1. At the completion of their lower-division coursework, all English majors (Tracks I, II and III) should have acquired a command of foundational literary terminology; a basis for understanding the themes and histories of British, American and world literatures; the ability to craft critical readings of several genres of literary texts; experiences in writing in different genres.
2. By graduation, students completing Tracks I and II (literature and writing) will also exhibit more advanced literary skills, including improved aesthetic discernment; oral interpretation and presentation skills; enlarged literary and personal vocabulary; critical reading, thinking, and writing skills; facility with several critical approaches to literary analysis; and a command of research methods, bibliographic resources and documentation.
3. At the completion of their upper-division work for Tracks I and II, students should demonstrate in-depth knowledge of several literary eras as well as the major writers and works of those eras; an ability to write a variety of literary analyses and genres; and competence in working with other students' editing and revising their own writing.
4. At the completion of their upper-division work, Track III (teaching) students should also have established a broad knowledge of subjects expected of the secondary teacher of English and language arts, and should be able to fulfill the state-mandated requirements for endorsement in language arts or another related field, as set in the current catalog.

Research Concepts in Chemistry
CH 105 Biochemical Principles	1-3
The course provides a comprehensive introduction to the study of biochemistry and its applications in the fields of medicine, biology, and chemistry.
CH 115 Physical Chemistry	1-4
This course covers the principles of thermodynamics, kinetics, and equilibrium, with a focus on the application of these concepts to chemical systems.
CH 120 Organic Chemistry	1-3
Development of acids and bases, reaction mechanisms, and the synthesis of organic compounds.
CH 130 Analytical Chemistry	1-4
The course is designed for students who wish to pursue a career in analytical chemistry, covering topics such as instrumental analysis and quality control.
CH 140 Environmental Chemistry	1-3
Environmental chemistry is the study of the chemical and physical processes that occur in the environment, including the fate and transport of pollutants.
CH 150 Materials Chemistry	1-4
A course in materials chemistry focuses on the properties and behavior of various materials, including metals, polymers, and ceramics.
CH 160 Inorganic Chemistry	1-3
The course covers the properties and reactions of inorganic compounds, including the study of coordination chemistry and the periodic table.
CH 170 Physical Chemistry	1-4
Physical chemistry is the study of the physical properties and behavior of chemical systems, including the application of statistical mechanics and quantum mechanics.
CH 180 Biochemistry	1-3
Biochemistry is the study of the chemical and physical processes that occur in living organisms, including the study of metabolism and molecular biology.
CH 190 Environmental Chemistry	1-4
Environmental chemistry is the study of the chemical and physical processes that occur in the environment, including the fate and transport of pollutants.
CH 200 Materials Chemistry	1-3
Materials chemistry is the study of the properties and behavior of various materials, including metals, polymers, and ceramics.
CH 210 Inorganic Chemistry	1-4
Inorganic chemistry is the study of the properties and reactions of inorganic compounds, including the study of coordination chemistry and the periodic table.
CH 220 Physical Chemistry	1-3
Physical chemistry is the study of the physical properties and behavior of chemical systems, including the application of statistical mechanics and quantum mechanics.
CH 230 Biochemistry	1-4
Biochemistry is the study of the chemical and physical processes that occur in living organisms, including the study of metabolism and molecular biology.
CH 240 Environmental Chemistry	1-3
Environmental chemistry is the study of the chemical and physical processes that occur in the environment, including the fate and transport of pollutants.
CH 250 Materials Chemistry	1-4
Materials chemistry is the study of the properties and behavior of various materials, including metals, polymers, and ceramics.
CH 260 Inorganic Chemistry	1-3
Inorganic chemistry is the study of the properties and reactions of inorganic compounds, including the study of coordination chemistry and the periodic table.
CH 270 Physical Chemistry	1-4
Physical chemistry is the study of the physical properties and behavior of chemical systems, including the application of statistical mechanics and quantum mechanics.
CH 280 Biochemistry	1-3
Biochemistry is the study of the chemical and physical processes that occur in living organisms, including the study of metabolism and molecular biology.
CH 290 Environmental Chemistry	1-4
Environmental chemistry is the study of the chemical and physical processes that occur in the environment, including the fate and transport of pollutants.
CH 300 Materials Chemistry	1-3
Materials chemistry is the study of the properties and behavior of various materials, including metals, polymers, and ceramics.
CH 310 Inorganic Chemistry	1-4
Inorganic chemistry is the study of the properties and reactions of inorganic compounds, including the study of coordination chemistry and the periodic table.
CH 320 Physical Chemistry	1-3
Physical chemistry is the study of the physical properties and behavior of chemical systems, including the application of statistical mechanics and quantum mechanics.
CH 330 Biochemistry	1-4
Biochemistry is the study of the chemical and physical processes that occur in living organisms, including the study of metabolism and molecular biology.
CH 340 Environmental Chemistry	1-3
Environmental chemistry is the study of the chemical and physical processes that occur in the environment, including the fate and transport of pollutants.
CH 350 Materials Chemistry	1-4
Materials chemistry is the study of the properties and behavior of various materials, including metals, polymers, and ceramics.
CH 360 Inorganic Chemistry	1-3
Inorganic chemistry is the study of the properties and reactions of inorganic compounds, including the study of coordination chemistry and the periodic table.
CH 370 Physical Chemistry	1-4
Physical chemistry is the study of the physical properties and behavior of chemical systems, including the application of statistical mechanics and quantum mechanics.
CH 380 Biochemistry	1-3
Biochemistry is the study of the chemical and physical processes that occur in living organisms, including the study of metabolism and molecular biology.
CH 390 Environmental Chemistry	1-4
Environmental chemistry is the study of the chemical and physical processes that occur in the environment, including the fate and transport of pollutants.
CH 400 Materials Chemistry	1-3
Materials chemistry is the study of the properties and behavior of various materials, including metals, polymers, and ceramics.
CH 410 Inorganic Chemistry	1-4
Inorganic chemistry is the study of the properties and reactions of inorganic compounds, including the study of coordination chemistry and the periodic table.
CH 420 Physical Chemistry	1-3
Physical chemistry is the study of the physical properties and behavior of chemical systems, including the application of statistical mechanics and quantum mechanics.
CH 430 Biochemistry	1-4
Biochemistry is the study of the chemical and physical processes that occur in living organisms, including the study of metabolism and molecular biology.
CH 440 Environmental Chemistry	1-3
Environmental chemistry is the study of the chemical and physical processes that occur in the environment, including the fate and transport of pollutants.
CH 450 Materials Chemistry	1-4
Materials chemistry is the study of the properties and behavior of various materials, including metals, polymers, and ceramics.

CH 490 Environmental Chemistry	1-4
Environmental chemistry is the study of the chemical and physical processes that occur in the environment, including the fate and transport of pollutants.
CH 500 Materials Chemistry	1-3
Materials chemistry is the study of the properties and behavior of various materials, including metals, polymers, and ceramics.

General Education/Core

<http://www.whitworth.edu/core>

Core/Worldview Studies

Core courses are interdisciplinary, thematic courses designed to acquaint Whitworth students with the definitions and implications of Christian and non-Christian worldviews. All full-time matriculated day students are required to take CO 150, CO 250, and CO 350 as part of the general graduation requirements.

Core Courses

The initial Worldview course focuses on theology and anthropology, the nature of God and humanity. The course emphasizes key theological concerns and how those concerns work themselves out in daily life. Issues to be explored include Jewish and Christian theological assumptions about God, humans, and their implications for ethics, work, leisure, creativity, diversity, scientific inquiry, resource allocation, global citizenship, and technological innovation.

The guiding foci for this second course are epistemology/hermeneutics and metaphysics, the nature of knowledge and reality and the interpretation of such knowledge. Examination of epistemological/hermeneutical or metaphysical assumptions and their practical outworking in human affairs whether evident in the humanities, the arts, or the sciences are explored.

CO 300 Reason/Knowing: Nature and Human Nature

This worldview course for Continuing Studies students focuses on epistemology, metaphysics and human nature questions within the complex traditions of Christian and Rationalist worldviews from the Hebrews and Greeks in ancient times through the 19th and 20th century challenges to Rationalist assumptions.

Ethics and politics becomes windows through which one explores the ways that biblical virtues such as justice, compassion, mercy, equity, humility, and integrity offer viable alternatives to the cultural norms evident in contemporary Western culture. A wide variety of specific issues with appropriate historical and scientific contextualizations are included in the discussion, such as racism, sexism, poverty, media and the arts, and challenges presented by technology.

General Education Courses

GE 105 Intellectual Passport	0.5
The course provides opportunity for faculty and visiting lecturers and artists to apply their disciplines and concepts to issues in our society and the world. Credit is based on attendance at 13 events.
GE 125 First Year Seminar	1
Presentations and discussions are designed to inform freshmen about the university's traditions and procedures and to help them become a part of the Whitworth community. Required of all first-term freshmen.
GE 130 College Study-Skills Development	3
Development of study and thinking patterns that will allow the student to become independent scholars and critical thinkers. Designed for non-traditional age students returning to college. Periodic offering.
GE 131 Academic Success Strategies	0
This course is designed for students who have 1) been placed academic probation in a previous term or 2) have received multiple midterm grades during a term. It provides individualized assistance to a student to ensure academic success at Whitworth. No credit.
GE 148 Planning: Major/Career	1-3
Explores and defines personal interests, values, goals and personality in relation to choosing a major. Provides specific information on career and job opportunities to help students make career choices and other major decisions. Periodic offering.
GE 151 Seminar for Health Professions	1
A seminar to introduce students to the pre-health fields. Visiting speakers will represent medical, dental and veterinary fields. Course will also cover specifics of courses, majors, and other issues related to pre-health fields. Spring semester.
GE 191 Independent Study	1-4
GE 196 Topics: General Studies	1

Health Sciences

<http://www.whitworth.edu/healthscience>

The Whitworth Health Sciences Department offers majors in health science (both a B.S. and a B.A.), athletic training, and nursing.

The mission of the Health Sciences Department at Whitworth University is to equip its graduates to serve humanity through study of the form and function of the human body and the body's connection to health and wellness. Through a curriculum that integrates theory and practice, graduates will be able to critically and creatively appreciate this relationship and apply it to various health-related fields.

The learning outcomes of this major prepare graduates to:

- Identify their gifts and interests and learn how these can be used to serve humanity and the greater good of the communities in which we live.
- Begin to understand and appreciate the human body's relationship to health and wellness through science, theory and application.
- Demonstrate effective communication skills necessary to teach others effectively and accurately about human health and wellness in a variety of organizational and institutional settings.
- Demonstrate critical-thinking skills and the ability to access and evaluate relevant health information and resources.
- Demonstrate the interpersonal skills required to work cooperatively with individuals and groups on issues related to the human condition.
- Begin to understand cultural, ethical and professional considerations related to health and wellness.
- Develop a worldview that integrates students' spiritual and ethical values with their vocational calling.
- Experience a health-related internship that clarifies career goals and provides practical preparation for students' careers.

Major Electives

- Students must take a minimum of nine credits from the options listed below, of which only three credits may be 100-level
- Classes identified in the catalog as recommended for "Preparation for Health Professions" may also qualify as major electives
- Courses should be selected in consultation with advisor and be based on post-graduate goals

AT 270	Emergency Response	2
AT 336	Medical Issues in Athletic Training	3
BI 107	Infectious Diseases	3
BI 108	Biology of Sex & Gender	3
CH 112	Chemistry and Health	3
HS 433	Principles of Conditioning and Nutrition	3
KIN 465	Motor Development, Control and Learning	2
MA 256	Elementary Probability and Statistics	3
SO 120	Introduction to Sociology	3
SO 271	Introduction to Social Welfare	3
SO 275	Population, Environment and Society	3
SO 368	The Helping Process in Social Services	3
PY 101	Introductory Psychology	3

Athletic Training Education

The Whitworth Athletic Training Education Program is designed to prepare students for certification by the Board of Certification (BOC). The program merges a rigorous academic discipline with a variety of practical clinical experiences and is closely aligned with the School of Education in order to prepare teacher/athletic trainers to address the unique healthcare needs of today's secondary school athletes. The program utilizes a holistic approach in developing multi-dimensional healthcare professionals and stresses servanthood within the context of a Christian liberal arts environment.

The learning outcomes of this major prepare students to do the following:

1. Be eligible for the BOC exam which, upon successful completion, will allow them to practice as athletic trainers.
2. Demonstrate mastery of the clinical proficiencies identified for entry-level practice for athletic trainers.
3. Enter traditional, as well as nontraditional, work environments associated with the profession of athletic training.
4. Practice with professionalism and integrity, reflecting the National Athletics Trainers Association (NATA) Code of Professional Ethics and the Board of Certification's Standards of Practice.
5. Model servanthood as they deliver patient care.
6. Be prepared for admission into graduate programs in athletic training as well as in related healthcare professions.
7. Understand and appreciate the cultural differences associated with patient care.
8. Exhibit compassion and empathy in their patient care.
9. Demonstrate effective interpersonal communication skills.
10. Use evidence-based practice for the delivery of patient care.

Requirements for Athletic Training Major, B.S. (56)

This is a limited-enrollment major. Applicants for admission to the athletic training major are evaluated on the following criteria:

1. Cumulative GPA of 2.75 or higher
2. Completion of AT-270 and AT-271 with a "B" or better in each
3. Formal application
4. Submission of two letters of recommendation
5. Ability to work effectively with others
6. Primary focus in athletic training
7. Interview (if necessary)

Technical standards for admission into the Whitworth Athletic Training Education Program can be obtained on our website at www.whitworth.edu/athletictraining and in our Athletic Training Student Handbook.

Prerequisites prior to admission to the program:

AT 270	Emergency Response	2
AT 271	Introduction to Athletic Training	2

Courses to be completed after admission to athletic training major:

HS 220	Anatomy and Physiology I	4
HS 221	Anatomy and Physiology II	4
HS 320	Structural and Mechanical Kinesiology	4
AT 331W	Advanced Athletic Training	3
AT 332	Pathophysiology and Modalities in Athletic Training	2
AT 333	Organization and Administration of Athletic Training	3
AT 334	Physical Examination of the Lower Extremities in Athletic Training	3
AT 335	Physical Examination of the Upper Extremities in Athletic Training	3
AT 336	Medical Issues in Athletic Training	3
AT 432	Therapeutic Exercise	2
HS 326	Exercise Physiology	3
HS 362	Personal Health	3
HS 433	Principles of Conditioning and Nutrition	3

Twelve credits of clinical experience: 12

AT 283 Clinical Experience I

AT 284 Clinical Experience II

AT 383 Clinical Experience III

AT 384 Clinical Experience IV

AT 483 Clinical Experience V

AT 484 Clinical Experience VI

Recommended:

AT 338 Sports Medicine Study Program: Preparation

AT 339 Seminar in Sports Medicine: Japan

CH 101 Introduction to Chemistry

HS 361 Community Health

KIN 400 Tests and Measurements

KIN 465 Motor Development, Control and Learning

PY 101 Introductory Psychology

PS 121 Concepts of Physics

A grade of "C" or higher in all major required courses is required for athletic training majors

Athletic Training Courses

AT 270 Emergency Response	2
First-aid and safety procedures. Emergency response and CPR certificates from the Red Cross awarded to those who qualify. Lab required.
AT 271 Introduction to Athletic Training	2
Survey of the profession of athletic training. Injury prevention, assessment, treatment, taping and rehabilitation of common athletic injuries will be presented. Lab required.
AT 271L Lab: Introduction to Athletic Training	0
AT 283 Clinical Experience I	2
Clinical experience in athletic training
AT 284 Clinical Experience II	2
Clinical experience in athletic training
AT 291 Independent Study	1-4
AT 331W Advanced Athletic Training	3
A writing intensive course that introduces students to research and evidence based practice. Students will also develop understanding of psychosocial aspects of healthcare in physically active population. Prerequisites include: ATEP admission, HS 221, AT 332, and AT 336. Fall semester.
AT 332 Pathophysiology and Modalities in Athletic Training	2
Analysis of the physiological response to injury and the effects of therapeutic modalities and rehabilitation on damaged tissues. Prerequisites: Kin 270, 271 and HS 220. Lab required.
AT 332L Lab: Pathophysiology & Modalities	0
AT 333 Organization and Administration of Athletic Training	3
This course is designed to expose students to the organization and administration concepts of athletic training. Content includes management, leadership, legalities, historical perspectives, motivation and technology.
AT 334 Physical Examination of the Lower Extremities in Athletic Training	3
Intense in-depth study of the lower extremities including physical examinations, injury recognition, treatment, taping, bracing, and rehabilitation. Lab required.
AT 334L Lab: Lower Extremities in Athletic Training	0
AT 335 Physical Examination of the Upper Extremities in Athletic Training	3
Intense in-depth study of the trunk, head, face and upper extremities, including physical examinations, injury recognition, emergency treatment, taping, bracing and rehabilitation. Lab required.
AT 335L Lab: Upper Extremities in Athletic Training	0
AT 336 Medical Issues in Athletic Training	3
This course addresses current medical issues that pertain to athletic training. Content includes sports pharmacology, physiological considerations, common illnesses and special concerns. Lab required.
AT 338 Sports Medicine Study Program: Preparation	1
This preparatory course is designed to equip students for participation in the AT 339 Seminar in Sports Medicine: Japan program. Content includes basic language instruction, cultural nuances, healthcare differences and Japanese religions.
AT 339 Seminar in Sports Medicine: Japan	1-3
Comparative analysis of Eastern and Western philosophies of athletic health care. Conducted at various locations in Japan. May Term, odd years.
AT 383 Clinical Experience III	2
Clinical experience in athletic training.
AT 384 Clinical Experience IV	2
Clinical experience in athletic training.
AT 391 Independent Study	1-4
AT 395 Teaching Assistant	1-3
AT 432 Therapeutic Exercise	2
Instruction on the effective application of therapeutic exercise in order to achieve symptom-free movement and function. Content includes basic principles of exercise, therapeutic effects of exercise, functional evaluation of performance, goniometric measurements and manual muscle testing. Lab required. Fall semester.
AT 483 Clinical Experience V	2
Clinical experience in athletic training.
AT 484 Clinical Experience VI	2
Clinical experience in athletic training.
AT 491 Independent Study	1-4

Health Science Courses

HS 110 Medical and Anatomy Terminology	2
Designed to help students understand health care related language, and prepare for HS 220 & HS 221. Medical terms, abbreviations, prefixes, suffixes, and root words will be examined as they related to body systems, medical disorders, and health care. Summer.
HS 179 Foundations of Health Sciences	3
Foundations of the Health Sciences introduce students to the exploration of careers in the Health Sciences. Through self-evaluation, and critical analysis, students will be introduced to a variety of Health Science related professions. This introductory course is designed for 1st and 2nd year students and is offered each Jan Term.
HS 220 Anatomy and Physiology I	4
Gross anatomy and physiological applications of the integumentary, skeletal, muscular, respiratory, and nervous systems of the human body. Emphasis given to the relationship of major organs to health and disease. Lab component provides practical application in the location and isolation of anatomical parts. Designed for students in nursing, athletic training, and kinesiology as well as other allied health programs. Lab required. Lab fee. Prerequisite: sophomore standing. Fall semester.
HS 220L Lab: Anatomy and Physiology I	0
HS 221 Anatomy and Physiology II	4
Gross anatomy and physiological applications of the cardiovascular, lymphatic, endocrine, digestive, urinary, and reproductive systems of the human body. Emphasis given to the relationship of major organs to health and disease. Lab component provides practical application in the location and isolation of anatomical parts and physiological assessments. Designed for students in nursing, athletic training, and kinesiology as well as other allied health programs. Lab required. Lab fee. Prerequisite: HS 220. Spring semester.
HS 221L Lab: Anatomy and Physiology II	0
HS 290 Internship	1-4
HS 315 Nutrition	3
Consideration of nutrients and their functions in the body. Discussion of nutrition and health, clinical applications of nutrition, facts and fallacies about diet. Prerequisite: CH 101 or 161. Fall semester, Jan Term.
HS 320 Structural and Mechanical Kinesiology	4
A study of human motion, emphasizing analysis of joint and muscular action and the application of biomechanical principles for sport skills common to physical education and athletics. Lab required. Prerequisite: HS 220 and HS 221. Spring semester.
HS 326 Exercise Physiology	3
The study of theory and practical application of exercise as it applies to the human body. Lab required. Prerequisite: HS 220 and HS 221. Fall semester.
HS 326L Exercise Physiology Lab	0
HS 361 Community Health	3
Current issues in health, including the health care system and wellness and illness. Spring semester.
HS 362 Personal Health	3
Current issues related to substance use and abuse, sexuality and life cycles. Fall semester.
HS 364 Evaluating HS Literature	1
This course introduces basic research methods and critical appraisal of literature within the Health Science fields. Students will evaluate the credibility, identify strengths and weaknesses, and learn to formulate novel research questions based upon relevant literature. Prerequisite: HS 279. Recommended class standing: Sophomore or above.
HS 365W Evidence Based Health Science	3
An exploration of research methods, critical appraisal, and the use of evidence to guide practice in a variety of health-related fields. Students will learn to formulate a clear clinical question based on personal area of interest, conduct a relevant literature review, and be able to synthesize the evidence to determine best practice. Prerequisite: HS 326. Spring semester.
HS 390 Internship	1-4
HS 391 Independent Study	1-4
HS 395 Teaching Assistantship	1-4
HS 396 Topics in Health Science	1-4
Selected upper-division topics in health science.
HS 410 Chronic Disease Epidemiology	3
Survey of major chronic diseases, risk factors, epidemiology, and various public health approaches (e.g. nutrition, physical activity, behavioral interventions and alternative therapies). Conditions include: cancer, cardiovascular disease, diabetes, kidney disease, lung diseases, neurologic disorders, musculoskeletal diseases, and metabolic syndrome.
HS 433 Principles of Conditioning and Nutrition	3
Development of proficiency in the theory, design, and implementation of conditioning programs. Instruction will include nutritional consideration and ergogenic aids for physical conditioning. Prerequisite: HS 320 and HS 326. Fall and spring semesters.

HS 490 Internship	1-4
HS 491 Independent Study	1-4
HS 491W Independent Study	1-4
HS 495 Teaching Assistantship	1-4
HS 498 Senior Seminar	3

Exploration of issues and mechanisms of health professional accountability, a humanistic basis of healthcare, cultural competence, social justice issues in healthcare, basic health policy principles, principles that guide ethical decision-making, patient rights, and healthcare professional duties. Senior standing. Fall semester.

Health Professions

Preparation for Health Professions

www.whitworth.edu/healthprofessions

Whitworth has a long history of preparing students for careers and graduate programs in the health professions such as athletic training, chiropractic, dental, medical, nursing, pharmacy, physical therapy and veterinary medicine. Recent graduates have been accepted into professional schools at:

- Albert Einstein College of Medicine
- A.T. Still University
- Bastyr University
- Central Washington University
- Creighton University
- Des Moines University
- Eastern Washington University
- Hastings College
- Idaho State University
- Indiana University
- Jefferson University
- Loma Linda University
- Mayo School of Health Sciences
- Mayo Graduate School of Medicine
- Michigan State University
- Midwestern University
- Oregon Health and Science University
- Palmer College of Chiropractic
- Rosalind Franklin University
- Saint Louis University
- San Jose State University
- Stanford University
- Touro University
- University of Arizona
- University of Edinburgh, Scotland
- University of Hawaii
- University of Indiana
- University of Indianapolis
- University of Nevada, Las Vegas
- University of Oregon
- University of Pennsylvania
- University of Pittsburgh
- University of Southern California
- University of Utah
- University of Virginia
- University of Washington
- Utah State University
- Washington State University
- Western University of Health Sciences

Choosing to pursue a career or graduate program in the health and wellness arena connects itself beautifully to the mission of Whitworth University: equipping graduates to honor God, follow Christ and serve humanity. Whitworth's rigorous liberal arts education gives students a broad knowledge base and a set of analytical, critical-thinking, and communication skills that enables them to thrive in graduate school and in their chosen careers. During their time at Whitworth, students are encouraged to explore new areas of interest and to choose a major that focuses on an area that is most exciting to them. Most health-related graduate programs accept students from all majors and disciplines, as long as they have taken the required prerequisite courses. Therefore, all students preparing for health professions or careers are encouraged to work closely with an advisor in their chosen major and the health professions advisor (listed below their program's title) to develop a curriculum that prepares them to take the Medical College Admission Test (MCAT), the Dental Admission Test (DAT), the Graduate Record Examination (GRE), and/or to apply to the graduate school of their choice.

Specific prerequisites for programs may differ; it is the student's responsibility to check the prerequisites for the institution to which s/he wishes to apply. The following are some examples of health professions and the suggested courses for entrance into these graduate programs.

Pre-Chiropractic

Advisor: Mike Ediger

Chiropractic schools vary widely in their prerequisites. Check with your advisor and the DC school in which you are interested for more specific courses required. Also, meet with your advisor regularly to develop an academic plan that meets your interests and goals.

Pre-Dentistry

Advisor: Please contact the pre-med coordinator.

The following courses are usually required for pre-dentistry students:

BI 140	General Biology I: Genes, Cells and Evolution	4
BI 141	General Biology II: Organismal Biology	4
CH 161	General Chemistry I	3
CH 161L	General Chemistry I Lab	1
CH 181	General Chemistry II	3
CH 181L	General Chemistry II Lab	1
CH 271	Organic Chemistry I	3
CH 271L	Organic Chemistry I Lab	1
CH 278	Organic Chemistry II	3
CH 278L	Organic Chemistry II Lab	1
PS 151	General Physics I	3
PS 153	General Physics II	3
One year of college English		3
Other courses strongly suggested for some schools (such as the University of Washington Dental School):
BI 204	Medical Microbiology	4
BI 354	Developmental Biology	4
CH 401	Biochemistry I	3

Pre-Medicine

Advisors: Please contact the pre-med coordinator.

The following courses are usually required for pre-medicine students:

BI 140	General Biology I: Genes, Cells and Evolution	4
BI 141	General Biology II: Organismal Biology	4
CH 161	General Chemistry I	3
CH 161L	General Chemistry I Lab	1
CH 181	General Chemistry II	3
CH 181L	General Chemistry II Lab	1
CH 271	Organic Chemistry I	3
CH 271L	Organic Chemistry I Lab	1
CH 278	Organic Chemistry II	3
CH 278L	Organic Chemistry II Lab	1
CH 401	Biochemistry I	3
CH 401L	Biochemistry I Lab	1
MA 171	Calculus I	4
MA 172	Calculus II	4
PS 151	General Physics I	3
PS 153	General Physics II	3

One year of college English		3
Other courses strongly suggested:
BI 323	Animal Physiology	4
BI 363	Genetics	4
CH 403	Biochemistry II	3

Pre-Med Tech

Advisor: Mike Ediger

Please see your advisor for specific course recommendations.

Note: Pharmacy schools vary widely in their prerequisites. Check with your advisor and the pharmacy school in which you are interested for more specific courses required.

Pre-Pharmacy

Advisors: Please contact the pre-med coordinator.

The following set of courses is recommended for all pre-pharmacy students:

BI 140	General Biology I: Genes, Cells and Evolution	4
BI 141	General Biology II: Organismal Biology	4
CH 161	General Chemistry I	3
CH 161L	General Chemistry I Lab	1
CH 181	General Chemistry II	3
CH 181L	General Chemistry II Lab	1
CH 271	Organic Chemistry I	3
CH 271L	Organic Chemistry I Lab	1
CH 278	Organic Chemistry II	3
CH 278L	Organic Chemistry II Lab	1
MA 171	Calculus I	4
MA 256	Elementary Probability and Statistics	3
One year of college English		3
One of the following:
BI 204	Medical Microbiology
BI 347	Microbial Physiology

Pre-Physical Therapy

Advisor: Mike Ediger

The prerequisite courses of professional physical therapy programs vary by institution. The list of courses below are based on the requirements for the more rigorous programs that Whitworth students consider. The student is responsible to check the prerequisites of potential programs at www.apta.org before planning the course of study at Whitworth in consultation with the pre-PT advisor.

CH 161	General Chemistry I	3
CH 161L	General Chemistry I Lab	1
CH 181	General Chemistry II	3
CH 181L	General Chemistry II Lab	1
CH 271	Organic Chemistry I	3
CH 271L	Organic Chemistry I Lab	1
CH 278	Organic Chemistry II	3
CH 278L	Organic Chemistry II Lab	1
CH 401	Biochemistry I	3
or BI 230	Introductory Biochemistry
BI 140	General Biology I: Genes, Cells and Evolution	4
BI 141	General Biology II: Organismal Biology	4
BI 204	Medical Microbiology	4
or BI 347	Microbial Physiology
HS 220	Anatomy and Physiology I	4
HS 221	Anatomy and Physiology II	4
Upper-division courses in biology, such as Genetics, Animal Physiology, or Developmental Biology
MA 171	Calculus I	4

MA 256	Elementary Probability and Statistics	3
PS 151	General Physics I	3
PS 153	General Physics II	3
PY 101	Introductory Psychology	3
SO 120	Introduction to Sociology	3
One year of college-level writing		3

Pre-Physician Assistant

Advisor: Mike Ediger

Schools for physician assistants vary widely in their prerequisites. Check with your advisor and the PA school in which you are interested for more specific course requirements. Also, meet with your advisor regularly to develop an academic plan that meets your interests and goals.

Pre-Veterinary

Advisors: Mike Sardinia

The following courses are usually required for pre-veterinary students:

BI 140	General Biology I: Genes, Cells and Evolution	4
BI 141	General Biology II: Organismal Biology	4
BI 363	Genetics	4
CH 161	General Chemistry I	3
CH 161L	General Chemistry I Lab	1

History

<http://www.whitworth.edu/history>

The study of history is recognized as one of the critical experiences toward becoming a well-rounded person, an engaged citizen, and a competent professional in a number of fields. The study of the past offers a profound opportunity to understand more fully the individuals, forces and events that have shaped the world.

The mission of the Whitworth Department of History is to provide an education of the mind and heart for undergraduate students through rigorous and sustained study in the discipline of history. The department seeks to exemplify the highest professional standards of historical study by providing excellent teaching, promoting scholarly research, and producing graduates competent to engage positively the communities in which they live and work. The department desires to graduate students who are not only conversant with the knowledge and skills associated with advanced study in the liberal arts, but who also seek justice and compassion born of a perspective based on a Christian foundation and sharpened by their study of history.

The learning outcomes of this major prepare the student to do the following:

- Attain pre-professional skills in historical content, interpretation, geographical and statistical literacy, writing, reading and oral communication.
- Develop a sense of historical-mindedness via cross-cultural and international opportunities, field experiences, and academic coursework.
- Explore vocational opportunities in the field of history by connecting academic preparation to the world of work.
- Achieve competence in addressing matters of faith, virtue and ethics within the discipline of history compassionately and consistently, emphasizing the importance of worldview thinking in the process.

A history degree prepares successful candidates for jobs and for graduate school in a broad range of disciplines, including some for which there are tests such as the Praxis (education certification), the LSAT (law school admission), and the GRE (required by most graduate schools in most fields). Majors are urged to speak with their advisors about online or other preparation for such tests.

Interdisciplinary Studies

On this page you will find information about the following minors:

- Asian Studies Minor
- U.S. Cultural Studies Minor
- Women and Gender Studies Minor

Asian Studies Minor

The Asian studies minor was created out of recognition that the vast region labeled "Asia" has greatly influenced, and continues to influence, human experience throughout the world. Whether Asia is viewed as a source of world religions, half the earth's population, much of the economic growth of the last few decades, or a microcosm of the diversity of political and economic policies, it is clear that gaining a better understanding of Asia requires an interdisciplinary approach. The Asian studies minor builds upon the strengths of courses in the social sciences and humanities that focus on Asia or particular Asian countries. The confluence of these courses allows students to develop an integrated understanding of the region, read difficult texts, understand and formulate abstract ideas and make informed judgments about a world of many cultures. This focus on the "other" is fundamental to understanding the student's own culture and the values that shape his or her worldview. From this understanding, it is hoped that students can begin to construct bridges across cultures.

The learning outcomes of the Asian studies minor prepare the student to do the following:

- Use an interdisciplinary framework to understand a foreign culture.
- Understand and reflect on the cultures of Asia in relation to the student's own culture.
- Read and speak Japanese or Chinese at a level sufficient to begin study in either country.
- Augment a student's major coursework with a concentration in Asia.

- Understand the role that Asia plays in shaping the contemporary world, as well as how outside forces have shaped Asia.

Requirements for an Asian Studies Minor (18)

U.S. Cultural Studies Minor

Whitworth's U.S. Cultural Studies Program acknowledges that many factors, such as race, ethnicity, national origin, socio-economics, gender, sexual orientation and type of disability influence, our lives and experiences in the United States. In one way or another, others' perceptions of us, or even our self-perceptions, have been formed by these personal characteristics and by the groups that are identified by these characteristics. Our goal is to study these groups so that we can better understand these groups and our own lives in the contemporary U.S.

Through this program of study, our goals are:

1. To study the foundations and interactions of diverse groups living in the U.S.
2. To develop intercultural competencies for graduate or professional schools and eventual vocations.

Women's & Gender Studies Program

At Whitworth, we affirm that all people are created in God's image and share a common humanity. At the same time, the Whitworth Women's and Gender Studies Program acknowledges that many factors, such as gender, race, class, sexual orientation and religious upbringing, influence our learning and our lives. These personal characteristics, including gender, may influence how women and men pursue scholarship, how women and men are represented in scholarship, in history and in society, and, ultimately, how women and men may come to honor God, follow Christ, and serve humanity.

The learning outcomes of this major prepare the student to do the following:

- Use an interdisciplinary framework to engage with the pluralistic culture.
- Identify and investigate the intersections of gender, race, class and religion with gender experiences.
- Seek an increased understanding of gender issues from various Christian perspectives.
- Explore, develop, articulate and critique feminist views.

International Education Center

The Whitworth International Education Center combines off-campus programs, international student services and staff to connect with the global community. The team is housed in Hendrick and Westminster Halls.

The Whitworth International Education Center honors God's human creation by encouraging students, faculty and staff to connect with the global community. We serve Whitworth in the world with respect, empathy and a sense of humor.

Knowledge of a world culture other than one's own is a major learning goal at Whitworth. In order to provide the best opportunity for students to live and learn in vastly different cultural settings, the university offers a wide variety of international and multicultural courses involving travel. In off-campus venues, students acquire understanding that helps form their value systems, priorities and commitments to serve a world in need. Participants return better prepared to live in an interdependent world.

Whitworth's goal is to ensure that all students who wish to do so are able to study a different culture abroad or elsewhere in the United States. The Whitworth Off-Campus Studies Office assists students in planning and executing their international and multicultural study programs. Working with an expanding network of partner universities and institutions in the U.S. and throughout the world, the center provides programs for both individuals and groups that range in cost from no more than campus room and board to $8,000 (plus tuition) in areas with high living costs. Official exchange programs between Whitworth and other foreign universities are generally the least expensive for students. Overseas travel scholarships are available to qualified students.

English for International Students

gbrekke@whitworth.edu

For students whose primary language is not English, advanced-level courses are available to bring their reading, writing, and oral communication skills up to a level of proficiency for participation in other courses at Whitworth University. These courses require students to use an integrated set of skills for critical thinking, analytic reasoning, problem-solving, and written and oral communication. Each EIS course carries four semester credits and is creditable toward graduation.

All international students whose primary language is not English or who are non-U.S. citizens are required to take the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) and to have their official scores sent by Educational Testing Service to Whitworth University. Official International English Language Testing System (IELTS) scores may be substituted for TOEFL scores. TOEFL or IELTS scores that are more than two years old will not be accepted.

TOEFL minimum score: 79 iBT

TOEFL preferred score: 88 iBT

IELTS score: 6.5

Students who meet the minimum English proficiency requirement but have scores lower than those listed as preferred will be required to enroll in EIS 106, EIS 107, EIS 108, and EIS 109, which are offered only in the fall semester and Jan Term. These students should therefore plan to begin their sojourn at Whitworth in the fall semester.

Kinesiology & Athletics

<http://www.whitworth.edu/kinesiology&athletics/>

The Whitworth Kinesiology & Athletics Department offers a major in kinesiology and minors in kinesiology and athletic coaching. These academic programs provide both a theoretical and practical educational experience for future teachers, coaches and health, wellness and fitness specialists. The kinesiology major allows students to choose from two educational tracks. The teaching track prepares students to teach/coach in public or private schools. Students in the teaching track are also required to complete one of the education certifications (elementary or K-12 certification). The non-teaching track prepares students for health, fitness and physical education-related career opportunities and requires an internship in the discipline.

The learning outcomes for this major prepare the student to do the following:

- Develop a holistic understanding of the importance/role/significance of the fitness/wellness discipline.
- Develop the skills and abilities necessary for employment in careers in the education, exercise, and/or health-related professions.
- Learn and apply the concepts of professionalism and integrity in the fitness and wellness industry.
- Be prepared for entry into advanced degrees in health, fitness, physical education, sports management, sports psychology, exercise science, movement studies and related fields.
- Prepare as health, fitness and physical education teachers who will have a positive impact on the learning and development of those whom they are called to serve.
- Be eligible for certification exams in strength and conditioning, as well as in personal training.

Whitworth students are required to complete a minimum of one writing-intensive course ("W") within their major. Kinesiology courses currently meeting that requirement are: HS 320, HS 326, HS 361, HS 362, and HS 433. Students pursuing education endorsement must have an alternate level field experience which may be fulfilled with EDU 369. In addition, EDU 369 may be substituted for the kinesiology internship experience if the student is pursuing an endorsement in health and fitness. A grade of "C" or higher in all major courses is required if the student is pursuing teacher certification or an education endorsement. All endorsements are subject to change; see School of Education for updated education requirements.

Fitness and Wellness

In addition to the previously described degree programs, the department is responsible for the oversight of the institution's general education requirements for "Fitness and Wellness for Life." Courses that fulfill these requirements are designed to emphasize responsible stewardship of God's creation through maintenance of personal health. Students develop skills and establish habits that prepare them for a lifetime of healthy living and physical well-being. Students are required to complete three separate courses in fitness and wellness.

The learning outcomes for the Fitness for Life courses include the following:

- Provide an environment for students to participate in regular physical activity.
- Challenge students to develop healthy lifestyle habits and choices.
- Develop an understanding and appreciation for the miraculous creation of the human body.
- Understand and apply appropriate fitness and wellness terminology.

Practical applications of educational theory and sports content. Emphasis on preparation of resource units and directed teaching. Spring semester.
KIN 370 Sports Psychology	3
Exploration of the many facets of sports psychology from both a theoretical and practical standpoint. Topics include characteristics of successful athletes, motivation, regulating anxiety and stress, aggression, team cohesion, leadership styles, and coaching youth sports. Recommended that PY 101 be taken previously. Jan Term.
KIN 390 Internship	1-4
KIN 391 Independent Study	1-4
KIN 395 Teaching Assistantship	1-4
KIN 396 Topics in Physical Education	1-4
Selected upper-division topics in physical education.
KIN 400 Tests and Measurements	2
Selection, administration, interpretation and application of tests of fitness, skills and knowledge. Development of computer software proficiency as it relates to the evaluation of tests designed to analyze human movement. Fall semester.
KIN 410 Coaching Methods	3
Instruction in athletic coaching methodology such as effective practice planning, effective use of drills in skill acquisition, physical conditioning methods (aerobic/anaerobic), strength conditioning, and understanding of athletic training (hydration, taping, injury prevention and rehabilitation). Spring semester, every other year.
KIN 420 Administrative and Legal Aspects of Health, Fitness and PE	2
Administrative policies and practices as they relate to program development, budget, facilities, equipment, personnel management and public relations in directing physical education, intramural and interscholastic sports programs. Fall semester.
KIN 430 Sports and Society	3
Interrelationships of sports with other aspects of culture. Role of sports in American society.
KIN 430W Sports and Society	3
Interrelationships of sports with other aspects of culture. Role of sports in American society.
KIN 465 Motor Development, Control and Learning	2
Theories and principles of motor activity and motor responses. Spring semester.
KIN 480 Field Study	1-4
KIN 481 Field Experience	0-3
KIN 490 Internship	1-4

KIN 491 Independent Study	1-4
KIN 495 Teaching Assistantship	1-4
KIN 498 Senior Seminar	2
Career planning, graduate school, financial planning, and effective leadership are discussed as students get ready for professional careers. Emphasis on student presentations. Spring semester.

Physical Education Courses

PE 113 Beginning Basketball	1
PE 115 Bowling	1
PE 119 Ice Skating	1
PE 120 Pilates	1
Body conditioning via a unique method of stretching and strengthening exercises developed by Joseph Pilates. It is composed of hundreds of exercises which allow workouts to be customized to meet individual needs.
PE 121 Yoga	1
Yoga combines exercise through physical postures (asanas) and breathing technique (pranayama) and when practiced appropriately promotes wellness of body and mind. Yoga benefits the body by lengthening and strengthening muscles and tendons. It benefits the mind and body connections by enhancing energy, promotes relaxation, and improves focus and concentration.
PE 122 Tennis	1
PE 124 Weight Training	1
PE 125 Golf	1
PE 128 Sports Conditioning	1
PE 129 Badminton	1
PE 130 Soccer	1
PE 133 Beginning Volleyball	1
PE 137 Modern Dance	1
Analysis and theory of modern dance with an emphasis on basic technique and movement exploration. Includes a study of the evolution of modern dance and its past and present pioneers. May be repeated. Fall semester, even years. 1 credit.
PE 138 Karate	1
PE 143 Ballet I	1
PE 148 Cross-Country Skiing	1
Lab fee covers: transportation, instruction, and equipment.
PE 152 West Coast Swing and Lindy Hop	1
PE activity course. Includes the development of these dances, their history and their resurgence in popular culture today.
PE 153 American Ballroom Dance	1
The study of and practice of various forms of social dance, primarily ballroom dance with some emphasis on country dance.
PE 154 International Ballroom Dance	1
PE 159 Snow Skiing and Boarding	1
Lab fee covers: transportation, instruction, and lift ticket. There is an additional fee if you need to rent equipment.
PE 164 Pickleball	1
PE 178 Karate II	1
JKA Shotokan Karate. Course will build upon the kata learned in Karate (PE 139).
PE 180 Field Studies	1-4
PE 183 Jazz Dance I	1
A beginning course in jazz to empower students to see their strengths in expressing themselves through dance. Emphasis not only on technique, vocabulary, stretching and strengthening, but on stringing movements together through choreography. No experience necessary.
PE 184 Postures of the Soul: Sacred Dance	1
An exploration of worship through movement and dance. Classes will offer a broad overview of sacred dance expressions. Students will visit churches that incorporate dance in their services, present in chapel, and explore other movement ministry opportunities. Students will also choreograph a movement sequence as it relates to worship.
PE 185 Ministry, Movement and the Arts	1
Recommended for men and women who desire to deepen their Christian faith through the collaboration of various art forms. Experience Scripture and worship with body, mind and spirit. Explore Scriptural themes and contemporary social concerns through the medium of movement and the creative arts.
PE 191 Independent Study	1-4
PE 196 Topics in Kinesiology	1-3
PE 213 Intermediate Basketball	1

PE 233 Intermediate Volleyball	1
PE 253 Intermediate Ballroom Dance	1
PE 282 Winter Mountaineering	3
Course includes Nordic skiing with an emphasis on advanced backcountry skiing, snowshoeing, mountaineering technique, peak ascents, first aid, leadership issues, and route finding. Offered at Tall Timber Ranch, Jan Term occasionally.
PE 291 Independent Study	1-4

Leadership Studies Program

<http://www.whitworth.edu/leadershipstudies>

The mission of the Whitworth Leadership Studies Program is to educate the minds and hearts of those who practice leadership. The program will make a significant and unique contribution to the study and practice of leadership through its integration of principles and theories of leadership with the transforming nature and the moral authority of Christ. Students will acquire knowledge and skills informed by the emerging and related collaborative and transforming leadership theories. The program teaches a perspective on world need that is broad, inclusive and empathetic.

The learning outcomes of this minor prepare the student to obtain the following:

Knowledge

Students who complete the leadership studies program will do the following:

- Develop knowledge of the evolution of the theories of leadership and management, as well as theories that inform various practices of leadership, e.g. conflict management.
- Be able to understand, in different kinds of leadership situations, how to choose appropriate situational leadership styles, and understand the basic leadership theory that informs their practice of leadership.
- Understand how complexity theory and chaos theory inform their analysis of organizations.
- Understand the differences between transactional and transforming leadership and the benefits of each in different kinds of leadership and organizational settings.
- Learn how to develop and present a comprehensive project proposal.
- Explore the relationship of leadership to service by participating in local and global service projects.
- Have appreciation and knowledge of both the breadth and the depth of contemporary and classical leadership literature.

Skills

Students who complete the leadership studies program will gain skills and competence in the following areas:

- Moral reasoning
- Leading change
- Critical-thinking skills
- Creative problem-solving skills
- Conflict-resolution skills

- Human motivation
- Organizational behavior
- Communications issues
- Servant-leadership
- Ethical practices in leadership
- Participation on leadership teams

Requirements for Leadership Studies Minor (19)

Required core courses:

LS 250	Principles of Service and Leadership	3
LS 350	Transforming Leadership	3
LS 401	Leadership Seminar	1
Three semester credits from the following:		3
LS 490	Leadership Internship
LS 455	Chaos Theory, Leadership and Management
GE 330	Community Leadership Training
TH 170	Leadership Development in Ministry
Supporting curriculum (choice of nine semester credits):		9
Business and Economics (no more than six semester credits):
BU 110	Introduction to Business and Management
BU 425	Organizational Behavior
BU 450W	Social and Ethical Issues in Business And Economics
BU 453W	Organizational Theory
BU 455	Chaos Theory, Leadership and Management
EC 425	Economic Development
Communication Studies (no more than six semester credits):
JMC 244	Publicity and Public Relations
SP 323	Organizational Communication
SP/TH 336 Gospel Proclamation
SP 338	Small Group Ministry
SP 351	Group Dynamics
SP 355	Parliamentary Procedure
SP 362	Argumentation and Debate
SP 387	Rhetorical Criticism
SP 398	Intercultural Communication
SP 493	Communication Ethics
English, Political Science and History (no more than six semester credits):
EL 316	American Drama Since 1900
HI 382	Issues in Public History
HI 410W	American Intellectual History
HI 445	Revolution in History

PO 297	Nonviolent Defense and Conflict Resolution
PO 353	International Political Economy
PO 371	Introduction to Public Administration
PO 425W	The Third World: Political Change
PO 434W	American Political Thought
Psychology and Sociology (no more than six semester credits):
SO 310	Interpretations of Modern Society
SO 365	Cities and Urban Life
Theology & Philosophy (no more than six semester credits):
PH/TH 221 Ethics
TH 313W	History of Christianity I
TH 314W	History of Christianity II: World Christian Movement
TH/SP 336 Gospel Proclamation
SP 338	Small Group Ministry
Other Discipline Areas (no more than nine semester credits):
BI 333	Evolutionary Biology
BI 354	Developmental Biology
EDU 201, 202 Educational Psychology
EDU 401W	Democracy, Leadership, and Schooling
KIN 322	Philosophical and Psychological Aspects Of Coaching
AT 333	Organization and Administration of Athletic Training
MI 302	Applied Leadership
MU 225	General Conducting
MU 427	Advanced Conducting
PS 151	General Physics I
PS 455	Quantum Mechanics
TA 361	Fundamentals of Directing
Special Topics:
LS 196	Topics in Leadership Studies
LS 396	Topics in Leadership Studies

Courses

LS 196 Topics in Leadership Studies	1-3
Selected lower-division topics in leadership studies. Periodic offering.
LS 250 Principles of Service and Leadership	3
A focus on basic leadership skills development and theoretical foundations. Students gain exposure to leadership styles, values and leadership, and numerous leadership skills and challenges as well as theory that informs leadership practices and issues.
LS 291 Independent Study	1-3
LS 350 Transforming Leadership	3

The companion and sequel to LS 250. The course carefully explores transforming leadership theory. Students participate in a service-learning project in which the theory is put to a practical test.

LS 390 Leadership Internship 1-4

LS 391 Independent Study 1-3

LS 395 Teaching Assistantship 1-4

LS 396 Topics in Leadership Studies 1-3

LS 401 Leadership Seminar 1

A senior seminar for students completing the leadership studies minor. This capstone leadership studies course is taken after all other leadership studies core coursework requirements are completed. Students are exposed to emerging literature in leadership studies and develop and present a senior thesis on leadership.

LS 455 Chaos Theory, Leadership and Management 3

A capstone course in leadership theory. Application of theory and practice to personal philosophy of leadership and how that applies to future vocational/avocational objectives. Translation of theory into practice through a major course proposal. Project. Periodic offering.

LS 490 Leadership Internship 1-4

Internships are arranged by students and approved by the Whitworth Leadership Studies Program Board.

LS 491 Independent Study 1-4

LS 495 Teaching Assistantship 1-4

Mathematics & Computer Science

<http://www.whitworth.edu/mcs>

Whitworth's Mathematics & Computer Science Department offers a solid foundation in mathematics, statistics, computer programming, databases, networks and software engineering. Talented faculty in the department's interdisciplinary programs help students learn to apply mathematics and computing skills in the fields of natural science, business and industry, and the social and behavioral sciences.

Believing that God wants every individual to strive to reach his or her full potential, department faculty challenge motivated students by providing them the opportunity to participate in activities that go beyond the traditional classroom experience. These involve state-of-the-art research and development, service-learning projects and teaching assistant opportunities. Through theory, practice and the pursuit of knowledge, students develop the problem-solving skills that will help them succeed in their professions and in life. The learning outcomes of this major prepare the student to do the following:

Mathematics

- Demonstrate an appropriate level of problem-solving skills using analytical reasoning.
- Demonstrate proficiency in oral and written communication.
- Develop necessary skills for ongoing learning.
- Understand the need for solid ethical decision-making. Consider how faith and/or worldview can inform one's vocation and professional practices.
- Transition from concrete to abstract thinking according to the design of the undergraduate program in mathematics.
- Demonstrate proficiency with various technological tools.

Computer Science

- Demonstrate an appropriate theoretical foundation for computer science.
- Develop software engineering proficiency.
- Cultivate problem-solving and critical-thinking skills.
- Reinforce interpersonal skills and effective teamwork.
- Demonstrate proficiency in communication skills – written, verbal, and presentation.
- Gain an international perspective and the ability to work cross-culturally.
- Understand the need for sound ethical decision-making and the social and legal implications of those decisions. Consider how faith and/or worldview can inform one's vocation and professional practices.

Computer Science Honors Program

The intent of the honors program is to provide motivated students with the social and academic activities necessary to foster their growth as individuals and their commitment to excellence and service to others. Students enrolled in the program must complete a major in computer science. To qualify for graduation as a Computer Science Honors Program graduate, candidates must successfully complete the following requirements by the end of their senior year. Each requirement will be documented in the student's portfolio.

1. Apply for admission into the honors program after completing CS 172.
2. Maintain an overall cumulative GPA of 3.5 or above.
3. Complete the professional learning requirement by fulfilling each of the following activities:
 - Join either the Association for Computing Machinery or the IEEE Computer Society.
 - Regularly attend ACM/IEEE Computer Society meetings.
 - Participate in the planning and presentation of a minimum of two ACM meetings.
 - Document the meeting plans and presentations in the portfolio.
 - Participate in ACM/IEEE activities (i.e. social, special topics seminars, etc.).
4. Complete the service requirement by participating in at least one of the following areas:
 - Teaching assistant for computer science courses
 - Research assistant for a computer science faculty member
 - Lab assistant for the general computing labs
 - Technician for the Whitworth Computing Services Department
 - Participation in related service-learning projects
5. Complete the internship requirement by satisfactory completion of an internship and/or research assistantship.
6. Complete and defend a senior research project.
7. Complete one semester of CS 499W, Research Methods.

Requirements for a Mathematics Major, B.A. (39-40)

MA 171	Calculus I	4
MA 172	Calculus II	4
MA 273	Calculus III	4
MA 256	Elementary Probability and Statistics	3
MA 278	Discrete Mathematics	3
MA 330	Linear Algebra	3
CS 171	Computer Science I	3
CS 172	Computer Science II	3
Four of the following upper-division courses:		12-13
MA 317	Introduction to Complex Variables
MA 350	Numerical Analysis
MA 357	Mathematical Statistics I
MA 358W	Mathematical Statistics II
MA 360	Number Theory
MA 396	Topics in Mathematics
MA 410	Algebraic Structures
MA 430W	Graph Theory and Combinatorics
MA 440	Introduction to Real Analysis I
MA 441	Introduction to Real Analysis II
CS 499W	Research Methods
PS 357	Mathematical Methods for Engineers and Scientists

For teacher certification:

MA 365 Modern Geometry

EDU 454 Mathematics in Secondary School

Requirements for a Mathematics Major, B.S. (55-57)

All endorsements subject to change; see School of Education for updated requirements.

MA 171	Calculus I	4
MA 172	Calculus II	4
MA 273	Calculus III	4

Computer Science Courses

CS 110 Introduction to Computer Information Systems	3
Basic concepts of computer hardware, software and information processing. Impact of computers on society and the ethics of information technology. Hands-on experience with operating systems, file systems, word processors, spreadsheets, databases and communication tools. Fall semester.
CS 125 Business Information Systems	3
Introduction to business application software. Students will cover business application software concepts including Microsoft Excel, Access and very introductory macro programming for these applications. The course will start with advanced Excel topics, proceed to Access and finish with introductory macro programming concepts. Students will implement and present a business-related project using either Excel or Access. Fall and spring semesters.
CS 171 Computer Science I	3
Introduction to problem-solving, abstraction and design using the C++ language. Special emphasis on development of algorithms and writing programs in a structured form. Prerequisite: MA 108 or equivalent. Fall and spring semesters.
CS 172 Computer Science II	3
Problem-solving, abstraction and design using the C++ language. Special emphasis on pointer variables, recursion, and file handling. Introduction to data structures (including stacks, queues, linked lists, and binary trees), classes, and object-oriented programming. Prerequisite: CS 171. Fall and spring semesters.
CS 191 Independent Study	1-4
CS 196 Topics in Computer Science	1-3
Selected lower-division topics in computer science. Periodic offering.
CS 273 Data Structures	3
An introduction to stacks, queues, recursion, linked lists, trees, graphs, sorting, and searching. Emphasis on algorithm analysis. Prerequisite: CS 172. Fall and spring semesters.
CS 274 Ethical, Social & Legal Issues in Computer Science	3
Students will research, discuss, and argue a variety of current ethical issues related to computer science. Students will also learn about the professional organizations' supporting computer scientists and understand each organization's code of ethics. Finally, students will understand how to be professionals in computer science. Prerequisite: CS 171. Spring semester.
CS 278 Computer Organization and Assembler Programming	3
Computer organization and the structure of digital computers. Work in MASM assembler language programming on a PC computer. Prerequisite: CS 172. Fall semester.
CS 290 Internship	1-4
CS 291 Independent Study	1-4
CS 294 Career and Vocation Seminar	1
Students in this course will learn about different career and vocational paths related to mathematics and computer science and go about pursuing a specific path. Further, students will explore how their own faith and worldview can interact with their discipline through vocation discussions. Spring semester.
CS 301 Internet Applications Development	3
An information technology course designed as an introduction to the tools and methods of Internet applications development. Special emphasis on Internet programming languages and the design of interactive WWW documents. Jan Term, odd years.

- CS 302 Multimedia Applications Development 3
An information technology course designed as an introduction to the tools and methods of multimedia applications development. Students will learn how to integrate text, graphics, animation, digital video, and sound to create interactive multimedia applications. Prerequisite: CS 110. Jan Term, even years.
- CS 313 Networks 3
Fundamental concepts of computer network theory, topologies, architecture, and protocol layers. Provides a foundation in current networking technology for local area networks, wide area networks, and the Internet. Prerequisite: CS 273. Fall semester, odd years.
- CS 314 Microsoft Networks 3
A network-systems technology course designed to provide students with the knowledge and skills necessary to complete day-to-day administrative tasks in a single domain or multiple domain Microsoft-based network. Students will learn how to install, configure, customize, optimize, troubleshoot, and support local- and wide-area network environments. Prerequisite: CS 172. Spring semester, even years.
- CS 315 Distributed Scalable Computing 3
Introduction to concepts of distributed and parallel processing paradigms. Project development using a variety of programming technologies. Development in Windows and Linux Operating Systems. Prerequisite: CS 273. Fall semester, even years.
- CS 320 Quality Assurance in Software Development 3
Students in this course will cover techniques in testing computer software. Topics will include: History of software and testing, ad-hoc testing methods, test plans, formal testing methods, automation and testing tools, and security testing. Students will have a firm foundation in testing as well as improved skills as software developers. Prerequisite: CS 172. Fall semester, even years.
- CS 357 Computer Graphics 3
Hands-on experience with state-of-the-art computer graphics rendering and display techniques. Emphasis on texture mapping, ray tracing, and 2-D and 3-D object manipulation and animation. Prerequisite: CS 273. MA 330 highly recommended. Spring semester, odd years.
- CS 359 Introduction to Technology & Culture: Study Abroad Program Preparation 1
Required for those students taking part in CS 360: Technology & Culture: Study Abroad Program in Jan Term. In addition to preparing students to experience a foreign culture, this course studies technology from global, economic, religious, gender and intercultural viewpoints. The course serves to build community among the program participants and prepares them for international travel, intercultural sensitivity, and cross-cultural experiences. Taken in preparation for CS 360. Permission of instructor. Fall term, odd years.
- CS 360 Technology & Culture: Study Abroad Program 3
A Jan Term study program focusing on the interactions between technology and culture. Students will broaden their cross-cultural understanding by exploring the role of technology in another culture as well as the influence the culture has had on technology. Students will participate in university exchanges, visit vital industries, travel to important historical cultural sites, attend different churches, and engage in other rich cross-cultural experiences such as service projects. Students are required to prepare for this program by taking CS 359. Introduction to Technology & Culture. Destination country varies, e.g. Ireland/Britain, India, etc. Jan Term, even years.
- CS 370 Programming Languages 3
Concepts and paradigms of programming languages. Topics include: history of programming languages, language-design principles, syntax, semantics, data types, control structures, object-oriented languages, functional programming, logical programming, and parallel programming. Includes laboratory experience in comparing paradigms and behaviors of different languages. Prerequisite: CS 273. Fall semester, odd years.
- CS 371 Windows Applications Development 3
A foundation for developing conventional Windows applications using object-oriented and component-based programming techniques. Topics include component-based development, network applications, graphical user interface components, exception handling, and components for web applications. Prerequisite: CS 172. Jan Term, even years.
- CS 372 Java Applications Development 3
A foundation for developing conventional applications in the object-oriented Java programming language. Topics include Java programming constructs, multithreading, graphical user interface components, exception handling, and Java networking. Prerequisite: CS 172. Jan Term, odd years.
- CS 373 Digital Logic Design 3
Combinatorial and sequential logic circuit design and analysis. Hands-on experience with modern design tools, hardware description languages (e.g. VHDL), and FPGA devices. Topics include number systems, minimization, multiplexers, decoders, encoders, code converters, comparators parity, circuits, and shifters. Prerequisites: MA 278 and PS 153. Fall semester, odd years.
- CS 374W Database Management 3
Comprehensive introduction to design and development of databases and database applications. Combined approach of relational database theory and application development using popular database management systems. May also include current trends such as XML databases, data warehousing, and web interfaces. Prerequisite: CS 273. Fall semester.

CS 376 Technology Management	3
The course examines theory and practice in management of information technology and software projects in internationally competitive organizations. Study includes leadership of cross-functional personnel and international teams, innovative strategies in technical cultures, analysis of organizational structures, project marketing, quality assurance, and general project management. Prerequisites: CS 125 or CS 171, and must take BU 110. Fall semester, even years.
CS 380 Field Studies	1-4
CS 390 Internship	1-4
CS 391 Independent Study	1-4
CS 395 Teaching Assistantship	1-4
CS 396 Topics in Computer Science	1-3
Selected upper-division topics in computer science. Periodic offering.
CS 401 Computer Architecture	3
Digital computer system design and analysis. Topics include: synchronous/asynchronous sequential machines, parallel structures, pipelining, and input/output. Includes laboratory experience in microprocessor design and architecture. Prerequisite: CS 278. Spring semester, even years.
CS 457 Artificial Intelligence	3
Introduction to artificial intelligence concepts. Foundational theory includes intelligent agents, search, first-order logic, knowledge representation, planning, probabilistic reasoning, and genetic programming. Projects and programming of robotics as autonomous agents. Prerequisite: CS 273. Spring semester, even years.
CS 472 Software Engineering	3
Designed as an intensive, project-oriented, senior capstone course. Topics include software system analysis and design, software project management and life cycle, software tools, documentation, and maintenance. Prerequisites: CS 273 and CS 374W. Senior class standing. Spring semester.
CS 473 Advanced Algorithm Design and Analysis	3
Advanced study of the design and analysis of algorithms. Topics include advanced complexity analysis, advanced recursive algorithms, graph theory algorithms, optimization problems, algorithms related to number theory, and other contemporary topics. Analysis of problems associated with searching and sorting. Prerequisites: CS 273 and MA 278. Fall semester.
CS 475W Operating Systems	3
Introduction to the theory of basic operating systems. Includes memory management, scheduling, resource management, synchronization, process and thread management, security, and concurrent processes. Prerequisites: CS 273 and CS 278. Spring semester.
CS 490 Internship	1-4
CS 491 Independent Study	1-4
CS 495 Teaching Assistantship	1-4
CS 496 Research Assistantship	1-3
Opportunity to work closely with a professor on a research project. Periodic offering.
CS 499W Research Methods	3
Examination of research methods and a foundation for the Computer Science research program. An opportunity to challenge the advanced and motivated student. Includes readings, dissemination methods research projects in current topics, and working closely with faculty in a mentoring relationship. Prerequisite: CS 172 or instructor permission. Fall semester.

Mathematics Courses

MA 107 Basic Concepts in Modern Mathematics	3
Mathematics for the liberal arts student. An introduction to contemporary mathematics and its role in society. Current and past applications of mathematics in the real world will be examined. Topics may include management science, coding information, geometric applications, and statistics. Fall and spring semesters. TI 83 or 84 calculator required.
MA 108 Finite Mathematics for Social Sciences	4
A study of mathematical applications to business, economics, social sciences, and personal finance. Topics include mathematics of finance, systems of linear equations, matrices and linear programming. Prerequisite: MA 107 or 500+ SAT. Fall and spring semesters. TI 83 or 84 calculator required.
MA 150 Pre-Calculus	4
Preparation for the calculus sequence. Solving systems of equations, exponential, logarithmic and trigonometric functions, and equations with applications in the social and natural sciences. Prerequisite: MA 107 or 500+ SAT. Fall and spring semesters. TI 83 or 84 calculator required.
MA 171 Calculus I	4
Functions, limits, continuity, differentiation, and anti-differentiation. Emphasis on solving problems numerically and graphically, as well as algebraically. Prerequisite: MA 150 or 600+ SAT. Fall and spring semesters. TI 83 or 84 calculator required.
MA 172 Calculus II	4

Applications of integration, transcendental functions, techniques of integration, and infinite series. Prerequisite: MA 171. Fall and spring semesters. TI 83 or 84 calculator required.
MA 191 Independent Study	1-4
MA 196 Topics in Mathematics	1-3
Selected lower-division topics in mathematics. Periodic offering.
MA 220 Structure of Elementary Mathematics	3
For the prospective elementary or middle school teacher. Development of number systems, vocabulary, and symbolism in the present-day use of arithmetic, algebra, geometry, and statistics. Applies toward the general education math requirement for elementary education majors only. Meets the college math requirement for elementary education majors. Taught through Continuing Studies. Fall and spring semesters.
MA 221 Math for Elementary School Teachers I	3
For the prospective elementary teacher, includes an introduction to problem solving, set operations and their application to arithmetic, numeration systems, arithmetic, algebra, and number theory as related to elementary school mathematics curriculum. Does not apply toward the math general education requirement except for candidates for elementary teaching certificates. Fall and spring semesters. TI 83 or 84 calculator required.
MA 222 Math for Elementary School Teachers II	3
Course designed for future elementary school teachers. Covers topics of probability, descriptive statistics, geometry, measurement, and motion geometry. Does not apply toward the math general education requirement except for candidates for elementary teaching certificates. Prerequisite: MA 221. Fall and spring semesters. TI 83 or 84 calculator required.
MA 256 Elementary Probability and Statistics	3
Descriptive statistics, probability, probability distributions, hypothesis testing, confidence intervals, correlation, and regression. Fall and spring semesters, and Jan Term. TI 83 or 84 calculator required.
MA 273 Calculus III	4
Multivariable calculus, including partial differentiation, vector analysis, and multiple integrals. Prerequisite: MA 172. Fall and spring semesters. TI 83 or 84 calculator required.
MA 278 Discrete Mathematics	3
A study of the foundations of mathematics (including sets, logic, relations, and functions), algorithms, combinatorics, and graph theory. Focus will be on developing logic and problem-solving skills involved in higher mathematics. Prerequisite: MA 171. Fall and spring semesters.
MA 281 Differential Equations	3
A study of ordinary differential equations and their use in mathematical models in the physical, biological and social sciences, and in economics. Covers analytic and numerical solution techniques. Prerequisite: MA 273. Fall and spring semesters.
MA 290 Internship	1-4
MA 291 Independent Study	1-4
MA 294 Career and Vocation Seminar	1
Students in this course will learn about different career and vocational paths related to mathematics and computer science and go about pursuing a specific path. Further, students will explore how their own faith and worldview can interact with their discipline through vocation discussions. Spring semester.
MA 317 Introduction to Complex Variables	3
Introduction to complex numbers, analytic and elementary functions, and integration, series, residues and poles, and conformal mapping. Prerequisite: MA 273. MA 278 can also be taken as co-requisite. Spring semester, odd years.
MA 330 Linear Algebra	3
Vector spaces, linear transformations, matrices, determinants, Euclidean spaces, systems of equations, and eigenvalues. Prerequisite: MA 172. MA 278 strongly recommended. Fall and spring semesters.
MA 350 Numerical Analysis	3
Elementary discussion of errors, polynomial interpolation, quadrature, linear systems of equations, solutions of non-linear equations. Numerical differentiation, integration, solutions to differential equations. Prerequisites: MA 273, MA 330, and CS 172. MA 278 strongly recommended. Spring semester, even years.
MA 357 Mathematical Statistics I	3
A theoretical study of probability, random variables and their distributions, confidence intervals, and tests of hypothesis, and regression and correlation. Prerequisites: MA 256, MA 273 and MA 278. TI 83 or 84 calculator required. Fall semester, odd years.
MA 358W Mathematical Statistics II	3
A theoretical study of confidence intervals and estimators, test of hypothesis, ANOVA, regression and correlation, and non-parametric methods. Prerequisite: MA 357. Spring semester, even years. TI 83 or 84 calculator required.
MA 360 Number Theory	3
Divisibility, congruence, prime numbers, diophantine equations, quadratic reciprocity, and number theoretic functions. Emphasis on mathematics education and problem-solving. Prerequisites: MA 172 and MA 278. Fall semester, even years.
MA 365 Modern Geometry	3

Sets and propositions, postulation systems, affine geometry, Euclidean, and non-Euclidean geometry. Required for high school mathematics teachers. Prerequisites: MA 171 and MA 278. Spring semester.

MA 380 Field Studies 1-4

MA 390 Internship 1-4

MA 391 Independent Study 1-4

MA 395 Teaching Assistantship 1-4

MA 396 Topics in Mathematics 1-3

Mathematical topics of current interest to the mathematics faculty and advanced students. May be repeated for credit with permission of department chair. Periodic offering.

MA 410 Algebraic Structures 3

Logic, sets, relations, functions, groups, rings, fields, and vector spaces. Mathematics education and computing applications studied. Prerequisites: MA 172 and MA 278. Fall semester, odd years.

MA 430W Graph Theory and Combinatorics 3

Study of paths and circuits, trees, planarity and duality, coloring of graphs, digraphs and networks, permutations and combinations, multinomial theorem, generating functions, principle of inclusion and exclusion, and recurrence relations. Prerequisites: MA 172 and MA 278. Spring semester.

MA 440 Introduction to Real Analysis I 3

Sets and functions, properties of the real numbers, completeness axiom, elements of point-set topology, and sequences. Prerequisites: MA 273 and MA 278. Fall semester, even years.

MA 441 Introduction to Real Analysis II 3

Limits of functions, continuity, differentiation, Riemann integration, and infinite series of numbers and functions. Prerequisite: MA 440. Spring semester, odd years.

MA 490 Internship 1-4

MA 491 Independent Study 1-4

MA 495 Teaching Assistantship 1-4

MA 496 Research Assistant 1-3

Opportunity to work closely with a professor on a research project. Periodic offering.

Military Science/ROTC

Whitworth students may elect to participate in Army ROTC through a partnership program with Gonzaga University. Coursework requires travel to the Gonzaga campus, which is located six miles south of Whitworth.

The ROTC program is a cooperative effort between the U.S. Army, Gonzaga University and Whitworth University. It provides training and qualification for leadership positions in the Regular Army, the U.S. Army Reserve, or the Army National Guard. A student may earn a commission as an Army second lieutenant while achieving a college degree in the academic discipline(s) of his or her choosing. Cadets incur no obligation during their first two years of ROTC and are not members of the U.S. Army (unless they are ROTC scholarship winners). Lower-division courses are open to all Whitworth students, but the associated leadership labs and physical fitness courses may be restricted if students are in a participating rather than enrolled status.

The objectives of the program are to prepare academically and physically qualified scholar/athlete/leaders for the challenge of serving as commissioned officers in the U.S. Army. To that end, the program stresses building leaders of character and competence to serve their country and community.

The program meets the country's requirement for officer-leaders in the Army (active duty, National Guard, and reserves). It is, therefore, multifaceted, with distinctive sub-elements to meet individual needs and requirements. For example, ROTC is traditionally a four-year program, but individuals with prior service, members of reserve or National Guard units, participants of JROTC in high school and summer Leaders' Training Course (LTC) participants may receive advanced placement credit and may complete the program in two years. Normally, all students enroll in one military science class, leadership laboratory and the Military Physical Fitness course per semester. The program consists of two phases: the basic course (lower division), normally taken during the freshman and sophomore years or completed through advanced placement credit, and the advanced course (upper division).

Basic Course: First- and second-year courses, MI 101, 102, 201, and 202, designed for beginning students who want to qualify for entry into the advanced course and for those students who may want to try military science without obligations. In addition to their academic requirements, basic-course cadets may participate in a variety of extracurricular activities. Placement credit for the basic course may be granted to students who have completed initial entry training for the armed forces, three years of Junior ROTC in high school or the ROTC leaders' training course. MI 101 and 102 concentrate on fundamental skills, concepts, values and problem-solving and provide an overview of how the military fits into society. MI 201 and 202 more thoroughly address problem solving, critical thinking, communication and conflict-resolution skills.

Advanced Course: The advanced course consists of MI 301, 302, 401, and 402. It is open only to students who have completed the basic course or earned placement credit (see above). Students must also enroll in leadership labs (301L, 302L, 401L, or 402L) and Military Physical Fitness (303, 304, 403, or 404). Students also attend the five-week ROTC Leadership Development and Assessment Course (LDAC) during the summer between their junior and senior years. In addition to their academic requirements, advanced-course cadets provide student leadership for the Gonzaga Bulldog Battalion.

Completion of the basic course, advanced course and LDAC, coupled with a bachelor's degree from the university, qualifies the cadet for a commission as a second lieutenant in the United States Army.

Financial Assistance

Advanced-course students receive a subsistence allowance. Junior cadets receive $450 a month for up to 10 months and senior cadets receive $500 a month for up to 10 months. Freshman and sophomore cadets who are on scholarship and contracted will receive $300 and $350 a month, respectively, for up to 10 months each year. There are also cooperative programs with the Army National Guard and Army Reserve that will pay advanced-course cadets approximately $1,500 per year for simultaneous service.

Scholarships

Freshman- and sophomore-level students may compete for Army ROTC campus-based scholarships. These scholarships are applied to tuition and fees plus an allowance for books. A student need not be enrolled in ROTC to be eligible to compete for two- or three-year scholarships. No commitment is made until a scholarship is accepted, the student meets all administrative and physical criteria, and the oath for contracting is administered. High school seniors interested in applying for a four-year scholarship normally submit applications by Jan. 1 of their senior year.

Fees, Uniforms and ROTC Texts

A lab fee is the only fee associated with participation in the ROTC program. Uniforms and other equipment are furnished without charge. Students are responsible for, and must return, all government property issued to them.

Extracurricular Activities

Color Guard: The Gonzaga University Color Guard participates in a variety of school and civic functions where precision drill or presentation of the U.S. flag is appropriate.

Intramural Sports: The ROTC program sponsors teams that participate in flag football, volleyball, basketball, softball and other sports of the Gonzaga University intramural leagues. The program sponsors special event teams at both Gonzaga and Whitworth and sponsors cadet intramural teams as coordinated by the Whitworth cadets with the professor of military science.

Special Qualification Training: Advanced-course and select basic-course cadets may participate in confidence-building courses such as Air Assault School, Airborne School, Northern Warfare Training Center, and Cadet Troop Leadership Training at locations around the world.

Military Science and Leadership Courses Lower Division

MI 101 Foundations of Officership

Develop self-confidence and review basic life skills of fitness and communication through team study and activities in basic, drill, physical fitness, rappelling, leadership reaction courses, team-building exercises, first aid, giving presentations and basic rifle marksmanship. Learn fundamental concepts of leadership, including organization and role of the Army, Army values, and expected ethical behavior in a profession in both classroom and outdoor laboratory environments. Weekly requirements: three hours for class and a required leadership lab, MI 101L, plus required participation in a minimum of three one-hour sessions for physical fitness (MI 103). Participation in one-week off campus exercise required.

MI 101L Leadership Lab

Open only to (and required of) students in the associated Military Science course. Learn and practice basic skills. Gain insight into the ROTC's advanced Course in order to make an informed decision whether to apply. Build self-confidence and team-building leadership skills that can be applied through life. Prerequisite: permission of the professor of military science.

MI 102L Leadership Lab

See MI 101L.

MI 102 Introduction to Tactical Leadership

Learn and apply principles of effective leading. Reinforce self-confidence through participation in physically and mentally challenging exercises with upper-division ROTC students. Develop communication skills (including active listening and feedback skills) and examine factors that influence leader and group effectiveness to improve individual performance and group interaction. Practice basic skills that underlie effective problem solving. Examine the officer experience. Weekly requirements: three hours for class and a leadership lab, MI 102L, plus required participation in a minimum of three one-hour sessions for physical fitness (MI 104). Participation in one weekend off-campus exercise required.

MI 103 Military Physical-Fitness	1
Intensive military physical fitness program designed to raise the level of individual physical fitness to its highest potential with emphasis on the development of an individual fitness program and the role of exercise and fitness in one's life. Participate in and learn to lead a physical-fitness program. Prerequisite: permission of the professor of military science.
MI 104 Military Physical-Fitness	1
See MI 103.
MI 190 Directed Readings	3
Incorporates readings in a variety of subject area such as military history, leadership development, basic military skills, and related topics. Prerequisite: permission of the professor of military science.
MI 191 Directed Readings	3
See MI 190.
MI 201 Individual Leadership Studies	3
Learn and apply ethics-based leadership skills including communication, feedback, and conflict resolution that develop individual abilities and contribute to the building of effective teams of people. Develop skills in problem solving, critical thinking, oral presentations, writing concisely, planning of events, coordination of group efforts, advanced first aid, land navigation and basic military tactics. Learn fundamentals of ROTC's Leadership Development Program. Weekly requirements: three hours for class and leadership lab, MI 201L, plus participation in a minimum of three one-hour sessions for physical fitness (MI 203), and participation in two mandatory weekend exercises.
MI 201L Leadership Lab	1
See MI 101L.
MI 202 Foundations of Tactical Leadership	3
Challenge current beliefs, knowledge, and skills. Prepare for the ROTC Advanced Course with an introduction to individual and team aspects of military tactics in small-unit operations. Includes use of radio communications, making safety assessments, movement techniques, planning for team safety/security, and methods of pre-execution checks. Practical exercises with upper-division ROTC students. Learn techniques for training others as an aspect of continued leadership development. Weekly requirements: three hours of class and a leadership lab, MI 201L, plus participation in a minimum of three one-hour sessions for physical fitness (MI 204) and participation in two mandatory weekend exercises.
MI 202L Leadership Lab	1
See MI 101L.
MI 203 Military Physical Fitness	1
See MI 103.
MI 204 Military Physical Fitness	1
See MI 103.
MI 290 Directed Readings	3
Incorporates readings in a variety of subject areas such as leadership assessment, comparative military systems, basic military skills, and related topics. Prerequisite: permission of the professor of military science.
MI 291 Directed Readings	3
See MI 290.

Upper Division

MI 300 Ranger Challenge	1
ROTC's "varsity sport," designed to familiarize students with the tactical and technical aspects of the professional soldier through hands-on training. Enhance leadership traits and build teamwork skills in an exciting and competitive atmosphere. The competition includes a 10k rucksack run in combat gear of forced march, building a one-rope bridge, a grenade assault course, M-16 rifle marksmanship, orienteering or military land navigation, a physical-fitness test, and weapons assembly. Prerequisite: permission of the professor of military science.
MI 301 Leadership and Problem Solving	3
A series of practical opportunities to lead small groups and receive personal assessments during execution of leadership development program in situations of increasing complexity. Analyze military missions and plan military operations using squad and small-unit battle drills and tactics and opportunities to plan and conduct training for lower-division students, both to develop skills and to function as vehicles for practicing leadership. Analyze the role officers played in the transition of the Army from Vietnam to the 21st century. Weekly requirements: three hours for class and a required leadership lab (MI 301L) plus required participation in a minimum of three one-hour sessions for physical fitness, MI 303, and participation in two mandatory weekend exercises. Prerequisite: permission of the professor of military science.
MI 301L Leadership Lab	1

Open to students in the associated military science course only. Involves leadership responsibilities for the planning, coordination, execution and evaluation of various training activities with Basic-Course students and the ROTC program. Students develop, practice and refine leadership skills by serving and being evaluated in a variety of responsible positions. Prerequisite: permission of the professor of military science.

Develop cadet leadership competencies. Prepare for success at National Leadership Camp: analyze tasks, prepare written or oral guidance for team members to accomplish tasks, delegate and supervise tasks, and plan for and adapt to the unexpected while under stress. Examine importance of ethical decision-making in setting a positive climate that enhances team performance and accommodates subordinate spiritual needs. Weekly requirements: three hours for class and a required leadership lab, MI 302L, plus participation in a minimum of three one-hour sessions for physical fitness (MI 304) and participation in two mandatory weekend exercises.

Prerequisite: MI 301.

MI 302L Leadership Lab

See MI 301L.

MI 303 Military Physical Fitness Program

Open only to (and required of) students in MI 301, 302, 401, 402, or which this program is an integral part. Participate in, plan and lead physical-fitness programs. Develops the physical fitness required of an officer in the Army. Emphasis on the development of an individual fitness program and the role of exercise and fitness in one's life. Prerequisite: permission of the professor of military science.

MI 304 Military Physical Fitness Program

See MI 303.

MI 390 Directed Readings

1-3

Incorporate readings in a variety of subject areas such as a leadership dynamics in small units, offensive and defensive tactics, and studies in leadership characteristics and traits. Prerequisite: permission of the professor of military science.

MI 391 Directed Readings

See MI 390.

MI 395 Leader Development & Assessment Course

A five-week leadership practicum conducted at an active Army installation. Open only to (and required of) students who have completed MI 301, 302. The student receives pay. Travel, lodging, and most meal costs are defrayed by the U.S. Army. The advanced-camp environment is highly structured and demanding, stressing leadership at small-unit level under varied, challenging conditions. Individual leadership and basic skills performance are evaluated during the camp. The leadership and skills evaluations at the camp weigh heavily in the subsequent selection process that determines the type of commission and job opportunities given to the student upon graduation from ROTC and the university. Prerequisite: MI 301, 302 and permission of the professor of military science.

MI 401 Leadership and Management

Plan, conduct and evaluate activities of the ROTC cadet organization. Understand and execute staff organization, functions, and processes by articulating goals and putting plans into action to attain them. Assess organizational cohesion and develop strategies to improve organization, including leader responsibilities and methods of counseling. Develop confidence in skills to lead people and manage resources, examine principles of subordinate motivation and organizational change. Apply leadership and problem solving principles to a complex case study/situation. Weekly requirements: three hours for class and a required leadership lab (MI 401L) plus participation in a minimum of three one-hour sessions for physical fitness (MI 403), and participation in two mandatory weekend exercises. Prerequisite: MI 302 and permission of the professor of military science.

See MI 301L.

MI 402 Adaptive Leadership

Examine leadership responsibilities that foster an ethical command climate. Refine counseling and motivating techniques. Examine aspects of tradition, law, and legal aspects of decision making and leadership. Prepare for a future as a successful Army lieutenant by performing platoon leader actions, analyzing the Army organization for operations from the tactical to strategic level, and assessing administrative and logistics management functions. Discuss reporting and PCS functions. Weekly requirements: three hours for class and a required leadership lab, MI 402L, plus participation in a minimum of three one-hour sessions for physical fitness (MI 404), and participation in two mandatory weekend exercises. Prerequisite: MI 401 and permission of the professor of military science.

Modern Languages

<http://www.whitworth.edu/modernlanguages>

We, as a dedicated team of international faculty, strive to educate students in cultural differences and sensitivity. We seek to provide students with the language skills, cross-cultural experiences, and literary and cultural understandings to allow them to navigate effectively within other cultures. Through this process, students are empowered to understand linguistic and cultural differences within their own society. Because we know our students well, we are able to guide them as they discern career opportunities and vocational calling. As a result of this range of learning experiences, our graduates are ready to become citizens of the world.

The learning outcomes of this major ensure that the student will obtain the following:

- Language skills that allow students to communicate on a wide range of topics in the target language
- Knowledge of a range of representative literatures
- Recognition of cultural differences and understanding of differences within students' own culture
- Experience living and studying in another culture
- Discernment of career and vocation

All 400-level courses are taught in the target languages (French, German and Spanish). Students majoring in French or Spanish are required to study abroad for a semester in a French or Spanish-speaking country to gain further proficiency in the language and a keen understanding and appreciation of French/Hispanic culture. The France Study Program, offered every third year, provides courses in 300-level French, communication and art. The Central America Program, offered every third year, provides courses in upper-level Spanish language, politics and culture topics, and has a service-learning emphasis. There are also many Spanish, French and German programs in overseas locations such as Mexico, Guatemala, Germany and Guadeloupe (French West Indies). A grade of C or better is required for all courses in the major or minor.

Requirements for a Major in French, B.A. (35-38)

Note: If a student enters the French program at the 300 level, the student must take the College Level Examination Program (CLEP) test to receive credit for FR 201 - FR 202. The CLEP test must be taken within six months from the time a major is declared.

FR 201	Intermediate French I	4
FR 202	Intermediate French II	4
FR 301	French Language Practice	3
FR 302W	French Writing and Stylistics	3

One of the following:		3
FR 330	Advanced Oral French
FR 331	Advanced Oral French Abroad
Complete one of the following tracks:		18-21

Track I: French and Francophone Studies (18)

Six additional upper-division French courses 18

Track II: French Education (21)

Meets Washington state endorsement requirements for French. Students wishing to pursue this track must see an advisor in the School of Education.

Five additional upper-division French courses* 15

The following two courses are also required:

ML 442	Methods for Teaching Languages, K-12	3
EDU 361	Second-Language Acquisition	3

* These five upper-division courses must include a minimum of one literature course and one course on culture and civilization.

Requirements for a Major in Spanish, B.A. (35-38)

Note: If a student enters the Spanish program at the 300 level, the student must take the CLEP test to receive credit for SN 201 - SN 202. The CLEP test must be taken within six months from the time a major is declared.

SN 330	Advanced Oral Spanish
SN 331	Advanced Oral Spanish Abroad

Complete one of the following tracks: 18-21

Track I: Language and Literature (18)

Six additional upper-division Spanish courses * 18

* These six upper-division courses must include a minimum of two literature courses and one course on culture and civilization.

Track II: Spanish Education (21)

Meets Washington state endorsement requirements for teaching Spanish. Students wishing to pursue this track must see an advisor in the School of Education.

Five additional upper-division Spanish courses * 15

The following two courses are also required:

ML 442	Methods for Teaching Languages, K-12	3
EDU 361	Second-Language Acquisition	3

- * These five upper-division courses must include a minimum of one literature course and one course on culture and civilization.

Requirements for a Minor in French or Spanish (20)

Note: If a student enters the program at the-300 level, the student must take the CLEP test to receive credit for FR/SN-201-FR/SN-202. The CLEP test must be taken within six months from the time a minor is declared.

Six courses beyond the elementary level* 20

- * These six courses must include a minimum of one-400-level course.

Requirements for a Minor in German (20)

Note: If a student enters the program at the-300 level, the student must take the CLEP test to receive credit for GR 201- GR 202. The CLEP test must be taken within six months from the time a minor is declared.

Six courses beyond the elementary level 20

Requirements for a French Minor with a Teaching Endorsement in French (32)

Meets Washington state endorsement requirements for teaching French.

All endorsements subject to change; see School of Education for updated requirements.

Music

<http://www.whitworth.edu/music>

The Whitworth Music Department strives to be a community of musicians that recognizes creativity as an essential aspect of being created in God's image, and a place where individual and community creativity are blended toward a higher purpose. We prepare students for further studies and professional careers in music, as well as for a vocational involvement in music, through the study of the discipline on both a theoretical and practical basis.

The learning outcomes of this major will develop the following:

- Technical skill and musicianship in both individual and ensemble performance
- A strong foundation in music theory, analysis, and aural skills
- Knowledge of a wide selection of musical literature, and an understanding of the aesthetic properties of style and the way they shape and are shaped by cultural and artistic forces
- An understanding of the intersection between musical art and worldview, and of the vocation of the musician in community

Note to all music majors: Additional information about course requirements and scheduling is included in the publication Student Guide to a Music Major, which is available from the Music Department.

The Washington State University College of Nursing is committed to inspiring and transforming healthcare for generations to come. The WSUCON embraces the core values of caring, altruism, social justice and maximizing human potential. In addition, the college endorses the values of Washington State University and the consortium institutions, Eastern Washington University and Whitworth University, that include inquiry and knowledge, engagement and application, committed partnerships, leadership, character, stewardship, teamwork and diversity.

The College of Nursing is a unique consortium program established in 1968, serving Whitworth University, Washington State University, and Eastern Washington University. The faculty, staff and instructional resources of the College of Nursing are located on the WSU Riverpoint campus in downtown Spokane.

The bachelor of science in nursing program is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education, and is approved by the Washington State Board of Nursing.

The undergraduate nursing major leading to the bachelor of science degree in nursing prepares generalists in professional nursing practice. Upon successful completion of the baccalaureate program, graduates are eligible to take the licensure examination for registered nurses.

Upon acceptance by the College of Nursing, Whitworth students will also be jointly enrolled through Washington State University. WSU handles all registration, tuition, course fees and financial aid. Students from out of state will be charged non-resident tuition by WSU unless permanent Washington state residency has been established. Nursing students will not be covered by Whitworth financial aid and other scholarships while at the College of Nursing. Whitworth University will charge a minimal enrollment fee. Upon completion of graduation requirements, the student will receive a joint diploma from Whitworth University and Washington State University. Transcripts will be issued by each institution.

Undergraduate Program (BSN) Application/Admission

Applicants must obtain an application from the registrar's office at Whitworth University. The completed application must be returned to the registrar's office by Jan. 15 for August admission and by Aug. 5 for January admission.

All courses prerequisite to the upper-division major, general university requirements and junior standing must be completed by the end of spring term for enrollment the following fall and by the end of fall term for spring enrollment. During the spring or fall term when the application is being reviewed, the student must have no more than three prerequisite courses that remain to be completed. A letter or numerical grade must be submitted for prerequisite courses. The pass/no credit option or Advanced Placement credit cannot be used. Residency of 32 semester credits is required at Whitworth prior to acceptance at the College of Nursing. The degree is generally completed in two years of study at Whitworth and two years at the WSU College of Nursing.

Applicants are judged on the following criteria:

cumulative GPA of 2.8 or higher;

cumulative GPA of 2.8 or higher in prerequisite courses;

each prerequisite course must have at least a "C" grade; P/F grades are not accepted;

junior standing;

applicants will be evaluated in a personal interview.

For further information on the upper-division program at WSU, contact the College of Nursing, www.nursing.wsu.edu or 509.324.7338.

Requirements for the Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing, B.S. (98)

126 semester credits, including the 98 credits of prerequisite and nursing courses. Completion of Whitworth's general graduation requirements. Oral communication, modern language, and Core 250 or 350 are waived for nursing majors. Global perspectives will be met by NU courses through WSU.

Undergraduate Elective Courses

Nursing electives are offered each semester, allowing students to explore topics of interest, including some international experiences.

Courses

NU 307 Assertvtness Training	2
Assertiveness training to assist professional nurse in improving interpersonal relationships in nursing situations. Prerequisite: junior in nursing.
NU 308 Professional Development I: Research and Informatics	2
First of professional development series. Focus on nursing and health care research, information management, informatics, and development of nursing research.
NU 309 Professional Development II: Ethical Reasoning and Decisions in Nursing	3
Continuation of professional development series. Moral and ethical reasoning models, decision processes, and philosophical basis of nursing as a discipline are explored.
NU 311 Pathophysiology and Pharmacology for Nursing	4
Etiology, pathogenesis, clinical manifestations of common human dysfunction. Nursing implications for prevention and therapeutic approaches including pharmacologic and nonpharmacologic therapies.
NU 315 Nursing Practice: Health and Illness	4
Introduction to nursing practice and health assessment: professional values, core competencies core knowledge and role development. Co-requisites: NU 308, 311 and 314.
NU 316 Introduction to Nursing Practice in Health and Illness: Theory	2
NU 317 Health Assessment	3
NU 322 The Human Experience of Diversity and Health	2
Explorations of regional, national, and global expressions of health and illness and implications for health care professionals.
NU 324 Nursing Concepts in Acute and Chronic Illness in the Adult	4
Theoretical concepts of acute and chronic illness in the adult as a basis for critical thinking and decision-making in nursing.
NU 325 Nursing Practice in Acute and Chronic Illness in Adults	5
Application of acute/chronic illness concepts in adults as a basis for critical thinking and decision-making in nursing.
NU 328 Introduction to Gerontological Nursing	2
Professional values, communication and functional assessment in care of elders. Core knowledge and role development of the gerontological nurse. Co-requisite: NU 318.
NU 408 Professional Development III: Leadership and Management	3
Continuation of the professional development series. Focus on impact of leadership, management, and resource allocation on patient outcomes.
NU 409 Professional Development IV: Transition to Practice	2
Continuation of professional development series. Focus on transition to practice and nursing across health care systems/delivery within global arena.
NU 414 Child and Family Health: Theory	3
Analysis and evaluation of scientific and theory base for nursing care of children and families.
NU 415 Children and Families As the Focus of Nursing Care	3
Synthesis and application of underlying science and nursing process with the unique population of children and families. Prerequisites: NU 324 and 325. Co-requisites: NU 318, 328 and 414.
NU 416 Childbearing Health of the Family	3
Care of childbearing families within the context of community. Newborn's health and men's and women's reproductive health are addressed.
NU 417 Nursing Care of Childbearing Families	2
Nursing care of families during the childbearing continuum in community and/or acute care settings. Combination of clinical and seminar.
NU 424 Psychiatric/Mental-Health Nursing Concepts	3
Healthy to psychopathological states studied within a nursing framework. Includes history, theories, legal and ethical issues of psychiatric/ mental health nursing.
NU 425 Nursing Practice: Psychiatric/Mental Health	2
Clinical application of the nursing process with clients experiencing acute and chronic psychiatric /mental-health disruptions.
NU 426 Community Health Nursing Theory	2
Synthesis of nursing and public health concepts with emphasis on community as partner and population-focused practice.
NU 427 Community-Health Nursing Practice	3

Clinical and theoretical concepts are applied in a concentrated clinical practicum. Use of clinical preceptors and student objectives is employed.

Philosophy

<http://www.whitworth.edu/philosophy>

The Whitworth Philosophy Department introduces students to the content and methodology of the discipline of philosophy. While emphasizing the history of philosophy and current philosophical issues, the department's courses help develop logical-reasoning and critical-thinking skills. The program focuses on both the critical and the constructive aspects of philosophy while encouraging Christian character development and career preparation. The learning outcomes of this major include the following:

Content mastery, including knowledge of the following:

- The history of philosophy, including key authors and texts
- Key issues, key questions, and major alternatives
- Central issues relative to the intersection of philosophy with other disciplines, e.g. philosophy of religion, philosophy of mind

Critical thinking, including the ability to do the following:

Develop analytical skills:

- Ability to listen and analyze various modes of discourse.
- Ability to read texts carefully.

Develop argumentation skills:

- Identify and follow arguments (including the ability to discern fallacies, detect assumptions, identify presuppositions and implications of ideas).
- Construct arguments both orally and in writing – including the ability to assert, explain and justify a position.

Constructive Synthesis:

- Understand worldviews.
- Articulate competing worldviews (with particular exposure to a Christian worldview).
- Recognize worldviews in dispute.
- Develop a personal worldview.
- Develop ability to connect ideas, pulling ideas from various sources to enhance and synthesize.
- Integrate philosophy into one's personal life.

Christian Character Development:

- Cultivate moral virtues and aid in character development through teaching, modeling and mentoring.
- Expose students to the Christian faith as a viable option for thinking persons.

Career Preparation:

- Prepare some students for law school, seminary, philosophy graduate programs and other liberal arts graduate programs.
- For all students: Translate acquired skills into marketable professional competencies.

Requirements for a Philosophy Minor (16)

Twelve approved semester credits, six of which must be upper division		12
CO 250	Western Civilization II: The Rationalist Worldview	4

Courses

PH 110 Introduction to Philosophy	3
The great issues and ideas of philosophical inquiry. Treatment of subjects such as logic, metaphysics, epistemology, ethics, political philosophy and different world views. Emphasis on both critical and constructive thinking. Fall and spring semesters.
PH 191 Independent Study	1-4
PH 196 Topics in Philosophy	1-3
Selected lower-division topics in philosophy. Periodic offering.
PH 201 Logic	3
The formal nature of logical thought and the informal, practical application of critical thinking to the analysis of arguments. Includes sections on arguments and fallacies in ordinary language, syllogistic arguments and symbolic logic. Spring semester.
PH 209 The Vices: Virtue and Evil	3
An examination of several prominent moral vices, particularly the "seven deadly sins," with a view to their apparent attractiveness and inherent self-destructiveness. Jan Term, odd years.
PH 210 The Ten Commandments as Moral Law	3
An investigation of how a set of 3000-year-old rules can still have relevance and application for our lives. Includes grounding the Decalogue in divine-command theory and virtue theory, understanding the rules' original context and intent, and translating the rules to contemporary daily life. PH 110 and Core 150 helpful but not required. Jan Term, even years.
PH 211 The Philosophy of Forgiveness	3
Forgiveness is generally thought to be a morally good response to a wrong-doing. This class will examine the nature of forgiveness. What is the relationship between forgiveness and justice? How is forgiving a wrong-doing different from condoning a wrong-doing? Is there such a thing as unconditional forgiveness? PH 110 is helpful but not required. Jan Term.
PH 221 Ethics	3

The nature of moral judgments and values. Examination of the criteria upon which ethical decision-making is based and the nature of the good life. Cross-listed with TH 221.

PH 244 Reasons for Faith

An examination of the rational status of Christian belief. Topics include the relationship between faith and reason, the evidence for God's existence, and the evidence for uniquely Christian doctrines (e.g., the Christ's Resurrection).

PH 256 Asian Philosophy

A study of the major schools of Asian philosophy, with emphasis on Chinese thought. Spring semester, even years.

PH 261 C.S. Lewis

The thought of C.S. Lewis, as found in his philosophical, theological and imaginative works, and the interconnections between those works. Critical evaluation of Lewis's ideas and application of those ideas to contemporary issues. Fall semester.

PH 290 Internship

1-4

PH 291 Independent Study

1-4

PH 301 Symbolic Logic

This course attempts to formalize the structure of proper logical reasoning through the use of an artificial symbolic language that assists in recognizing proper from improper argumentation. The main goal in this class is to begin mastering this symbolic language with the goal of learning to reason well. We will begin by looking at the nature of propositional statements, the truth-functional connectives they use, and translating statements made in our natural language to this artificial symbolic language. Then we will turn to the construction of arguments. We will learn to recognize valid from invalid arguments by constructing truth-tables to derive valid arguments using universal logical truths. Fall semester, even years.

PH 305 History of Ancient Philosophy

The development of philosophical ideas from the Pre-Socratics to the Middle Ages, using primary source readings. Special emphasis on Plato's and Aristotle's ideas on the major issue of life. Fall semester, even years.

PH 306 History of Modern Philosophy

The development of philosophical ideas from Descartes through the 18th century, using primary source readings. Figures studied include: Descartes, Spinoza, Leibnitz, Locke, Berkeley, Hume, Kant. Spring semester, odd years.

PH 307 History of Contemporary Philosophy

The development of philosophical ideas in the 19th-, 20th-, and 21st-century Europe and America. Both the Continental and Anglo-American traditions will be explored. Fall semester, odd years.

PH 308 History of Medieval Philosophy

The development of philosophical ideas from the fall of Rome to the Renaissance, using primary sources. Emphasis on Christian traditions, but Jewish and Islamic traditions will also be explored. Periodic offering.

PH 310 Applied Ethics and Decision-Making

Ethical decision-making and the complex social and technological issues of a modern world. Particular emphasis on emerging or developing areas in ethics, including the feminist perspective and the environmental ethic. Summer semester.

PH 320 Philosophy of Religion

The place of reason in faith. Issues addressed include classical arguments for and against the existence of God, the relationship of faith and reason, and the nature of religious language, miracles and immortality. Recommended prerequisite: Core 250. Spring semester.

PH 336 Social-Political Philosophy

An examination of the nature of justice and the extents of our social obligations. Considers both historical and contemporary sources, the latter including feminist and multicultural thinkers. Covers both theory and particular issues, like just war, economics and justice, rights to free expression, etc. Also listed as PO 336. Fall semester, even years.

PH 340W Epistemology

The nature and limits of knowledge. Focus on contemporary issues raised in recent books and journals. Recommended prerequisites: PH 305 or PH 306, or CO 250. Fall semester, odd years.

PH 341 Metaphysics

The ultimate nature of reality. Focus on issues raised in recent books and journals. Fall semester, even years.

PH 344 Reasons for Faith

An examination of the rational status of Christian belief. Topics include the relationship between faith and reason, the evidence for God's existence, and the evidence for uniquely Christian doctrines (e.g., the Christ's Resurrection).

PH 368 Aesthetics

The nature of art, including purposes and theories of art, connections to beauty and truth and practical life, and moral implications of artworks. Suggested prerequisites: PH 110 or any of AR 260-264. Also listed as AR 368. Spring semester, odd years.

PH 390 Internship

1-4

PH 391 Independent Study

1-4

PH 395 Teaching Assistantship	1-4
PH 396 Topics in Philosophy	1-3
Selected upper-division topics in philosophy. Periodic offering.
PH 421 Philosophy of Science	3
An examination of various issues related to scientific methodology. Topics covered include the demarcation of science from pseudoscience, the rationality of induction, scientific explanation and confirmation, scientific laws, the realism/anti-realism debate, rationality and objectivity in science, and the relationship between science and faith. Spring semester, even years.
PH 423W Marxism and the Socialist World	3
Focus on Marx's critique of capitalism. Later interpretations and application of Marx's theories in a variety of revolutions, from those of the Soviet Union, China, Yugoslavia and Cuba to current upheavals in the socialist world. Also listed as PO 423W.
PH 425 Philosophy of Mind	3
An exploration of one of the most actively debated and contentious issues in contemporary philosophy: What is the nature of the human mind? Examines current theories and the relationship to the claims of artificial intelligence, neuropsychology and Christian understandings of human nature, as well as the question of determinism versus free will. Spring semester, odd years.
PH 486 Readings	1-4
PH 490 Internship	1-4
PH 491 Independent Study	1-4
PH 495 Teaching Assistantship	1-4
PH 498 Senior Capstone	1
Writing and discussion intended to give senior students an opportunity to integrate the various strands of their philosophical education and reflect on their future. Fall semester, senior year.

Physics

<http://www.whitworth.edu/physics>

The Whitworth University Physics Department and Dual-Degree Engineering Program strive to provide students with the foundational skills necessary for success in science and engineering while preserving the university's strong tradition of a broad Christian liberal arts education. Our curriculum, which integrates a laboratory with each subject of physics, along with a growing integration of original and publishable research into the undergraduate experience, provides an understanding of real-world problems.

The learning outcomes of this major prepare the student to do the following:

- Be proficient in physics and math.
- Be able to integrate faith and vocation.
- Be employable in a wide range of fields.
- Demonstrate critical-thinking and problem-solving skills.
- Be competent in oral and written communication.

Dual Degree Pre-Engineering Transfer Program

Pre-engineering advisor: Richard Stevens

Whitworth's pre-engineering program is designed to give students the broad foundation of a liberal arts education, as well as technical training to be successful in a variety of engineering disciplines. Arrangements have been made with several top engineering schools to allow pre-engineering students to complete their first two or three years of coursework at Whitworth and the remainder of the five-year program at a partner engineering school. Partnership arrangements exist with Washington University (St. Louis), the University of Southern California, Washington State University, and Columbia University. Upon completing a customized Whitworth pre-engineering curriculum with at least a 3.25 GPA and a good record, students are assured enrollment in one of the partner engineering schools. Students report that the broad knowledge base and the critical-thinking, teamwork and communication skills acquired at Whitworth have enabled them to thrive in both engineering school and the professional environment. Recent graduates are working at successful engineering firms around the country. The following courses are required to qualify for our partner engineering schools, with additional courses available to prepare for specific engineering fields.

MA 273 Calculus III (4)

MA 281 Differential Equations (3)

EDU 455 Science in Secondary School (2)

All endorsements subject to change; see School of Education for updated requirements.

Important note:

Completion of PS 151 and PS 153 with at least a 3.0 GPA is required for enrollment in all subsequent courses in the sequence. Students with a GPA between 2.5 and 3.0 in those two courses are eligible to file a petition with the chair of the Physics Department for a provisional exemption to enroll in further courses.

Requirements for a Science Endorsement for Majors in Biology, Chemistry, or Physics

The science endorsement requires a major in biology, chemistry or physics plus additional courses. For a list of these additional courses, please see the biology or chemistry sections of the catalog.

Engineering Courses

- EN 110 Engineering Orientation 1
Concerns of the engineering profession: its scope, challenges, opportunities, rewards and educational requirements. Includes guest lectures by professional engineers and tours of engineering facilities in the area. Fall semester.
- EN 171 Engineering Graphics & Cad 3
An introduction to modern concepts, standards, and techniques for preparing technical drawings that provide effective communication between design engineers, analysts, and fabricators. Engineering graphics techniques including spatial visualization, two dimensional sketching, multiview orthographic projection, pictorial drawing, solid modeling, and working drawings will be accomplished using AutoCAD and Inventor computer aided design software. Spring semester.
- EN 211 Statics 3
Mathematical review, equilibrium of a particle, free-body diagrams, equilibrium of a rigid body, structural analysis, friction, center of gravity, moments of inertia.
- EN 291 Independent Study 1-4
- EN 311 Mechanics of Materials 3
Basic concepts of solid mechanics & mechanical behavior of materials, including stress-strain relationships, stress transformation, beam bending, elasticity, plasticity and fracture. Quantitative analysis of materials-limiting problems in engineering design. Prerequisite: EN 211. Spring semester, even years.
- EN 351 Mechanics: Dynamics 3
Fundamental principles and methods of Newtonian mechanics including kinematics and kinetics of motion and the conservation laws of mechanics. Basic particle and rigid-body applications. Also listed as PS 351. Prerequisites: PS 153 and MA 281. Fall semester, odd years.
- EN 390 Internship 1-4
- EN 396 Topics in Engineering 1-3
- EN 485 Engineering Design Project 3
Introduction to methodologies, goals and challenges in engineering design. This is a hands-on course, with an emphasis on design of engineering systems for international development, and appropriate technology for developing communities. Also covers issues in communication, cost analysis, and ethics in engineering design. Prerequisites: EN 171, EN 211. Fall semester, odd years.
- EN 491 Independent Study 1-4

Geology Courses

- GL 131 Understanding Earth 4
Structure of the earth and the forces of plate tectonics that build and move continents. Examination of the dynamic interactions between the lithosphere (crust), atmosphere, and hydrosphere. Laboratory included. Fall semester, even years.
- GL 131L Lab: Understanding Earth 0
- GL 139 Environmental Geology 4
Interactions of the human species with land, sea and air. Geologic hazards, earth resources, oceanography, meteorology. Laboratory included. Fall semester, odd years.
- GL 196 Topics in Geology 1-3
Selected lower division topics in geology.

Natural Science Courses

- NS 101 Earth and Sky 3
A broad study of earth science including geology and astronomy, oceans, the atmosphere and fundamental underlying physical concepts. Includes the nature and the origin of the solar system, the structure of the earth, and how earth processes operate and affect human life; for example: volcanoes, earthquakes, rivers, groundwater, glaciers, ocean processes, atmosphere and weather. For elementary education students. Fall and spring semesters.

Physics Courses

- PS 101 Physics of Weapons 3
A science course specifically designed for non-majors, this course will examine the ties between science and the technology of weapons. Societal impacts of these weapons and Christian responses will be examined. The primary focus of the course will be on physics, and knowledge of high-school algebra and geometry is expected.
- PS 121 Concepts of Physics 3
A study of fundamental unifying ideas of physics and of how scientists learn about the physical world. Emphasis on the comprehension of concepts. For non-science majors. Jan Term.
- PS 127 Introduction to Space Flight 3
A study of the scientific concepts behind the development and practice of space flight. Other topics include the history of space flight, military applications, socio-political implications, crew training, commercial spinoffs of space exploration and the outlook for the future. For non-science majors. Prerequisite: MA 107 or MA 108. Periodic offering.
- PS 141 Introduction to Astronomy 4
Nature and origin of the solar system, starlight and star life, components and structure of a galaxy, the expanding universe and cosmology. Astronomical instruments are also discussed. Includes laboratory. Spring semester.
- PS 146 Physics in Current Events 3
Using current events as a starting point, we will discuss the physics behind these events and explore where it leads. Topics may include forces, energy, waves, sound, electricity and magnetism, heat, fluids, relativity, nuclear and particle physics, astronomy, and astrophysics. The selection will be based largely on current events in news media, such as newspapers, TV, radio, and the Internet. Students are encouraged to suggest topics of interest to them. Course includes a lab component. Fulfills the natural science requirement.
- PS 151 General Physics I 3
Basic principles of mechanics. Prerequisite: MA 171 or concurrent enrollment. Fall semester.
- PS 151L General Physics I Lab 1
Laboratory experiments in mechanics. Includes introduction to propagation of uncertainty. Prerequisite: PS 151 or concurrent enrollment.
- PS 153 General Physics II 3
Basic principles of thermodynamics, electricity and magnetism. Prerequisites: PS 151, also MA 172 or concurrent enrollment. Spring semester.
- PS 153L General Physics II Lab 1
Laboratory experiments in thermodynamics, electricity and magnetism. Prerequisites: PS 151L, also PS 153 or concurrent enrollment. Spring semester.
- PS 191 Independent Study 1-4
- PS 196 Topics in Physics 1-3
Selected lower-division topics in physics. Periodic offering.
- PS 241 Introduction to Biophysics 3
This is a key course in the proposed bio physics major. The course will introduce major themes in the area of biophysics and will be the one course in the curriculum where the connections between physics and biology are the primary focus. Prerequisite: PS 153. Jan Term, odd years.
- PS 251W General Physics III 4
Continuation of PS 153. Basic principles of optics special relativity, and modern physics. Includes laboratory. Prerequisite: PS 153. Completion of this three-semester sequence is the normal pattern for entry into all upper-level physics courses.
- PS 290 Internship 1-4
- PS 291 Independent Study 1-4
- PS 351 Mechanics: Dynamics 3
Fundamental principles and methods of Newtonian mechanics including kinematics and kinetics of motion and the conservation laws of mechanics. Basic particle and rigid-body applications. Also listed with EN 351. Prerequisites: PS 153 and MA 281. Fall semester, odd years.
- PS 353 Advanced Dynamics 4
Continuation of PS 351. Numerical techniques in dynamics, velocity-dependent forces, oscillations (linear, nonlinear, and coupled), motion in a noninertial reference frame, and alternative formulations of mechanics (Lagrangian and Hamiltonian). Includes laboratory. Prerequisite: PS 351. Spring semester, even years.
- PS 353L Advanced Dynamics Lab 0
- PS 357 Mathematical Methods for Engineers and Scientists 4
Introduction to a variety of mathematical methods used to solve problems in science and engineering. Emphasis will also be on their applications to relevant problems. Topics include ordinary and partial differential equations, vector field theory, Fourier and Laplace transforms, linear algebra and complex analysis. Prerequisite: MA 281. Also listed as EN 357. Fall semester, even years.
- PS 361 Nuclear Physics 4

Nuclear structure, radioactivity, nuclear reaction interactions of nuclear radiations with matter. Includes Lab. Prerequisites: PS 251. Spring semester, even years.
PS 361L Lab: Nuclear Physics	0
PS 363 Thermodynamics	4
Statistical mechanics, kinetic theory, laws of thermodynamics and states of matter. Implications for engines and other applications in many areas of science. Includes laboratory. Prerequisites: PS 251 and MA 281. Spring semester, odd years.
PS 363L Lab: Thermodynamics	0
PS 371 Optics	4
Nature of light, geometrical and physical optics, interference, quantum optics, optical instruments. Includes laboratory. Prerequisites: PS 251 and MA 281. Spring semester, odd years.
PS 373 Electronics	4
A "learn-by-doing" practical introduction to the fundamentals of electronic devices and circuits. Emphasis on modern instrumentation. Includes laboratory. Prerequisite: PS 153. Spring semester.
PS 386 Readings	1-4
PS 390 Internship	1-4
PS 391 Independent Study	1-4
PS 395 Teaching Assistantship	1-4
PS 396 Topics in Physics	1-3
Selected upper-division topics in physics. Periodic offering.
PS 451 Electricity and Magnetism I	4
Electric and magnetic fields, boundary value problems, steady and alternating currents, electrical instruments, and measurement techniques. Includes laboratory. Prerequisites: PS 153, PS 373 and MA 281. Fall semester, even years.
PS 451L Lab: Electricity and Magnetism I	0
PS 453 Electricity and Magnetism II	3
Continuation of PS 451. Maxwell's equations, electromagnetic waves, advanced topics in electrical and magnetic phenomena. Includes laboratory. Prerequisite: PS 451. Spring semester, odd years.
PS 455 Quantum Mechanics	4
Principles of quantum mechanics, including Schroedinger's equation applied to the rigid rotor, the hydrogen atom and the harmonic oscillator. Includes laboratory. Prerequisites: PS 251 and MA 281. Fall semester, odd years.
PS 471 Experimental Physics	1-4
Supervised research projects in areas such as electronics, optics, nuclear physics, computer applications, atmospheric physics. Prerequisite: permission of professor.
PS 473 Experimental Physics	1-4
Supervised research projects in areas such as electronics, optics, nuclear physics, computer applications, atmospheric physics. Prerequisite: permission of professor.
PS 490 Internship	1-4
PS 491 Independent Study	1-4
PS 495 Teaching Assistantship	1-4

Political Science

<http://www.whitworth.edu/politicalscience>

The Whitworth Political Science Department strives to embody the university's education of mind and heart through excellent teaching, open and robust debate, active scholarship and personal mentoring. Our goal is to prepare students for careers in government and politics, law, humanitarian work, teaching, research and peacemaking, as well as for work in related fields, such as business or missions. The department is committed to providing students with the political knowledge and skills that will enable them to assume responsibility from the local level to the global community. Through the study of political theory and law, the analysis of a variety of political systems, internships and off-campus study, and rigorous research projects, faculty members challenge students to develop both the tools and the vision for understanding, nurturing and transforming the society in which they live. All of our courses are informed by a commitment to justice and reconciliation as articulated by the great political thinkers throughout history and, especially, as defined by the principles of the Christian faith.

The learning outcomes of this major prepare the student in the following ways:

1. With regard to knowledge, political science students will:
 - Gain competency in the primary sub-fields of political science: American, comparative, international relations and theory/philosophy;
 - Develop an understanding of citizenship in the local, national and global community;
 - Understand the role of government and also the way nongovernmental actors (individuals, groups and institutions) can function in society to promote or undermine the common good
1. With regard to skills, political science students will become proficient in quantitative and qualitative research and analysis, written communication (policy papers, legal positions, literature reviews, and research papers), and oral communication (the ability to speak and listen, skills essential for public discourse). Above all, students will learn to exercise their skills as responsible citizens and as leaders in government, the private sector, education, and the community of faith.

2. With regard to faith and values, political science students will learn civil and global responsibility, principled pluralism and respect for the common good rather than self-interest. In addition, students will be able to articulate the philosophical or religious foundations of their political commitments, and they will be able to express those commitments in ways that are appropriate in a multicultural and multi-faith society and world.

Pre-Law Advising

Pre-law advisor: Julia Stronks

Whitworth's rigorous liberal arts education is ideal training for law school and the legal profession. Recent graduates have been accepted into law schools at Yale, Stanford, Duke, Harvard, University of Michigan, Cornell and University of Washington, and Whitworth alumni are working at some of the most successful law firms in Washington and around the United States. Pre-law students are welcome to select any liberal arts major, but they may find the most relevant law school preparation in programs offered through the departments of history, political science, literature, philosophy, economics, sociology, psychology, mathematics and science. Regardless of students' majors, Whitworth prepares its graduates to succeed in law school by equipping them with a broad knowledge base and strong analytic, critical-thinking and communication skills. In addition, the pre-law advisor actively assists students in developing an appropriate course plan and making arrangements for taking the Law School Admissions Test (LSAT) and applying for law school. While Whitworth does not have a designated pre-law curriculum, the following courses are recommended:

PO 102	American National Politics	3
PO 223	Law and Society	3
PO 364W	American Constitutional Law	3
PH 201	Logic	3
PH 221	Ethics	3
JMC 402	Mass Media Law	3
BU 240	Business Law	3

Note: Study abroad is strongly recommended.

Requirements for a Minor in Community Engagement and Transformation (18)

TH 256, 356 Biblical Theme of Shalom	3
At least one of the following:	3
PO 275 Poverty and Community Development
PY 330 Psychology of Poverty and Social Class
SO 365 Cities and Urban Life
Approved engagement electives	12
See department for current electives meeting this criteria

Requirements for a Minor in Peace Studies (15)

PO 297 Nonviolent Defense and Conflict Resolution	3
Four approved peace-studies courses	12

Requirements for a Minor in Political Science (18)

PO 102 American National Politics	3
PO 151 International Relations	3
One course in American politics	3
One course in international politics	3
Two approved upper-division courses	6

Courses

PO 102 American National Politics	3
Overview of founding principles, political culture decision-making processes and institutions of American government.
PO 104 Political History of Beijing	3
Provides historical understanding of the political and social history of China's capital city, Beijing. Listed in both political science and history.
PO 105 Cultural Odyssey of China	3
Provides historical understanding of the cultural and religious history of China through its imperial and modern eras. Listed in both political science and history.
PO 140 African Life and Culture	3
Examination of representative African peoples, countries, lifestyles, and beliefs. Topics covered will include media coverage of Africa, traditional and modernizing influences on African lives today, Africans as global citizens, health, gender, religion and rites of passage. Jan Term.
PO 151 International Relations	3
This course is a balance between understanding the key issues in international relations and the perspectives that help explain those issues. Foreign policy behavior of major states, traditional and recent security issues, cause of war and conflicts, impact of independence.
PO 191 Independent Study	1-4
PO 196 Topics in Political Science	1-3
Selected topics in political science.
PO 205 U.S. Foreign Policy in Film	3
An analysis of the history, processes and institutions involved in making U.S. foreign policy. The global response to U.S. foreign policy is also prominently featured. Case studies drawn from film where IR and Foreign Policy are emphasized. Periodic offering, Jan Term.
PO 209 History of Vietnam War	3
The causes of America's involvement in the war in Vietnam, the military strategies employed, the political decision-making, and the effects of the war on American society will be examined. Particular attention will be paid to the lessons of war. Periodic offering. Also listed as PO 309.
PO 223 Law and Society	3
The role of law in society. Participants in the legal system (lawyers, judges, police, juries), study of the structure of the judicial system, trial procedures. Periodic offering.
PO 224 Conflict Mediation	3

This course is designed to prepare students to practice mediation in relationships, personal interaction, and as a mediator assisting in conflict resolution. Emphasis will be placed on transformative mediation. Course objectives will target three student groups: a.) All students will acquire the knowledge of what conflict resolution is, the history of mediation, various styles and strategies, and basic skills for mediation. b.) Students with career interest in mediation will acquire sufficient knowledge, skills, and experience to gain basic competency, enabling them to identify themselves as mediators, and to function as such when requested by parties to assist in conflict resolution. c.) Students seeking certification as transformative mediators will complete either eight co-mediation sessions or 12 hours of co-mediation experience. After completion of PO 224, required co-mediation experience involving both self- and outside-evaluation, and a review process, students will be certified by Whitworth University as Transformative Mediators.

PO 225 Politics, Media and Pop Culture

Politics often occurs 'downstream' of culture in the United States; this course will examine the interplay between the two, giving special attention to contemporary forms of popular culture such as music, film, television, and literature.

PO 240W Comparative Politics

Different governmental styles and political life of selected European, Asian and Latin-American governments. Comparisons of government structures, functions and outcomes. The course will examine democratic, authoritarian, patron-client and revolutionary systems.

PO 242 American Political Parties

PO 275 Poverty and Community Development

Examines the changing tasks of cities and states in managing our societal future and the effectiveness of structures and policies. Highlights the politics of welfare and affirmative action.

PO 280 Field Studies

1-4

PO 290 Internship

1-4

PO 291 Independent Study

1-4

PO 293 Great Decisions

Participation in series of lectures and discussions on crucial foreign policy issues. Written responses to presentations. Spring semester.

PO 297 Nonviolent Defense and Conflict Resolution

Major themes in the history and politics of nonviolence. Just War theory, nuclear pacifism, alternatives to military force, interpersonal conflict resolution. Ideas of Jesus, Tolstoy, Gandhi, Niebuhr, M.L. King, Jr., Gene Sharp.

PO 304W Political History of Beijing

Provides historical understanding of the political and social history of China's capital city, Beijing. Listed in both political science and history.

PO 305W Cultural Odyssey of China

Provides historical understanding of the cultural and religious history of China through its imperial and modern eras. Listed in both political science and history.

PO 307 Latin American Politics

Explores the wide range of problems facing Latin-American societies based on their past underdevelopment. Takes a thematic approach, focusing on subjects as diverse as the military, peasants, Indians, U.S. foreign policy, multinational corporations, urbanization and education. Builds an understanding of Latin America using the resources of sociology. Prerequisite: SO 120. Fall semester.

PO 309 History of Vietnam War

Also listed as PO 209.

PO 310 Research Methods in Political Science

An introduction to the methods of research used by political scientists. Attention is given to survey research, polling, public opinion and data analysis. The course is highly recommended for students' interested graduate studies in social science, political science, policy studies, or foreign affairs. Prerequisites: PO 102 and PO 240.

PO 312 South Africa Program Preparation

PO 315 Understanding Global Issues

This course provides an opportunity to learn about and reflect upon current issues in today's world. Issues covered will include the concept of human rights, war and peace, economic development, ethnicity, diversity, and environmental degradation. Continuing studies only.

PO 316 Ireland Preparation

Preparation course for Peace and Conflict in Northern Ireland. Acceptance into PO 326 required.

PO 318 Globalization, Ecology, Gender in Central America

Examination of the interconnected aspects of globalization, gender and ecology in Central America, in the light of the conceptions of biblical and social justice. Prerequisites: SO 307. Every third spring semester in Central America.

PO 320 American Political Process

This course focuses on Western political theory and its intersection with public administration. Particular focus will be placed on issues related to social services. Required course for the social services major. Continuing studies only.

PO 326 Peace and Conflict in Ireland	3
Explores of the historical, political, and religious roots of "the Troubles" in Northern Ireland as well as examines the prospects for peace in the region. Explores the ways in which this divided society copes with the attendant political, economic and social problems of religion, peace and conflict. Prerequisite: selection by instructor; sophomore standing. Periodic Jan Term in Ireland.
PO 327 Contemporary Europe	3
Periodic offering.
PO 328 Contemporary African Culture	3
This course will provide historical and contemporary aspects of Tanzanian society. We will pay special attention to the political, theological, and communicative dimensions of Tanzania and East African life in general. Students will take part in a one credit fall semester preparation class. Also listed as SO 328 and TH 328.
PO 331 The American Presidency	3

Major themes, debates, patterns and precedents of American foreign policy, emphasizing 20th-century diplomatic issues. Also listed as HI 463.
PO 465 International Law	3
International law is a tough but interesting concept. Domestic law is positive law, which means that it is written down. Natural law is that which is written on our hearts. International law lives somewhere between the two. Part of it is written down; part of it is written on our hearts. You will make yourself crazy if you cannot allow yourself to live halfway between the concrete and the ephemeral for three months. We'll be looking at the law that binds nations. Sometimes nations are bound when they give their permission; sometimes they are bound in an absolute sense. But, there is no enforcement of this binding law. If there is no enforcement, why does it exist? Who obeys it? Who decides what it is? Is it real? These are the questions that connect all the units of the semester.
PO 480 Field Studies	1-4
PO 486 Readings	1-4
PO 490 Internship	1-12
PO 491 Independent Study	1-4
PO 495 Teaching Assistantship	1-4
PO 498W Senior Seminar	3
In-depth research paper. Skills for graduate study and/or management positions in domestic and international affairs. Fall semester.

Psychology

<http://www.whitworth.edu/psychology>

The Department of Psychology at Whitworth University is committed to academic rigor and sensitive human service by promoting the scientific study of "mind and heart." As part of a Christian liberal arts institution, we seek to train and produce responsible, enlightened citizens who think critically and contribute actively to the field of psychology. Following a scientist-practitioner model, the curriculum is designed to develop both breadth and depth of knowledge in core areas of psychology. Students engage in research and practice that encompass foundational and advanced requirements and electives, culminating in senior capstone experiences. Students apply their learning as they design their own research projects, critically evaluate scientific information and other claims, and reflect on the integration of psychology and the Christian faith. They gain experience working in the community at a practicum placement of their choice and have the opportunity to travel to destinations that bring their classroom learning to life. We offer an enduring foundation in the investigation and understanding of human behavior and mental processes in an atmosphere that nurtures just relationships with people of diverse backgrounds and offers mutual support and friendship with both faculty and students.

The learning outcomes of this major prepare the student to do the following:

- Demonstrate familiarity with the major concepts, theoretical perspectives, empirical findings, and historical trends in psychology.
- Understand and apply basic research methods in psychology, including research design, data analysis, and interpretation.
- Respect and use critical and creative thinking, skeptical inquiry, and when appropriate, methods of discovery to solve problems related to behavior and mental processes.
- Understand and apply psychological principles to personal, social, and organizational issues.
- Value empirical evidence, tolerate ambiguity, act ethically, and reflect other values that are the underpinnings of psychology as a science. Engage both mind and heart in order to "honor God, follow Christ, and serve humanity," incorporating the tools that psychology has to offer in this endeavor.
- Demonstrate information competence and the ability to use computers and other technology effectively for many purposes.
- Communicate effectively in a variety of formats.
- Recognize, understand, and respect the complexity of sociocultural diversity.
- Develop insight into one's own and others' behavior and mental processes and apply effective strategies for self-management and self-improvement.

- Pursue realistic, yet creative, ideas about how to implement psychological, interdisciplinary, and personal knowledge, skills, and values in vocational pursuits in a variety of settings that meet personal goals and societal needs.

Sociology

<http://www.whitworth.edu/sociology>

The Whitworth Sociology Department's mission is to prepare students with the skills to describe, explain, interpret and make a difference in social life. The department equips students to promote well-being in the arenas of social life around them and encourages students to explore the relationships between sociology and faith. To these ends, students are expected to master the substantive content of sociology and its methods of research and data analysis, to develop an ideal vision of social life as informed by sociology and their deepest convictions, and to be prepared to advance that vision through a career and social engagement. The faculty is committed to providing excellence in teaching, scholarship and mentoring, and to modeling community engagement through research, writing, consultation and service. In addition, the faculty help foster a stimulating and supportive learning community and offer perspectives on social life and social issues from a variety of value frameworks and Christian traditions.

The learning outcomes of this major prepare students to do the following:

- Demonstrate an understanding and appreciation of humans as social and cultural beings and the implications of that for responsible participation in social life.
- Demonstrate a mastery of the content of sociology in terms of the following:
 - Understanding the theoretical and conceptual core of sociology and one of the three specialized tracks within the major;
 - Understanding the breadth of human social experience across cultures, race, class, gender and social contexts;
 - Understanding the nature of social problems and show an ability to propose effective ways to treat harmed persons and make preventive structural changes in light of a vision of social well-being;
 - Having a critical appreciation of sociology, its promise and limitations, and its connections with broader conversations about the human story.
- Demonstrate skills in the following:
 - Conducting and assessing social research, computing, and data analysis;
 - Accessing and using reliable sources of sociological data and analysis;
 - Evaluating the adequacy of ideas, assumptions and data about social life that they encounter within and outside of sociology;
 - Oral, written and presentational communication.

- Be able to understand, respect, communicate and work with people different from themselves.
- Work to clarify their faith commitments, values and deepest convictions, and relate them in meaningful ways to sociology, to social issues, and to the way they conduct their lives.
- Be prepared for engagement with the world by doing the following:
 - Identifying a career of service and social action that expresses who they are and that makes a difference in the world;
 - Being able to act as responsible participants in social life, attentive to the social life around them and prepared to promote social well-being among their neighbors here and across the globe.

Requirements for a Minor in Sociology (15)

SO 120	Introduction to Sociology	3
Four additional courses in sociology chosen in consultation with a sociology advisor		12

Courses

SO 120 Introduction to Sociology	3
Examination of the concepts, methods and findings sociologists use to understand social life in the U.S. and other cultures. Analysis of social groups and processes, from families and cities to crime, social change, and inequalities of gender, race and class. Exploration of social problems and how to make a difference. Fall and spring semesters.
SO 191 Independent Study	1-4
SO 196 Topics in Sociology	1-3
Selected lower-division topics in sociology. Periodic offering.
SO 200 Introduction to Cultural Anthropology	3

This course has two basic objectives: to develop a framework for understanding other cultures and to learn skills to communicate that understanding. Through a systematic investigation of the nature of culture and a comparative study of cultures and peoples known to humankind at the present time, it is expected that we can better understand ourselves and the social world around us. Fall semester and Jan Term.

SO 220 Race and Ethnicity 3
Examines racial and ethnic relations around the world, with emphasis on the United States. Students explore race as a social construct and its intersections with class, gender and immigrant status. Emphasis is put on racism within social institutions along with analysis of beliefs and privilege at the individual level. Prerequisite: SO 120.

SO 238 Sociology of Middle-Eastern Society 3
An overview of geography, history, demographic characteristics, social stratification, political behavior, socio-religious institutions, revolutionary change, problems of diversity, complementarity and integration in the people and cultures of the Middle East, including the Palestinian-Israeli conflict; the gulf crisis and its aftermath; the Middle East and international inequality; and prospects for peace and the future. Spring semester.

SO 243 Marriage, Sex and Gender 3
Examination of marriage and intimate relationships in the U.S. today. Sociological research and value perspectives are used to understand such issues as mate selection, cohabitation, careers and marriage, power, communication and conflict, diverse marriage styles, divorce and remarriage. Major emphasis given to the nature and dynamics of sexuality and gender in intimate relationships. Faith perspectives on marriage, sex, and gender are explored. Jan Term.

SO 244 I Corinthians 3
Explore the past and present impact of Paul's letter. Examine relations between the groups Paul addressed: rich and poor, young and old, male and female, Jew and Greek, single and married, intellectual and simple, slave and master. An understanding of the context of both beloved and controversial scriptures brings Paul's words to life, gives us a basis for understanding people different from ourselves, and provides a model for interpreting the epistle literature of the New Testament.

SO 271 Introduction to Social Welfare 3
Examine the theory and practice of social welfare in social and historical context. Develop an understanding of the variety of at-risk populations served by public and private agencies and look at the ways in which we attempt to provide for their welfare. Thoughtfully consider social welfare in light of Christian faith. Prerequisite: SO 120. Fall semester.

SO 275 Population, Environment and Society 3
Exploration of the ways population and environmental characteristics influence and are influenced by social and cultural life. Students gain skill in analyzing population structure and dynamics using demographic data sources. Population and environmental problems and alternatives for change will be examined in light of sociological and faith perspectives. Prerequisite: SO 120.

SO 283 Deviance, Crime and Criminal Justice 3
Analysis of crime and deviance and the efforts to control them. Focus on the nature, causes and consequences of crime and deviance, from such things as drug and alcohol abuse to interpersonal violence and corporate crime. An assessment of the criminal justice system, including police, courts and corrections, and examination of alternative approaches. Faith perspectives on deviance, crime and criminal justice are explored. Field observations required. Prerequisite: SO 120. Spring semester.

SO 290 Internship 1-4

SO 291 Independent Study 1-4

SO 302 Central America Briefing 1
Weekly orientation prior to leaving for Central America taught by the entire faculty of the study/service tour. A weekend retreat is a required part of this experience.

SO 305 Social Stratification: Power, Prestige And Wealth 3
Analysis of cultural and social structural processes that bring about social inequality and stratification. Examination of life chances and lifestyles of the privileged and underprivileged and exploration of the relationship between public policy and the situation of the rich and poor. Prerequisite: SO 120. Spring semester.

SO 307 Latin American Politics 3
Explore the wide range of problems facing Latin American societies based on their past under-development. Takes a thematic approach, focusing on subjects as diverse as the military, peasants, Indians, U.S. foreign policy, multinational corporations, urbanization and education. Build an understanding of Latin America using the resources of sociology. Prerequisite: SO 120. Fall semester.

SO 310 Interpretations of Modern Society 3
Interpretations of modern American society and culture are examined in this seminar, with particular focus on issues of individualism and community. What is the good society? How does our society compare to that ideal? This is an effort to understand and evaluate modernity and to develop personal visions of the good society as a basis for responsible action. Prerequisite: SO 120. Periodic Jan term offering.

SO 311 Families and Society 3

- Family, kinship and marriage in societal context. Human families in their many forms are examined cross-culturally and historically; primary emphasis is upon the changing shape and character of American families today. Impact of class, race and values on family life is explored. Special focus is on parent-child relations and the problems of children in American families. Prerequisite: SO 120. Fall semester.
- SO 311W Families and Society 3
See SO 311.
- SO 312 South Africa Program Preparation 1
Study of the key issues facing contemporary South Africa, including the perspectives of different racial, political, social, religious and economic groups. Taken in preparation for SO 341. Fall semester.
- SO 318 Globalization, Ecology, Gender in Central America 4
Examination of the interconnected aspects of globalization, gender and ecology in Central America, in the light of the conceptions of biblical and social justice. Prerequisite: SO 307. Every third spring semester in Central America.
- SO 320W The Sociological Tradition: Theories in Context 3
An examination of the emergence of sociology and sociological thought focusing on the men and women who developed sociology and how their questions and perspectives were shaped by philosophical and social contexts. The course will assess the sociological tradition, explore how it helps us understand contemporary society, and relate it to faith perspectives. Prerequisite: SO 120. Fall semester.
- SO 324 Peoples and Cultures of the Holy Land: Past and Present 3
Explore the significance of the Holy Land for Jews, Christians, and Muslims throughout the ages. Special emphasis is on 20th-century Palestinian-Israeli strife and the current peace efforts. Students will experience Jewish, Arab Christian and Arab Muslim cultures in their natural settings. Jan Term.
- SO 325 Sociology of Death and Dying 3
Looks at death due to both disease process and trauma. Elements of study will include various care giving options; emotional aspects associated with lengthy dying process v. traumatic death; as well as loss and grief; cultural influences regarding care/treatment; religious/spiritual influences; legal and business issues.
- SO 328 Contemporary African Culture 3
The course will provide historical and contemporary aspects of Tanzanian society. We will pay special attention to the political, theological, and communicative dimensions of Tanzania and East African life in general. Students will take part in a one credit fall preparation class. Also listed as PO 328 and TH 328.
- SO 337 Social Research 3
Designing, conducting and interpreting research in an essential skill required of many modern occupations. In this class in organized curiosity, students receive experience in social research by participating in the design and implementation of a class research project. Valuable skills in problem formulation, research design, measurement, questionnaire construction, interviewing, data collection and analysis will be gained as the student encounters these issues in our class research project. Prerequisite: SO 120 and two other sociology courses. Fall semester.
- SO 338 Statistical Analysis in Sociology 3
Learn how to use the computer to do statistical analysis. Become familiar with some basic statistical procedures and develop skills ranging from simple tasks of data entry, data management, data transformation, defining data files and file editing to more complex tasks of univariate, bivariate and multivariate statistical data analysis. Hands-on experience using SPSS software. Prerequisite: SO 120. Spring semester.
- SO 341 Contemporary South Africa 3
Analysis of history, politics, religion and social structure of South African society. Program includes home stays with South African families and meetings with media, political and religious leaders. Jan Term.
- SO 343 Sociology of Religion 3
How can one make sense of religion? A variety of theoretical and methodological "ways of looking" will be used in an attempt to understand religious behavior. Religion will be explored both as it is affected by its social context and as it affects society. Sociology has been seen as both serious threat to cherished religion and a valuable tool for ministry. Both tensions and conversations between Christianity and sociology will be examined. Periodic offering.
- SO 345 Development Strategies in Central America 4
A service-learning and field development experience with agencies such as the Center for Christian Development, World Vision, Habitat for Humanity and other in Central America. Prerequisite: SO/PO 307. Every third spring semester in Central America.
- SO 346 Exploring Central America: Methodology and Comparative Sociology 4
Sociological methods and concepts will be used in a comparative study of Central-American and U.S society and culture. Ethnography will be a beginning place for developing cross-cultural understanding. The field setting will make it possible for tentative explanations of behavior to be tested, modified and discarded on a daily basis. Openness to a wide variety of points of view and to contradictory data will require the development of critical-thinking skills. Prerequisite: SO 307. Every third semester in Central America.
- SO 362 Developmental and Institutional Structures of Central America 3

Work experience with agencies such as Habitat for Humanity and exposure to a wide variety of underdeveloped communities will provide a basis for examining Central-American development. We will explore the impact on development of institutions such as religion, politics, economic institutions, education, the arts, and leisure as well as public and private agencies, and foreign aid. Examine the impact of development on the individual, the family, the community, the municipality, the nation and the region. Prerequisite: SO 307. Every third semester in Central America.

SO 365 Cities and Urban Life 3

Develop skills for understanding today's urban world. Explore the development of the city, patterns of urban settlement, the influence of urban environment upon group life and individual personality, the pathology and possibilities of urban life, and social aspects of urban planning. Examine the situation of the "truly disadvantaged" and learn how to explore an urban subculture. The real city as a learning laboratory: literature, games, guests, movies, field trips, class TV studies and field projects.

SO 368 The Helping Process in Social Services 3

Learn to use core concepts, values, and skills for helping people in social-service settings. Become familiar with interviewing, assessing and behaving professionally in these settings. A Christian view of the helping process will be integrated with the skills and knowledge base.

SO 370 Delinquency and Juvenile Justice 3

The class will review prominent theories on delinquency causation and will use these theories to understand case examples of people who exhibit delinquent behavior. A firsthand introduction to the components, agencies, programs and trends in the juvenile-justice system will move from theory to more pragmatic concerns. Prerequisite: SO 120.

SO 386 Readings 1-4

SO 390 Internship 1-4

SO 391 Independent Study 1-4

SO 395 Teaching Assistantship 1-4

SO 396 Topics in Sociology 1-3

Selected upper-division topics in sociology. Periodic offering.

SO 425 Making Change: Social Intervention Strategies 3

Learn to use a 'sociological imagination' to explore the relationship between personal troubles and public issues while examining a variety of social problems. Examine steps, strategies, approaches and skills used to make change while developing an understanding of neighborhoods, communities and organizations. Experience change firsthand and apply course material by participating in a service learning project outside the classroom. Prerequisite: SO 120 and SO 337. Spring semester.

SO 430 Sports and Society 3

Interrelationships of sports with other aspects of culture. Role of sports in American society. Prerequisite: SO 120. Also listed as KIN 430. Spring semester.

SO 475 Sociology Practicum 3

Through placement in a social agency, students apply their sociological understandings and develop new questions and insights to enrich their sociology. Interns meet in a cluster-group seminar to learn together and process their experiences. Junior or senior sociology major. Spring semester.

SO 478 Contemporary Sociology: Perspectives and Practice 3

A capstone course for senior sociology majors. Contemporary sociological perspectives are examined, from neo-Marxist to postmodern sociologies. Diverse forms of sociological practice are explored with emphasis upon how sociologists connect their personal commitments with sociological practice. Students clarify how they will "live their sociology." Prerequisite: SO 320. Spring semester.

SO 480 Field Studies 1-4

SO 486 Readings 1-4

SO 490 Internship 1-12

SO 491 Independent Study 1-4

SO 495 Teaching Assistantship 1-4

Theatre

<http://www.whitworth.edu/theatre>

Whitworth Theatre and Dance is dedicated to cultivating artistic integrity in its students and its program as we explore the many aspects of theatre in an environment that challenges our students to integrate their faith with their art within and beyond the Whitworth University community.

Students in the theatre and dance program address two primary questions:

- What does it mean to be a Christian in theatre? (Or, what does it mean to be a theatre artist?)
- What is Christian theatre? (Or, what is the function of theatre?)

Departmental Goals and Objectives

By the end of the sophomore year, the student will be able to do the following:

- Analyze a dramatic script from the perspective of the actor
- Employ a variety of rehearsal techniques
- Prepare an audition
- Create both individual and group performances from a variety of texts
- Articulate basic theoretical and ethical performance issues
- Construct basic stock units for a set
- Employ proper vocal techniques for performance (acting track)
- Employ proper movement techniques for performance (acting track)

By graduation, the student will be able to do the following:

- Define "Christian theatre" and explain what it means to be a Christian in theatre from a personal point of view (or, if the student is not a Christian, s/he is asked to define "theatre" and what it means to be in theatre given her/his worldview)
- Execute the four fundamentals of play directing: play analysis, communication with actors, design and production, interpretation and style
- Identify important practices, playwrights, and plays in the history of theatre and articulate the relationship between theatre and the culture within which it exists
- Construct a theoretical argument using historical information
- Create and present a project demonstrating expertise in a chosen area: performance, directing, theatre in education or community engagement, design or research

- Develop and demonstrate a standard audition packet (acting track) or portfolio (technical theatre track) as defined by URTA (acting track)

Requirements for a Theatre Major, B.A. (38-40)

Theology

<http://www.whitworth.edu/theology>

The Whitworth Theology Department is solidly rooted in the Trinitarian faith of the church throughout the ages. We are committed to the authority of Holy Scripture as God's word and to the worldwide mission and ministry of Jesus Christ. Our goal is to provide students with an intellectually challenging, academically rigorous and spiritually enriching theological education that will equip them to serve in a wide variety of contexts. The theology major focuses on the classical disciplines of biblical studies, church history, and Christian theology; as students move through the curriculum, we encourage them to discern Jesus Christ's call on their lives and to respond in faithful obedience.

Students will develop strengths in the following areas:

Understanding of the Bible

- A good working knowledge of the content, emphases, major theological themes and central message of Scripture
- An awareness of various contextual considerations (historical, religious, political, geographic, socio-economic, linguistic and literary) necessary for reading and understanding scripture
- An ability to interpret Scripture Christo-centrally
- The development of a biblical theology with a focus on the gospel of Christ

Understanding of the history, theology, and mission of the church

- An overview of the historical and cultural development of the church throughout the centuries
- An introduction to the major thinkers, texts, leaders, spiritual traditions and movements of the church
- An understanding of the history and development of Christian doctrine
- A commitment to the church and its ministry throughout the world

The skills of critical thinking, reading, research, writing and speaking

- A spirit of open inquiry
- An appreciation of excellent scholarship
- An introduction to the use of primary and secondary source texts
- The ability to think and communicate clearly and critically
- The ability to understand and argue a point of view
- The ability to develop and formulate independent conclusions

Courses

- TH 130 Introduction to the Bible 3
An overview of the entire Bible, with emphasis on literary, historical and theological themes and the diversity and unity within the Bible.
- TH 135 A Biblical Introduction to God 3
This class presents a Christian view of the nature and character of God based on the Bible. Our goal: to bring students perspectives on God into conversation with the biblical view, as we learn to think, speak, and write theologically.

TH 140 Great Themes of the Bible	3
An examination of central biblical themes (creation, covenant, sin, forgiveness, salvation, etc.), through which students will develop an understanding of the message of the Bible as a whole. Attention will be given to the connections between these themes and students' ordinary lives.
TH 141 Great Themes in Paul's Letters	3
An examination of the major themes of Paul's letters, such as salvation, discipleship and the Holy Spirit, through discussion of key Pauline passages, with a view to understanding Paul's gospel and applying it to Christianity today. Periodic offering.
TH 154 Introduction to the Christian Faith	3
The major beliefs and practices of the Christian faith.
TH 155 Being Presbyterian	2
This course is designed to give students an overview of the basic tenets of the Presbyterian Church and its practices based in its Creeds, Book of Worship, and approach to current issues.
TH 160 The Bible and Missions	3
Salvation history began when God promised that He would bless Abraham and then sent Abraham to go to a land that God was going to show him, thus inaugurating the grant "missional" theme of the Bible. Abraham openly declared his faith in God almighty. His faith rested in God's ability to fulfill His promise to make him a blessing to all peoples and a father of many nations. This theme of the covenant relationship established between God and Abraham keeps repeating itself in the Bible, from Genesis to Revelation. This course will explore this missional theme of salvation history. Spring semester.
TH 170 Leadership Development in Ministry	1
On-campus meetings and practical experience as part of the Young Life leadership-development program.
TH 172 Foundations for Christian Leadership	2
Foundations for Christian Leadership is a 2 credit course each semester (fall and spring: students may choose to take it for only one semester, highly recommended for both semesters) specifically designed to help students build a strong foundation for Christian leadership and to consider a variety of service opportunities. The course will consider different aspects of Christian leadership, theology, spirituality, personal growth, and relational skills in order to clarify students' gifts and calling. The course encourages students to consider servant leadership as a lifestyle and a vital part of their college experience. This course fulfills Certification for Ministry requirements in the theology department.
TH 175 The Acts of the Apostles	3
The book of Acts begins with Jesus commissioning His disciples to continue His ministry through the power of the Holy Spirit, from Jerusalem, where the church was born, to Rome, the capital of the Gentile world. Acts tells the story of how the church grew, in both numbers and diversity. This course will explore the growth of the church in its infancy and the lessons that can be learned from this story today. Fall semester.
TH 191 Independent Study	1-4
TH 196 Topics in Theology	1-3
TH 210 The Ten Commandments as Moral Law	3
See under PH 210. Periodic Jan Term offering.
TH 211 Wrestling with God's Wrath	3
An examination of the biblical theme of God's wrath, especially as it relates to God's love and the redemption of his people. Special attention will be given to this theme as it appears in both pop culture and the public square.
TH 212 Redemption of Creation	3
An introduction to the whole story of the Bible with a focus on the created order and God's plans in redemption and new creation. Considers the significance of a biblical theology of creation and redemption for contemporary issues. Fall Semester.
TH 213 The Book of Revelation	3
An introduction to the book of Revelation, with a focus on its literary artistry, theological message and relationship to the rest of Scripture. Considers its genre, historical setting, different interpretive approaches and contemporary significance. Fall semester.
TH 215 Short Term Missions	3
Short term missions have become the norm for America young adults. The Center for World Missions in Pasadena reports that between 1998 and 2008 over 40,000 American high school and college students go to Sub-Saharan Africa on short term mission trips each year. When you add other parts of the world, the number is staggering. It is believed that 1 in 5 young adults from middle income families have had an experience in a short term mission trip either in America or in other parts of the world. This course seeks to help students think through the cultural, biblical, and theological implications of short missions.
TH 216 New Religious Movements	3
A survey of contemporary religious movements and cults. Each will be examined on its own terms, in an attempt to present a fair and non-polemical summary of its history and contemporary expression. A study of Christian history will provide context for understanding non-Christian and quasi-Christian thought. Comparison to classical Christian teaching will be provided throughout.
TH 221 Ethics	3

See PH 221.

Academic Policies for Graduate Programs

The following policies are effective for all graduate programs. Please note that each program may have additional policies listed under the specific program description located in other sections of this catalog.

Academic Standards

1. Completion of all semester credits in approved courses, following a degree plan, is required for all master's degrees. This is in addition to any required prerequisites.
2. Six semester credits (or nine quarter credits) of approved graduate credit may be transferred from other colleges or universities for degree purposes in some master's programs. (Check with advisor.) Workshops, correspondence courses, seminars, video courses and independent studies may not be transferred in from another college or university; nor may a course be transferred in if a grade of "C" or lower, or a grade of "Pass" was assigned.
3. Master's degree and certification candidates must achieve a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale for all courses taken as part of an approved graduate degree.
4. No credit toward a master's degree or certification program will be allowed for a course in which the student receives a grade of "C-" or lower. Note: Programs may require higher than a C-; please see specific program descriptions. Courses in which a grade of "C-" or lower is earned, if required for the degree or certification program, must be repeated. Following any term/module in which a student's cumulative grade-point average is below 3.0, the student may be placed on academic probation. The student will be dismissed from the graduate program if three grades of "C+" or lower are accumulated, or if it is necessary for the student to be placed on academic probation more than twice.
5. A grade of Incomplete ("I") is approved for regular courses only in emergency situations. Student and instructor sign an Incomplete Agreement indicating the reason for the grade. The Incomplete must be made up by six weeks into the following semester. If satisfactory progress is not made on completing the required work, an appropriate final grade will be awarded.
6. Incomplete ("I") grades are given for practicums, internships, research projects and thesis projects that extend beyond the term in which they are scheduled. Incomplete grades for practicums, internships and research projects must be completed within six months of issuance. If not, the student must re-enroll and pay tuition.

7. Credits toward a graduate degree must have been completed within six years of the matriculation.
8. A six-semester-credit course load qualifies a student as full time during each term (fall, spring, summer). A three-semester-credit course load qualifies a student for part-time status.

Class Attendance

Class attendance is expected and may be included in the calculation of the grade for the class. Students who register for courses they do not attend are responsible for dropping the courses officially through the registrar's office. The consequence of not officially dropping a course is a "WW" (withdrew without permission) grade, which calculates as an "F" in the GPA. Students should contact the professor or teaching department if they plan to be absent any day during the first week of the semester/term. No person, other than a faculty member attending informally with the approval of the professor, may attend a Whitworth course in which that person has not been officially registered. A professor may allow a student to attend his or her class only if the student's name appears on the official class roster from the registrar's office. Students are prohibited from bringing children, other family members or guests to their classes except in an emergency and with the permission of the instructor.

Active Status and Suspension

1. Students who take no courses leading to the completion of their master's degree within a one-year period will be placed on inactive status. Should inactive students return to active status, they are responsible for any new university or program requirements.
2. Students may be suspended, expelled, or placed on academic probation for failure to meet academic standards and for plagiarism, cheating, misrepresentation of background information, or violation of respective program requirements. Subsequent readmission follows the procedures for new admission under the catalog requirements in effect at the time of reapplication.

Appeals

1. The right of appeal, in the following order, is available for students who feel they have been unfairly graded:
 1. the instructor of the course
 2. the program director
 3. the dean of the school or faculty chair
 4. the associate dean of instruction (or his/her designee)
2. Appeals for suspension or expulsion
Discuss issue first with the program director; the right of appeal is available to all students if the appeal is presented in writing within three weeks of the incident, in the following order:
 1. to the program director;
 2. to a committee composed of the dean of the school, director/chair of the program, and representatives of the program;
 3. to the Educational Review Board.
3. Certification appeals (applies to GSE/MIT only)
In cases where certification is refused, the student may also appeal to the Professional Education Standards Board.

Graduation Procedures

Formal graduation takes place in mid-May. Students must file an application for graduation in the program graduate office by Nov. 1 in the academic year during which they will be completing their degree, in order to ensure that the student's name will appear in the graduation program. All coursework and program requirements must be completed by the end of the term prior to the degree-posting date. Degree audits are available through WhitNet. In some programs students may petition to participate in the May graduation ceremony if all requirements will not be completed by the end of spring semester; check with program directors for program specific requirements. Detailed graduation information is available on the commencement website. Whitworth University reserves the right to withhold transcripts and diplomas until all campus debts are settled.

Graduate Studies in Business

Graduate Studies in Business

The School of Global Commerce & Management is comprised of the department of economics & business, the organizational management program (a program for the adult learner seeking a baccalaureate degree), and the following graduate-degree programs: master of business administration (MBA), MBA in international management, and master of international management (MIM).

The School of Global Commerce & Management seeks to equip students to serve and successfully lead in business throughout the world via a rigorous, collaborative, values-based education.

Vision in Action: As part of our vision, the School of Global Commerce & Management students will have done the following by the time they obtain their graduate degrees:

- Received comprehensive training and education in business and management with an international emphasis
- Developed an understanding of the nature and complexities of business decision-making in times of change and uncertainty
- Participated in an academic culture in which students learn through relational interaction with outstanding faculty who are highly qualified as scholars and practitioners, from each other, and from other stakeholders (alums and other business professionals) of the university through challenging, relevant and diverse teaching methods
- Joined top-quality students who are not only interested in becoming competent in traditional business disciplines, but who want to live out lives of distinction and meaning as world citizens in an ever-changing, competitive environment
- Gained practical business experience through application, while developing essential communication, interpersonal and leadership, and critical-thinking skills
- Further developed character, integrity, and a capacity for ethical analysis and judgment, traits that are important to an increasingly complex, diverse and globalizing world
- Enhanced their value in the employment marketplace
- Connected to a worldwide alumni network

Programs and Curricular Focus

The School of Global Commerce & Management is recognized as an academic leader in preparing graduate students to successfully compete in today's international marketplace. Our goal is to provide comprehensive training and education for the business leaders of tomorrow, based on the dynamic globalizing environment of business in the 21st century. Courses in finance, ethics, operations and project management, marketing, human resources, law and communications are designed to give students the business skill-sets needed to be competitive in the job market, while developing their intercultural intelligence and expanding their knowledge of world markets. Evening seminar-style courses offer students the choice of full- or part-time study. Full-time enrollment of two courses per each six-week module provides students the opportunity to earn an MBA or MIM degree in 12 months. Part-time enrollment allows a student to take only one course each module and still complete his or her degree in less than two years. A special five-year MBA program is available to international students wanting to complete their undergraduate and graduate degrees at Whitworth within five years. Students in this program may be exempt from taking the GMAT exam for admission into the MBA program. The faculty of the School of Global Commerce & Management is committed to sharing its expertise with students of all ages and levels of experience.

Faculty

Faculty members are active in the fields of international business and management studies, and they bring practical business and cross-cultural experience to the classroom. Faculty members engage in research and consulting for governments and corporations locally and throughout the world. Qualified business practitioners from the community bring added expertise and experience to the classroom through special courses, guest lectures, and supervision of internships, special projects, and business-plan development.

Application Procedures and Admission Criteria

Due to the graduate programs' unique eight-module design, students may apply for admission throughout the year.

Admission decisions are based on an applicant's undergraduate academic record, recommendations, prior experience, graduate examination (GMAT or GRE) score, and approved English-language exam (TOEFL) score for students whose native language is not English. Students may also be invited for an interview.

The following guidelines apply:

- Transfer courses from other graduate programs will be assessed carefully; typically, only six semester credits, or 10 quarter credits, will be considered for transfer as a student enters the MIM or MBA program.
- A TOEFL score of at least 213 (550 computer-based or 79 Internet-based TOEFL) or a 6.5 IELTS score is required for students who are not native speakers of English, unless a student has received a bachelor's degree from an accredited U.S. college or university.
- A minimum GMAT score of 500 or a minimum GRE score of 970 is generally required for admission to the MBA or MIM programs. However, the committee takes a holistic perspective in their review. Appropriate consideration is given to all components of the application packet.
- All applicants must hold a bachelor's degree from an accredited or chartered college or university. Students holding a bachelor's degree, or equivalent, from a college or university outside of the United States may be asked to submit their transcripts to an independent transcript-evaluation agency for review.

Prerequisites

Undergraduate introductory courses in the following disciplines are generally required for admission to the MBA, MIM, and MBA in international management programs:

- Accounting
- Microeconomics
- Macroeconomics
- Marketing
- Statistics
- Finance

Application Procedures

Submit the following:

- MIM or MBA Application for Admission
- $35 (U.S.) non-refundable application fee (please make checks payable to Whitworth University)
- One-page, typed essay stating your purpose for wanting to enter the MIM or MBA program. Please explain how this relates to your short-term and long-term goals.
- Two complete recommendation forms from persons who have worked closely with you and are familiar with your academic and/or professional background
- Official transcripts from ALL colleges or universities you are now attending or have previously attended. Photocopies/unofficial copies will not be accepted. Originals must be sent to the SGCM office at Whitworth University directly from the granting college or university registrar.
- Official GRE or GMAT score reports sent directly to the SGCM office at Whitworth University from the Educational Testing Service. To request GMAT scores, contact GMAT, Educational Testing Service, Box-6103, Princeton, NJ-08541-6103. To request GRE scores, contact GRE, Educational Testing Service, Box-6000, Princeton, NJ-08541-6000. The Whitworth University code is-4953
- Professional résumé that highlights your work experience, significant achievements and responsibilities

Non-U.S. citizens must also include:

- Official TOEFL score report sent directly to the SGCM Office at Whitworth University from the Educational Testing Service. To request your TOEFL score, contact TOEFL, Box-6153, Princeton, NJ-08541-6153 USA. This score is required of all non-native English speakers. For general information, write to TOEFL, Box-6151, Princeton, NJ-08541-6151 U.S.A.
- Completed International Student Financial Statement form with supporting verification documents (including evidence of adequate available financial resources to attend Whitworth)
- Affidavit of financial support is required from students whose financial resources are supplemented in part or wholly by someone other than themselves.

Non-degree-seeking students may be asked to meet the same requirements expected of degree candidates. Class enrollment is on a space-available basis, giving priority to degree-seeking students. Non-matriculating students are generally limited to six credits in the MIM or MBA programs before being expected to apply for admission.

International Students: In some cases, additional English-language study may be recommended, although such coursework does not apply toward the MIM or MBA degrees.

Academic Policies

Academic Standards

1. Documentation of experience will be required of anyone petitioning to substitute experience for prerequisites.
2. To be considered a full-time student in the MIM or MBA programs, a student must complete at least six credits within the academic semester at the university. International students are required to be enrolled for each module to maintain full-time status in compliance with immigration guidelines.
3. A student may apply six semester credits of MIM or MBA coursework taken as a non-degree enrollee for completion of the degree. After completion of at least two courses with non-degree status, the student is encouraged to submit a formal application for degree standing.

Registration

1. Registration each semester is submitted by the SGCM program assistant. It is based on a program plan that each student sets up with the director upon entrance to the program. This plan is reviewed at the beginning of each semester.
2. It is the student's responsibility to notify the registrar's office to drop or add a course. A student who officially drops or withdraws from classes during the course of the term is eligible for an adjustment of charges as follows:
 - First week 100 percent
 - Second week 80 percent
3. No refunds are given after the third week of class. If you receive a 100-percent refund and have already received the books for the course, you will be responsible for paying back the cost of the books directly to the School of Global Commerce & Management, unless books are returned in new condition (as determined by the university bookstore).

Special Features of the MBA Program:

- Unique design for full- or part-time study
- Courses taught by Whitworth faculty and area business professionals
- Prepares students with a range of managerial and financial competencies required by today's employers
- Evening seminar-style classes, with textbooks included in tuition
- Small interactive classes

Special Education Endorsement (P-12)

Completion of the prerequisite courses and the M.A.T. required special education courses and field experiences will prepare a student for an endorsement in Special Education (P-12). Please see the special education coordinator for advising.

Early Childhood Special Education Endorsement (P-3)

Completion of the endorsement in special education, combined with two additional courses – EDS 534 Early Speech, Language and Literacy and EDS 538 Early Intervention Interdisciplinary Method (or equivalent coursework) – and an advanced practicum in an early intervention or preschool special education setting will prepare a student for an endorsement in early childhood special education (P-3). Please see the special education coordinator for advising.

Deaf Education Specialty Endorsement (P-12)

Completion of the endorsement in special education combined with a set of required courses from Spokane Falls Community College's Interpreters Program (or equivalent coursework), EDS 534 Early Speech, Language and Literacy, and an advanced practicum in a deaf education setting will prepare a student for a specialty endorsement in deaf education (P-12). Please see the special education coordinator for a transcript evaluation and advising.

Specialty Endorsement in Teaching the Gifted

The specialty endorsement in teaching the gifted can be obtained while earning the master of arts in teaching degree, emphasis in gifted and talented (M.A.T./GT). It can also be earned separately in an 11-credit program, including a field study and a culminating portfolio. Please contact the Whitworth Center for Gifted Education in the Graduate Studies in Education Department for advising.

Certification

- While every attempt is made to make certification programs compatible with degree study, it should be understood that certification requirements may go beyond degree requirements.
- Whitworth University programs lead to Washington certification. For certification in another state, the applicant will need to contact the office of the superintendent of public instruction in that state to secure the certification requirements.
- Whitworth University certification programs must meet requirements instituted by the Washington Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Professional Education Standards Board. Therefore, certification requirements are subject to change upon notification by the OSPI and PESB and must be incorporated into all appropriate certification plans.
- Certification study without the pursuit of a degree is possible where appropriate.
- Only candidates in good standing will be certified. Contact the Whitworth Office of Graduate Studies in Education at 509.777.3228 for further details.

The Whitworth Educational Certification and Career Services Office is located in Dixon Hall. For assistance with any of the following items, please call 509.777.4405 or 509.777.4406.

Services Provided by Educational Certification and Career Services

- Administrative certification: principal endorsed
- Educational staff associate certification: school counselor endorsed
- Continuing and professional teacher certification
- Placement files: creating, updating, and mailing
- Career Service Information:
 - Career fairs
 - Résumé and cover letters
 - Current job listings
 - On-campus visits

Advising

Call the Whitworth Office of Graduate Studies in Education, 509.777.3228, for an appointment to discuss the various programs. An advisor will be assigned.

Admission Policies

1. No more than six semester credits should be taken prior to admission to GSE, as there is no guarantee they will count toward a graduate degree.
2. Complete an application packet by the following dates: for fall semester, July 1; spring semester, Nov. 1; for summer semester, April 1.
3. There are two levels of admission, as follows:
 - Full admission: cumulative grade-point average of 3.0 or higher, satisfaction of all prerequisites and acceptable recommendations.
 - Restricted admission: cumulative grade-point average of 2.7 or higher, acceptable recommendations, and conditions identified by the admissions committee.
4. Applicants are expected to earn a score at the 25th percentile or higher on the verbal, quantitative, and analogies portions of the Graduate Record Exam or the Miller Analogy Test or to provide documented evidence of their ability to succeed in graduate school. This would include a statistics course and demonstrated graduate-level writing ability.
5. Applicants must hold a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited college or university.
6. Completion/concurrent enrollment in a teacher education program is required for all School of Education master's degree and certification programs except for MIT, M.A./M.Ed. counseling (school or community agency); and M.Ed. in administrative leadership. Photocopies of all Washington teacher, administrator and/or ESA certificates, as well as certificates from other states, must be submitted with the application for admission.
7. Prerequisites prior to graduate study may be required where applicants lack appropriate preparation. Students whose first language is not English may be required to complete prerequisites prior to consideration for admission to GSE. These courses are determined with an advisor to improve expertise in English, math, education methods and study skills.
8. Part of the application process to GSE is completion of the character-and-fitness supplement. Based upon a review and documentation of items disclosed in the character-and-fitness supplement, Whitworth may deny admission to any individual applying to GSE. Applicants with suspended or revoked educational certificates (teacher, counselor, principal, psychologist or other) for a program leading to state certification will not be processed for admission to GSE until such certificates have been reinstated. This includes certificates from other states, as well as from Washington.
9. For international students, the TOEFL test or the GRE is required prior to admission. The minimum score accepted on the TOEFL is 550. Testing is also done in English and in math, prior to the student's graduate coursework, to determine any necessary prerequisites that need to be written into the degree plan. International students must provide proof of adequate financial resources for graduate study prior to admission.
10. Special education applicants will be interviewed.

Note: Several of our programs are currently being revised to meet all Washington State Board of Education requirements. Consult with an advisor regarding all current information.

Academic Policies for Graduate Education Programs

Academic Standards

1. All GSE students are required to take the Whitworth University Computer Assessment Tool (WUCAT) upon entering the program and have one year to successfully pass all parts of the exam for full admission into their respective program.
2. Whitworth Graduate Studies in Education offers independent studies (EDA/EDU/EDC/EDG/EDS-591) that may be taken on a tutorial basis. GSE approval is based upon the following criteria: No regular course covers the project materials, and a designated faculty member agrees to supervise the study (with a limit of two such studies during an entire program). Students are to submit proposals with the signatures of the faculty supervisor and the director/department chair to the GSE office by registration of the term in which the study is taken.

Admission and Expulsion

1. Students who take no courses toward the completion of their master's degree within a one-year period will be placed on inactive status. Should inactive students return to active status, they may be responsible for any new university or program requirements.
2. Students may be suspended or expelled for failure to meet academic standards and for plagiarism, cheating, misrepresentation of background information, or violation of program requirements. Subsequent readmission follows the procedures for new admission under the catalog requirements in effect at the time of reapplication.
3. Whitworth reserves the right to withhold transcripts and diplomas until all campus debts are settled.

- Students are prohibited from bringing children, other family members or guests to their classes except in an emergency and with the permission of the instructor.

General Guidelines

- Whitworth Graduate Studies in Education students may register in the GSE office in Dixon Hall. Tuition is paid through student accounting services in McEachran Hall. Enrollment in a course that is not approved for a specific program is considered as enrichment only and does not count toward a graduate degree or certification program.
- Check with advisor each term for pre-registration advising and for exit requirements.
- Online registration is available after a student's first term, with advisor clearance.

Master of Arts in Teaching

Master of Arts in Teaching, Gifted and Talented (M.A.T.)

Margo Long (program coordinator)

This program is designed to train teachers of gifted and talented students and mainstream classroom teachers to evaluate and utilize appropriate current trends and research ideas, develop differentiated curriculum for all students, and individualize instruction to meet the needs of each child.

The Washington state specialty endorsement in teaching the gifted is available at Whitworth University. Contact the director of the Center for Gifted Education for a transcript evaluation and advising.

Master of Arts in Teaching Special Education (M.A.T.)

Betty Fry Williams (program coordinator)

This program is designed to extend the skills and knowledge of teachers who wish to work with exceptional children and youth. It emphasizes curriculum needs of pupils rather than disability categories. The program can accommodate teachers who are seeking to complete their endorsement in special education under the new Washington state requirements. It is also intended to provide graduate-level specialized training for teachers who are already endorsed in special education. The program prepares teachers to understand inclusion (working with exceptional children in the regular classroom), as well as to work with special-needs learners in resource rooms or self-contained settings.

Prerequisite competencies are required. Transfer classes (graduate or undergraduate) may be accepted in place of the following courses, but any substitutions must be individually evaluated. The following courses, with the exception of field experiences, may be taken at Whitworth as part of the graduate electives required:

Possible Special Education Electives:

EDS 520	Exceptional Learners and Inclusion	3
EDS 521	Intervention for Behavior and Motivation	3
EDS 522	Assessment and Individualized Education Program (IEP) Planning	3
EDS 523	Intervention for Academic Learning Problems	3

Out-of-Spokane-area students: Normally, the university is able to supervise students who work within a reasonable distance of Whitworth. While it is possible for students to complete most of their academic coursework during the summer terms, the administrative internship is completed at the candidate's school during the academic year. Therefore, an administrative internship is appropriate only when the candidate is close enough for adequate university supervision, when a certified school principal is available to be the on-site supervisor, and when the candidate can meet with the administrative PEAB. The candidate should discuss this thoroughly with his or her advisor when considering applying to a program carrying state certification.

EDU 597	Exit Exam/Project

This program is for potential principals in public or private (P-12) schools. Each candidate must have appropriate evaluations/references on file in the GSE office before admission is approved and must schedule a conference with the coordinator of the educational administrative program. The program carries with it competency-based certification with recommendations from the Administrative Professional Education Advisory Board. This board is composed of representatives of the Association of Washington School Principals, Washington Association of School Administrators, Washington Education Association and Whitworth University.

Experience Requirement: Candidates must hold or have held a valid teacher's certificate or a valid educational staff associate certificate, and must have demonstrated successful school-based experience in an instructional role with students.

Certification at the Residency Level: Generally achieved together with the completion of the M.Ed. degree in administration. Certification is available for P-12 administration. The certification program is also available for teachers or counselors who have already completed a master's-degree program.

Professional Administrator's Certificate: Requires verification of 540 days of service as a principal, vice principal or assistant principal with satisfactory district evaluations. This requirement is subject to change by the superintendent of public instruction.

Note: A course that covers abuse and neglect of children is required for the professional teacher certificate and professional administrator's certificate. Check with the certification office at 509.777.4406.

Master in Teaching Program

www.whitworth.edu/mit

mit@whitworth.edu

Elementary Level – 54-58 Semester Credits

Secondary Level – 48-50 Semester Credits

The Whitworth Master in Teaching (MIT) Program was initiated in 1989 as a result of the Washington State Legislature calling for alternative teacher-education programs. It was the first such program in the state. Part of a nationwide movement to strengthen America's corps of teachers by putting successful members of society's workforce into teaching positions, MIT programs provide schools with mature teachers who understand the demands of the real world and whose teaching reflects these realities.

Those pursuing this option include professionals who are changing careers, those who are re-entering the work force, and recent graduates of undergraduate institutions. The professors teaching in the program are from both the higher education level and the K-12 public schools. Coursework and assignments are integrated and are both theoretical and practical. Upon successful completion of the program, candidates earn a Residency Teacher Certificate and a master in teaching degree.

This progressive, performance-based, cohort teacher certification and master's degree program extends over 13 months of full-time coursework and a year-long school practicum. This rigorous program is characterized by 1) integration of academic work with an ongoing field experience; 2) programmatic coherence both from course to course and from on-campus to field work; 3) systematic study of classroom practice; and 4) individual self-reflection and renewal. All teacher candidates design a teacher work sample (TWS). Through this performance assessment, MIT candidates provide credible evidence of their ability to facilitate and improve student learning. Because of the significance of the TWS, most of the courses in the program address specific standards of the TWS.

Admission Requirements

- Willingness to embrace the vision of the MIT program
- Willingness and commitment to learning in a cohort
- Evidence of successful work with children or youth
- Bachelor's degree in an approved teaching endorsement area from a regionally accredited college or university
- Grade-point average of 3.0 For the last half of college. Graduate coursework and/or work history will be considered
- $35 application fee
- Basic-skills test: WEST-B (www.west.nesinc.com to register online). There are three sections to this test. Two of the three must be passed for provisional admission. All sections must be passed by the end of the summer term (August) for full admission
- Submission of three letters of recommendation. Please have the letters sent directly to the following address:
Master in Teaching Program
Whitworth University
School of Education
Spokane, WA-99251
- WEST-E subject-matter text. The WEST-E must be taken prior to the start of the program for provisional admission. All sections of the WEST-E must be passed by the end of fall term (December) for full admission.
- Submission of the character-and-fitness supplement.
- A written two- to three-page statement on why the candidate has chosen teaching as a profession and why s/he has selected the MIT program at Whitworth University for professional preparation.
- A completed application packet to the Whitworth Master In Teaching Office, including transcripts from all colleges attended.
- An interview with the MIT faculty.

- A positive recommendation from the MIT faculty following the interview.

All admissions to the MIT Program are conditional. Full admittance is granted upon successful completion of summer and fall coursework and passage of all WEST-E and WEST-B tests.

Applications for the program will be accepted through March 1 or until program capacity is reached. It is advisable to apply as early as possible.

Please note: 530 series courses are taken by all MIT students. 540 series are taken by elementary track students and 550 series courses are taken by secondary track students.

Thesis study is directed by a major advisor (chair) and two committee advisors. The thesis committee conducts the final oral examination. Approved copies of the thesis, ready for binding, must be submitted to the Graduate Studies in Education office one week before the end of the term in which the degree is anticipated. Letter grade is assigned. Prerequisite: advanced approval from your academic advisor and the Institutional Review Board (IRB). Spring semester. Fee.

Master in Teaching Courses

EDM 530A Educational Foundations and Critical Issues	1
Philosophical foundations of education, critical issues related to education, and the MIT candidate as a compassionate and ethical teacher-scholar. (Elementary and secondary.)
EDM 530B Educational Foundations and Critical Issues	2
Philosophical foundations of education, critical issues related to education, and the MIT candidate as a compassionate and ethical teacher-scholar. Elementary and secondary.
EDM 530C Educational Foundations and Critical Issues	1
This course presses teacher candidates to reflect upon their professional development and plans for continued growth. Candidates also recognize potential indicators across various categories of child abuse and neglect. A review of legal responsibilities pertaining to the reporting of abuse will also be learned.
EDM 531A Exceptional Learner and Differentiated Instruction (a)	1
This course provides an overview of the exceptional learner and introduces differentiated instructional strategies that address different learners' needs in a regular classroom.
EDM 531B Exceptional Learner and Differential Instruction (b)	2
A continuation of EDM 531A based on the professional development over the year.
EDM 532 Child and Adolescent Development and Learning Theory	2
Improvement of learning and teaching effectiveness, including recent developments in human development (cognitive, social, emotional, moral), child growth and development, human learning (behavioral and cognitive) and teaching/instruction. Elementary and secondary
EDM 533A Research and Assessment (a)	1
This course provides an overview of educational research and analysis of the current educational research literature. Students are also introduced to action research and effective classroom assessment strategies.
EDM 533B Research and Assessment (b)	1
Students develop an action research project that is based on WA State Essential Academic Learning Requirements (EALRs) and utilizes current research and assessment practices.
EDM 533C Research and Assessment (c)	1
Analysis of classroom based assessment data gathered from the action research project to determine impact on student learning.
EDM 535 Technology in Education	1

The goal of this course is to prepare participants to teach with the technology found in today's schools. They will learn how to gain access to information and how to communicate using current technology, including the Internet and multimedia. They will also begin developing technological strategies that will be applied to other education courses in the field. (Elementary and secondary.)

EDM 536A Culturally Competent Teachers 2

Examination of how attitudes, behaviors and values are shaped; the nature and use of power in society, one's own values, principles of effective multicultural education, cultural influences on learning, and intercultural communication skill training. Elementary and secondary.

EDM 536B Field Experience: Multicultural/Intercultural Education 3

A field experience teaching students from a culture other than one's own. To increase one's teaching skills across difference. (Full time in a school classroom for approximately a three week block). Fee.

EDM 538 Teacher-Scholar Seminar & Teacher Performance Assessment 2

This seminar provides the MIT teacher candidates with the opportunity to prepare all necessary documents to earn their teacher certification and complete their placement file as they apply for teaching positions. This seminar also serves as the setting where they bring together all the documents and student-based evidence to meet Washington States requirements for the Teacher Performance Assessment (TPA).

EDM 539A Teacher Work Sample 1

The MIT teacher candidates begin meeting the standards of the TWS. Through this performance assessment, teacher candidates provide credible evidence of their ability to plan for and facilitate learning by meeting the nine TWS standards.

EDM 539B Teacher Work Sample 1

The MIT teacher candidate implements the TWS during full-time student teaching. Candidates gather data regarding the extent to which their plan and their teaching had a positive impact on student learning. Based on reality, modifications to the initially developed TWS are made.

EDM 539C Teacher Work Sample 1

The MIT teacher candidate edits and completes all nine components of the TWS. Each candidate shares the contents of their TWS with peers and faculty.

EDM 540 Math for MIT 4

This theory/methods course prepares elementary teacher candidates to teach mathematics in K-8 through using the constructivist approach. Inquiry, contextual problems, use of manipulatives and models, and strategies for problem solving/application approaches to math will be used.

EDM 542A Elementary Social Studies: U.S. History 1

These courses introduce the content of U.S. history (EDM 542 A), civics (EDM 542 B), and economics (EDM 542 C) that are typically taught at grades 1-8 in the state of Washington. Guiding the content are the benchmarks set forth for each grade level as stated in Washington State Essential Academic Learning requirements (EALRs).

EDM 542B Elementary Social Studies: Civics 1

These courses introduce the content of U.S. history (EDM 542 A), civics (EDM 542 B), and economics (EDM 542 C) that are typically taught at grades 1-8 in the state of Washington. Guiding the content are the benchmarks set forth for each grade level as stated in Washington State Essential Academic Learning requirements (EALRs).

EDM 542C Elementary Social Studies: Economics 1

These courses introduce the content of U.S. history (EDM 542 A), civics (EDM 542 B), and economics (EDM 542 C) that are typically taught at grades 1-8 in the state of Washington. Guiding the content are the benchmarks set forth for each grade level as stated in Washington State Essential Academic Learning requirements (EALRs).

EDM 542D Elementary Social Studies: Pacific Northwest History 1

This course introduces the concepts and content of Pacific Northwest History that is typically taught at grades 1-8 in the state of Washington guiding the content and the benchmarks set forth for each grade level as states in Washington's Essential Academic Learning Requirements. Summer Term II.

EDM 543 Language Literacy in Elementary School 4

This course examines processes, methods, approaches and materials for teaching reading and language skill.

EDM 544A Elementary General Methods, Assessment, Management 1

This course introduces basic teaching theories and strategies needed for culturally relevant teaching, assessing students, and managing classrooms.

EDM 544B Elementary General Methods, Assessment, Management 3

This course introduces basic teaching theories and strategies needed for culturally relevant teaching, assessing students, and managing classrooms.

EDM 545A Elementary Art Methods 1

This course places an emphasis on the art experience. The student will become aware of his or her own judgment and bias relating to art. The use of different media, integration of art into other content areas, and process/product will be studied. The student will become familiar with terminology and knowledge in various art programs. The student will learn how to teach art skills and concepts to elementary school children.

EDM 545C Elementary Science Methods 2

- This science methods course involves students in science instruction, focusing on four instructional methods utilized in the elementary classroom: inquiry, integrated, thematic, and problem-based/applied. The goal of this course is twofold: 1) to provide students with an overview of current methods and 2) to begin a resource collection of grade-level specific science content, activities, assessments, resources and references for use during the teacher-scholar practicum.
- EDM 545D Elementary Music Methods 1
Curriculum and methods for teaching music in the elementary school. Procedures and materials for teaching music in the self-contained elementary classroom. (Elementary.)
- EDM 545E Elementary PE and Health Education Methods 1
Methods for teaching physical education and health education in the elementary school. Current methods and materials used in developing the elementary curriculum and in teaching the appropriate activities for each grade level.
- EDM 545F Elementary Social Studies Methods 1
Elementary teacher candidates will learn social studies classroom techniques and strategies including: social skills instruction, storytelling, project design and implementation, multicultural appreciation, curriculum integration, creative expression, observation and reflection, and integrating global citizenship.
- EDM 547A Elementary Teacher-Scholar Practicum 2
This teaching experience in an elementary school classroom begins when the MIT student reports in late summer and then moves to half-time after MIT classes begin. Grade is Satisfactory/Not Satisfactory.
- EDM 547B Elementary Teacher-Scholar Practicum 10
Full-time student teaching in an assigned public elementary school classroom. Grade is Satisfactory/Not Satisfactory.
- EDM 547C Elementary Teacher-Scholar Practicum 2
Half-time student teaching in the assigned public school classroom from mid-May until the last week; full time during the last week. Grade is Satisfactory/Not Satisfactory. (Elementary.)
- EDM 548A Elementary Second Language Acquisition 1
Elementary candidates will learn about how students acquire a first and second language. They will acquire knowledge of basic interpersonal communication skills (BICS) and cognitive academic language proficiency (CALP), incorporating the four domains of listening, speaking, reading, and writing.
- EDM 548B Methods Second Language Teaching 1
The emphasis of this course is on the application of language-acquisition theory to the teaching of English language learners. Listening, speaking, reading and writing teaching strategies as well as the purpose and administration of language-proficiency assessment will be presented and practiced.
- EDM 552 Seminar in Secondary Topics 2
This seminar introduces the secondary teacher candidates in the Master in Teaching program to many of the most critical issues, and challenges faced in secondary education.
- EDM 553 Literacy Across the Disciplines 3
Practical approaches and effective teaching techniques for presenting reading assignments in the content areas will be presented and implemented. The focus of this course is to develop the abilities of teachers to enhance the secondary student's ability to "read to learn" rather than to "learn to read". (Secondary.)
- EDM 554 Secondary General Methods/Curriculum Development and Assessment 4
Principles of planning; daily lesson planning; unit development; different instructional techniques; providing for individual differences; and classroom management.
- EDM 554A Secondary General Methods, Assessment, Management 1
This course examines basic theory and strategies needed to plan, develop, teach, and assess effective culturally relevant lesson plans and units of study. Strategies supported by research needed to manage the physical classroom environment and to create a respectful and culturally positive learning climate that assures maximum learning will be learned.
- EDM 554B Secondary General Methods, Assessment, Management 3
This course examines basic theory and strategies needed to plan, develop, teach, and assess effective culturally relevant lesson plans and units of study. Strategies supported by research needed to manage the physical classroom environment and to create a respectful and culturally positive learning climate that assures maximum learning will be learned.
- EDM 555A-H Secondary Education Methods 1
- EDM 557A Secondary Teacher-Scholar Practicum 2
A teaching experience that begins when the MIT student reports in late summer and then moves to half time after MIT classes begin. Grade is Satisfactory/Not Satisfactory.
- EDM 557B Secondary Teacher-Scholar Practicum 10
Full-time student teaching in the assigned public secondary school classroom. Grade is Satisfactory/Not Satisfactory.
- EDM 557C Secondary Teacher-Scholar Practicum 2
Half-time student teaching in the assigned public school classroom from mid-May until the last week; full time during the last week. Grade is Satisfactory/Not Satisfactory. (Secondary.)
- EDM 558 Teaching English Language Learners in Secondary Schools 1

The MIT secondary teacher candidates will be introduced to an overview of second language acquisition. They will also develop skills on how to differentiate their lesson planning, instruction, and assessment in order to increase English language learners' content knowledge.

EDM 558A Secondary Second Language Acquisition 1

Secondary candidates will learn about how students acquire a first and second language. They will acquire knowledge of basic interpersonal communication skills (BICS) and cognitive academic language proficiency (CALP), incorporating the four domains of listening, speaking, reading, and writing.

EDM 558B Methods Second Language Teaching 1

The emphasis of this course is on the application of language-acquisition theory to the teaching of English language learners. Listening, speaking, reading and writing teaching strategies as well as the purpose and administration of language-proficiency assessment will be presented and practiced.

EDM 591 MIT Independent Study 1-3

Special Education Courses

EDS 501 Introduction to Sign Language and the Deaf 4

Study of American Sign Language, language acquisition, teaching methods, teaching sequences and materials for persons with hearing impairments, communication disorders, and cognitive delays. Overview of the history of sign language as well as receptive and expressive finger-spelling. Also listed as ASL 101 (students must register for graduate-level course and complete extra project if in a graduate program).

EDS 502 Sign Language and the Deaf II 4

Advanced study of American Sign Language and the culture of the deaf. Expansion and improvement of manual communication skills, translating or interpreting abilities, and development of mental processing techniques for comprehending the meaning of unfamiliar signs. Overview of educational aspects of deaf culture and sign language. Also listed as ASL 102. Study of educational, medical, behavioral, and social treatments of students with attention deficit/hyperactivity disorders and learning disabilities. Development of skills required in recognizing, assessing, and planning appropriate interventions. Also listed as EDS 425. (Students must register for a graduate-level course and complete an extra project if in a graduate program).

EDS 526 Intervention for Severe Communication, Sensory and Physical Problems 3

Methods and strategies for working with students who have severe and multiple disabilities, with emphasis on functional skills, augmentative communication, positioning and handling techniques, mobility, social-skill development and adaptive behaviors. Program planning and implementation. Also listed as EDU 426. (Students must register for a graduate-level course and complete an extra project if in a graduate program).

EDS 530 Intervention for Autism Spectrum Disorder	3
In this course we will discuss the diagnostic criteria and defining characteristics of autism spectrum disorder and related disabilities, as well as effective interventions and the impact of having a child with autism on a family. Prerequisite: EDU 321 or EDS 521.
EDS 534 Early Speech, Language and Literacy	3
Introduction to components of speech and language; and change involving second language acquisition whether oral or manual, with application to literacy and learning for students with disabilities. Junior/Senior standing or Graduate students. Prerequisite: EDU 320/EDS 520. Fall and spring.
EDS 536 Intervention through Positive Behavior Support	3
Emphasis placed on collaborative teaming to develop and implement school-wide systems for character education and Positive Behavior Support. Fieldwork required.
EDS 538 Early Intervention Interdisciplinary Method	3
Early childhood special education methods using an interdisciplinary and Activity-Based Intervention approach. Requires on-site seminar and fieldwork. Junior/Senior standing or Graduate student. Prerequisite: EDU 424/EDS 524. Summer.
EDS 581 Practicum: Special Education, Early Childhood/K-8	1
A teaching-assistant practicum of 30 hours in a special-education classroom. Concurrent enrollment permissible in EDS 583/EDU 483, Advanced Practicum: Special Education, Early Childhood/K-8. Prerequisites: EDS 520/EDU 320 and EDS 521/EDU 321. Also listed as EDU 481. Application is required. (Students must register for a graduate-level course and complete an extra project if in a graduate program.) Grade is Satisfactory/Not Satisfactory. Fall, spring, Jan Term, summer.
EDS 582 Practicum: Special Education, Middle/High School	1
A teaching-assistant practicum of 30 hours in a special-education classroom. Concurrent enrollment permissible in EDS 584/EDU 484. Prerequisite: EDS 520/EDU 320 and EDS 521/EDU 321. Also listed as EDU 482. Application is required. (Students must register for a graduate-level course and complete an extra project if in a graduate program.) Grade is Satisfactory/Not Satisfactory. Fall, spring, Jan Term, summer.
EDS 583 Advanced Practicum: Special Education, Early Childhood/K-8	4
A practicum of 120 hours in a special-education classroom under teacher supervision. Application and permission required. Also listed as EDU 483. (Students must register for a graduate-level course and complete an extra project if in a graduate program).
EDS 584 Advanced Practicum: Special Education, Middle/High School	4
A practicum of 120 hours in a special education classroom under teacher supervision. Application and permission required. Also listed as EDU 484. Students must register for graduate level course and complete extra project if in a graduate program. Prerequisite: EDS 582/EDU 482 or concurrent enrollment.
EDS 591 Independent Study	1-3

Master of Arts in Theology

<http://www.whitworth.edu/theologyma>

Overview

The Master of Arts in Theology Program seeks to produce Christ-centered, well-educated, spiritually disciplined, visionary leaders for the church and society. The students most likely to benefit from the program will be people already engaged in church leadership or who show interest and promise in eventually doing so. If desired, students can use the program as a foundation for an M.Div. degree or other advanced degree. The program is built on a sturdy foundation of the following elements:

- Classical Theology: professors teach the traditional theological disciplines of biblical studies, systematic theology and church history, as well as more applied areas
- Practical Preparation: classes address contemporary challenges that people in ministry face every day and explore concrete and creative solutions
- Spiritual Formation: students learn together in a praying, worshipping community, enjoy many meals together, and practice many of the traditional spiritual disciplines.

Design

The program is designed in a cohort model. Most students will start the program together and stay together throughout the eight required courses of the "core" course sequence. The cohort model enables students to learn as a community through classroom activities, shared meals, and the practice of spiritual disciplines. Each core course is offered every year so that students who for some reason have to skip a course can enroll in it the next year.

Academic Values and Outcomes

Whitworth University's Theology Department is solidly rooted in the Trinitarian faith of the Church throughout the ages. It is committed to the authority of Holy Scripture as God's word and to the worldwide mission and ministry of Jesus Christ. Its goal is to provide students with an intellectually challenging, academically rigorous, and spiritually enriching theological education that will equip them to serve in a wide variety of contexts. The M.A. in Theology program focuses on the classical disciplines of biblical studies, church history and Christian theology. As students move through the curriculum, they are challenged to discern God's call on their lives and to apply what they are learning to the ministries in which they are engaged.

Student learning outcomes:

- Develop skills in reading and interpreting important texts, arguing a point of view, writing for formal classroom work and for ministry, and communicating theology to lay people; apply these skills in actual ministry setting
- Cultivate various disciplines in the spiritual life, such as Bible memorization and prayer; explore how to help lay people do the same in a ministry setting.
- Understand the story of the Bible, theological themes in the Bible, and genres of biblical literature, and explore various methods of biblical interpretation; learn how to explain these to lay people in a ministry setting.
- Gain knowledge and perspective on the history of the church; use as a resource for practical ministry.
- Master the basic history, development, and ideas of Christian doctrine; apply this knowledge to a ministry setting.
- Explore the principles of leadership in a ministry organization, methods of discipleship training, and techniques of pastoral ministry and counseling; adapt these to actual ministry settings.

Master of Arts in Theology Courses

All students will take eight core courses (24 credits) covering the disciplines of theology and ministry. Each course requires the completion of assignments before the class convenes, participation in classroom discussion, and submission of a final project after the class is finished. In addition, students can choose four electives (12 credits) that will allow them to explore areas of interest, for example, pastoral spirituality, the missional church, youth ministry, pastoral counseling, and Christianity and culture. These will serve as areas of concentration in the elective part of the program.

Application and Admission Process

Admission Requirements

The Master of Arts in Theology Program seeks students who are currently involved in a church and/or Christian organization, as well as those who desire a deeper knowledge and understanding of Christian theology. Applicants must have completed a bachelor's degree with a 3.0 or higher GPA from an accredited institution. Prior graduate coursework may also be considered if an applicant's GPA is below 3.0.

If academic record does not demonstrate graduate level academic ability, further evidence of academic ability may be required.

Your application is complete when we've received...

- A completed application
- Two professional recommendations. At least one must be from a member of a church or faith-based organization with which you're affiliated. Recommendations should be mailed directly to Whitworth.
- Official college/university transcripts, mailed directly to Whitworth
- A personal essay of up to 600 words including a brief biography, a statement of your personal commitment to the Christian faith, and the reason for your interest in the program. (Submit online, through the mail or in person.)
- A writing sample of up to 1,000 words (e.g. sermon, essay, book review, newsletter column) to help us assess your academic capability. (Submit online, through the mail or in person.)
- A current résumé

Students are encouraged to apply online at www.whitworth.edu/theologyma; information not submitted online should be sent directly to:
